Dedicated to my friend and kamerad, Norman Lowell

And to all the living kameraden who, persevering in the face of extreme adversity, continue the good fight, in thought and deed, for the IDEA of the Fourth Reich IMPERIUM, that one day it might LIVE!

AVE!

“... [T]he Europe the SS envisioned was alive and real. Its six hundred million inhabitants would live from the North Sea to Vladivostok. It was in this span of 8,000 miles that Europe could achieve its destiny. A space for young people to start new lives. This Europe would be the beacon of the world. A remarkable racial ensemble. An ancient civilization, a spiritual force and the most advanced technological and scientific complex. The SS prepared for the high destiny of Europe.”

Preface

By

Norman Lowell

This was a much needed book. Coming just one year after the second publishing of Imperium Europa (Arktos, 2019), this masterpiece by Kristof von Kanwitzburg tackles the nitty-gritty, the nuts and bolts of the Imperium IDEA.

At first there was the word: Francis Parker Yockey with his Imperium, written just after World War II. Yockey was a brilliant political mind, a Man who knew the real enemy. A Man ahead of his time – a Man against time.

Yockey's political options were extremely limited due to the dividing Iron Curtain. He had one political option: East or West. He was in Zugzwang. He did what he possibly could, went as far as his political constraints allowed him.

Had Yockey lived now, he would have been the rightful bearer of the IDEA. A planetary Imperium uniting all Europids: the Anglo-Saxons, the Teutons, the Slavs and the Latins.

After the word of Yockey came the spark: the launching, the propagation of the Spirit of Imperium. This IDEA germinated and finally sprouted in Malta. This Sacred Island of Melita, most probably the remaining tip of Atlantis, that huge island, submerged. This Spiritual Focal Point of the coming, inevitable, unstoppable Imperium Europa. Malta ignited the spark that will set Europe ablaze. This Island steeped in the Arcane Tradition at the southernmost periphery – this inestimable Sacred Space.

Regeneration can never start from the decadent centre. Revolution and Restoration can only emerge from the periphery. Greece, a barren mountainous corner of Europe gave us the glory of architecture, philosophy, the arts. Britain, a small island on the western fringe gave us the Industrial Revolution.

But what is this IDEA of Imperium Europa? It is a glorious idea that could have been achieved around BC 870, when the roving bands of Europids could have united and installed it. Instead, they broke into rival City States, eventually the Nation States with the consequent, interminable fratricidal follies.

A planetary Imperium of Regions and Peoples, not Nation States, at the top of which stand the Elite.

“An Elite beyond parliaments, parties, politicians, prostitutes and priests.”

And now, this superb scholar Kristof von Kanwetzburg gives flesh and bones to the Word and the Spirit. He witnessed decadence at the United Nations building in New York, where he worked as an executive. He left in disgust and searched, a solitary thinker, for a solution to the salvation of his Race and Civilization.

He found it in Imperium Europa. Of course he was predisposed, having visited the Sacred Island and having come to know of me (though we never met). He studied the whole concept and embarked on this truly amazing work. No area concerning the Imperium has been neglected.

The author goes into methodical detail explaining both the Imperium (masculine) and Dominium (feminine) sides. The various subraces of Europids (i.e. “Aryans”) are described, along with their territorial dispersions. The geographic dimensions of the Imperium are illustrated, with the author pushing our future borders to their extreme limits.

High Politics and the Imperium’s relations with outsiders are elucidated, with a depth of detail that pins down all the seemingly intractable problems we face. And this, always with one single purpose:

Everything for the betterment of the White Aryan species.

But for all this to materialize one needs Political Will. And to implement Political Will one has to have Political Power! And von Kanwetzburg agrees that the only Way Forward, the only solution lies in Brussels. We have to take over Europe!

Hence the Regions, as opposed to the Nation States which can so easily be manipulated and set against each other by the enemy within. Regions retaining traditions, customs, dialects, laws – Regions protected by the Imperium.

But I would not want to rob the reader of the many surprises in this truly breath-taking book. The erudition of the author is in no doubt. The English is professorial and the book is divided into chapters, with practical subdivisions that make reference an easy task.

I leave the reader to pursue the IDEA in its practical implementation. Buon proseguimento!

CHAPTER ONE

Introduction to the IDEA

Anyone wishing to understand the IDEA outlined in this book – which is to say its combined spiritual, racial, cultural, political, social and economic Message – must do three things. First, one must thoroughly acquaint oneself with the Organic ideological origins of the IDEA, namely the all-encompassing Weltanschauung of National Socialism and its corresponding history in Germany both before and after the establishment of the Third Reich. This means one must study the essential primary sources from this period, particularly Mein Kampf (the “Bible of National Socialism”) and Dr. Alfred Rosenberg’s The Myth of the Twentieth Century. Supplemental works and speeches by the leading Thought-Deed Men of National Socialism must also be studied – Men such as: Gottfried Feder, Joseph Goebbels, Heinrich Himmler, Rudolf Hess, and Hermann Göring. The official publications of the NSDAP and SS should also be read. All the major ones can now be found in English.

Secondly, one should become familiar with the many proto-National-Socialist works that came before, particularly those of völkisch origin which helped articulate and shape, both exoterically and esoterically, the worldview of the abovenamed men. With regard to the exoteric, it is vital to read the racial works of Arthur de Gobineau and Hans F. K. Günther, the philosophy of Friedrich Nietzsche,¹ the broad historical outlines of Houston Stewart Chamberlain and Oswald Spengler, and the anti-Jewish treatises of Henry Ford and Theodor Fritsch. As for the esoteric influences on National Socialism, one must read the Armanist/Ariosophical works of Guido von List and Lanz von Liebenfels. The Radical Traditionalist works of Julius Evola are also highly recommended, especially his classic Revolt Against the Modern World. Although Evola cannot rightly be called a “National Socialist,” the Sicilian Aristocrat of the Soul has indeed helped shape the esoteric philosophy of the IDEA (i.e. the legitimate ideological offspring of National Socialism).

Thirdly, one must read the works of pro-Aryan literature which, following in the tradition of all the above-mentioned, rose up in defiance after the utter defeat of Western Civilization in the post-1945 era of Capitalist-Communist victory. Here, of course, names like Savitri Devi, George Lincoln Rockwell and Miguel Serrano should immediately spring into the minds of all well-informed readers. And indeed, the works of these geniuses must be read and studied.

Nevertheless, if one is interested in the specific concept or IDEA of a coming White World IMPERIUM (i.e. White Aryan Reich) and all the many intricacies that that entails towards our final Victory as a Race, then it is absolutely crucial to read two fundamental works on the subject: Francis Parker Yockey's Imperium (1948) and Norman Lowell's Imperium Europa (2009) – two masterful works which address the declining power and influence of White Aryan Civilization (or “Western Culture”) on a global scale, and which offer a profound two-tier solution: (1) the casting off of the Judeo-Capitalist-Marxist (i.e. Culture-distorting) noose which is strangling the White nations of the world, and (2) the formation of a worldwide union of truly free White Aryan (i.e. “Western”) nations into a permanent and exclusive Racial-Cultural-Political bloc or IMPERIUM. Only thus could European Civilization fully develop along its own natural lines and finally blossom into a Faustian-bearing Culture which brings its unique balance of Dionysian Energy and Apollonian Order to the ends of the earth and beyond (yes, into the untapped infinity of Space itself!).

Of course, there are some thematic differences between the works of Yockey and Lowell. Whereas Yockey presents more of an historical work thus outlining the cultural, historical and philosophical foundations of the great European or “Western” Culture, Norman Lowell builds upon Yockey's tome, outlining the specific racial and political views and goals of the future IMPERIUM; and so it is Lowell who is really the first to provide a detailed description of what this IMPERIUM will be.

Whereas Yockey delves more into the “whys and wherefores” of Western decadence – based on the solid facts of history, culture and philosophy – Lowell focuses more on the present racial-political crises bedeviling the Western World and provides future solutions to these crises. And it is here, in Lowell’s proposed solutions, that we receive our greatest hope for the future. Whereas Francis Yockey focuses his attention primarily on the forces of History, Culture, and Culture-distortion, Norman Lowell puts his greatest emphasis on Race and, specifically, on the prospect of a coming worldwide political organization of the most advanced and accomplished race in all of recorded history: the White Race. Hence, in my own opinion, Lowell’s Imperium Europa is the more indispensable work for National Socialists like myself and other White Racial Loyalists, as he provides remedies to our most pressing problems. Indeed, Lowell’s work represents the very basis for the IDEA put forward in the proceeding pages of this book.

Now then, “Just what is the IDEA?” one might reasonably ask. Well, quite simply, it is a beautiful Vision – one of Natural Laws implemented politically by the best of men and enforced by a steely Super-Human Elite; it is a Quest to bring Aryan Order out of Semitic chaos; a resurrected Dream of classical European beauty made Reality, which finally defeats and destroys the present worldwide cult of Ugly; it is the IDEA of the White Aryan Reich, a.k.a. Imperium Europa – an IDEA which is long overdue and whose time has come. It is a “Spirit of the Age” that has been thwarted for more than a century by the false doctrines of Liberalism, Marxism and all forms of Materialist decadence. It is an IDEA that started to take root and blossom under the favorable cultural-political climes of Fascist Italy and National Socialist Germany. It is an IDEA of maximum individual freedom or Dominium, and yet also an IDEA of the dutiful Authority of the racial state. In its most basic essence, the IDEA is the resurrected High Aryan Ideal in all its glory; the rekindled Organic spark of all White Racialist thought.

As an acronym the IDEA thus represents these four integrated elements: Imperium, Dominium, Europa, and Auctoritas. Nonetheless, the reader must understand that this all-embracing IDEA cannot possibly be constricted to the neatly defined limits of a simple acronym; to think otherwise would be absurd. It is only for the sake of convenience and memorability that I have broken the IDEA down in the form of an acronym.

IMPERIUM / Dominium

The letters I and D comprise the first two letters of the word IDEA and they represent the corresponding concepts of IMPERIUM and Dominium. Both of these words, in turn, contain dual meanings – metaphysical and physical; spiritual and material; esoteric and exoteric.

First comes the Latin word for power and supreme command: IMPERIUM. In English the word is loosely translated as Empire. However, the word IMPERIUM contains a far broader meaning than its English equivalent (“Empire”) which tends only to describe the power of a state or government in relation to its earthly expanse. In other words, the English word “Empire” tends only to be used when describing a kingdom of greater than average geopolitical scope. On the other hand, the word IMPERIUM innately defines a force of Power (or supreme command) and does not only encompass the political realm but also the higher realms of Spirituality, Race, High Culture and High Politics, in addition to territorial expansion (or Lebensraum) and the lower realms of economics and social organization. Here, the German word Reich also encompasses all of the above and is thus very close in meaning to its Latin counterpart – so much so, in fact, that the words IMPERIUM and REICH are practically synonymous, and therefore interchangeable.

To wield that thing which we call “power” is the absolute first act of any animal during its conception and impending birth. It is the immediate – and ever so mystical! – Struggle of New Life over Death; the very first Triumph of the Will. It is only after the act of birth that the pending instinctual realization of powerlessness sets in, when the newborn comes face to face with the adversity of a vast new world of Struggle outside the protective wall of its mother's womb. It is then that the newborn instinctively seeks food, water, protection from the elements, survival. From this point on, the successful creature understands (even if only subconsciously) that it is Power which drives the species forward. As this is true for all forms of animal life (both human and non-human) it is also true for plant-life, mineral life and heavenly bodies, which is to say, all Life. Thus, the very concept of IMPERIUM is the Power of Life – that mysterious Force which is at the same time behind, guiding, and in front of all Life. In Nietzschean terms, it is the Will to Power and yet also the Power to Will – the vital creative Force “beyond good and evil” which affirms and blesses all Life via its eternal law of struggle and overcoming.

Indeed, IMPERIUM is the Supreme Force behind this IDEA of ours. First and foremost, IMPERIUM is Geist or Energy-Spirit (Impigritas in Latin). It is the Highest, the Unseen, the Power behind all existence, associated with the related concepts of the All-Father in Norse and Indo-European Paganism, Vril in the world of the Aryan occult, the Holy Spirit and God the Father in Gnostic and Aryan Kristianity, and the aware yet ever-evolving Cosmos of Cosmotheism. Above all, IMPERIUM is a Spiritual Force which directs the realm of base or material creation through its employment of Dominium, i.e. Organic-thought and the Divine Creators (also known as the Upper Aeons).²

From the outpouring of the IMPERIUM (the Uriginal Power) comes its Divine Will or “Sacred Sperm.” Then, when the Divine Will (or “Sperm”) fertilizes the spiritual egg of the Dominium (the IMPERIUM’s self-created metaphysical consort), the creation of lesser souls and all forms of matter is permitted to take place. IMPERIUM is thus the Prime Source and “Cause behind the cause” of all things.

Time, Space, and all universes and dimensions were “seeded” by this understanding of IMPERIUM as First-Geist or Energy-Spirit. As a Force, IMPERIUM is decidedly masculine. From the IMPERIUM all things receive Power.

Mythological figures associated with the primordial power of the IMPERIUM are such primeval Indo-European gods as Buri, Uranus, and Purusha. The presence of “ur” in all three names testifies to a common Proto-Indo-European origin. Particularly relevant (demonstrating the most accurate ontological interpretation) is the Vedic concept of Purusha or Energy-Spirit.

Connected to IMPERIUM is the Dominium – a Latin word literally meaning “absolute ownership.” In spiritual terms Dominium is synonymous with Organic-thought or Mind-Spirit (consciousness) and is associated with the neuter/feminine concept of the “Son of God” (or the Logos, i.e. Word of God) and the “Mother of God” (e.g. M-ARIA = Mother of Aryans).

Through the Dominium comes the bonding of its own “Cosmic Egg” to the pre-existing “Sperm” (Divine Will) of the IMPERIUM. The resulting synthesis is the conception and birth of the holy offspring of IMPERIUM and Dominium... the Pleroma – the three-tiered organizational Trinity of the universe divided and unified in three integral parts: (1) Instinct/Unconscious, (2) Consciousness, and (3) Will. These in turn, give rise to: Past/Creation, Present/Preservation, Future/Destruction (which are then repeated cyclically).

Hence, the Dominium is the great Organic “birth-mechanism” and nurturer of the Higher Spiritual Realm. All Time, Space, universes and dimensions were “birthed” by the Dominium – the feminine counterpart to the IMPERIUM. And although subordinate to the latter, all things receive from the Dominium their Organic structure, uniqueness and placement in the Cosmic Hierarchy.

In essence the Dominium is best represented by the Hindu concept of Prakriti – the feminine materializing counterpart to the purely spiritual and masculine Purusha. Prakriti is both the Organic-thought process and primordial matter which necessarily precedes the creation of the Cosmos. Only through her contact with the kinetic Purusha (Energy-Spirit) – from which she is ultimately derived (much as the biblical Eve is derived from Adam’s rib) – can she proceed with her creation. This essentially metaphysical idea of Purusha/Prakriti naturally leads to the exoteric religious concept of the Divine Consort, as almost every male god (deva) of the Hindu pantheon has a female consort (devi).

Now on to the exoteric meanings of the words IMPERIUM and Dominium. On the physical plane, IMPERIUM describes the racial, cultural and geopolitical commonwealth of its higher spiritual reality (“As above, so below”). As an IDEA it entails the long-awaited Fourth Reich, Fourth Rome, White Aryan Racial State, etc. Dominant, dynamic and merciless, the IMPERIUM seeks every opportunity to expand, penetrate and dominate; it is directed in these endeavors by an Elite caste of Übermenschen. As such, the IMPERIUM is innately masculine. Its concerns are primarily Race, High Culture, Territory and High Politics. The duty of the IMPERIUM to all four are as follows:

- (1) To preserve, bolster and, yes, to purify the White Aryan Race, to increase its numbers; hence, to strengthen the health and hygiene of the Race via an integrated system of eugenics and euthenics, and to protect it from all alien threats (not least of which is the modern-day malady of miscegenation).

- (2) To protect and promote all the positive, healthy – and thus non-decadent – forms of High Culture which have defined White Aryan Civilization since time immemorial, and to assist and enable present and future artists to further develop Aryan High Culture to its fullest potential.
- (3) To ensure that the vast and sacred Racial Habitat of the IMPERIUM – which is to say, all its Territory – is always protected, never ceded (not even an inch!), and is forever oriented on the healthy path of expansion in all directions.
- (4) To ensure that High Politics is based primarily on Racial and Territorial aspirations – on policies of Blut und Boden (“Blood and Soil”).

On earth, the White Aryan Race³ has enjoyed a special relationship with the higher Spiritual Power –

³ In this work I am using the term “White Aryan” to describe people of racially unmixed, White European ancestry who are also non-Jewish and hence Aryan. Thus, White Aryan is a term which describes those who have a particular European-derived racial-cultural heritage in common and who display the apparent traits of this heritage both physically and spiritually, outwardly and inwardly. In my previous 2017 work, National Socialism: 30 Fundamental Truths for the Kämpfer of the 21st Century, I used the term “Aryan,” by itself, when referring to the same White Aryan Race. This was to highlight the fundamental differences between the two words “White” and “Aryan” – namely, that the word Aryan is a much older and more accurate word for describing our Race. But more importantly I wanted to express an incontrovertible fact which is totally lost on most self-proclaimed “White Nationalists,” and the fact is: though all Aryans are indeed White, not all Whites are Aryans. In other words, although all i.e. the Divine Source from which all creative impulses flow. Only this marvelous Race has historically been able to advance the interests of the IMPERIUM in all its glorious aspects, whether physical or spiritual. This magnificent Race! A Race of Biological Aristocrats: emperors, kings, warriors, commanders, explorers, artists, philosophers, inventors, scientists, polymaths, renaissance men of all stripes! A Race that's as truly diverse as it is great. And yet a Race which, too often, has killed its own in the pursuit of petty nationalist gains. While potentially the White Aryan's achievements can be endless, his penchant for fratricidal folly has always held him back. The two cataclysmic White Civil Wars of the twentieth century prove this point to its maximum extent.

Consolingly, for the truly race-conscious of our species, the concept of petty "nationality" (with a small "n") is dead. And so, this provides a new opportunity for White Aryans to unite on a planetary scale, especially when considering the fact that all White Whites must necessarily possess 100 percent Aryan blood, not all Whites hold Aryan values such as Loyalty, Duty, Discipline, Courage, etc.; not all Whites are inwardly Aryan. Nevertheless, most "Whites" still retain the ability to advance to the higher Aryan stage. Having made these points already in my previous work, I have here decided to minimize any confusion of terms and to simply combine the two words (White Aryan) so that the reader does not get hung up on terminology and thus is not distracted from the main message of this book. Similarly, I have dropped the somewhat cryptic term DNA Reich (Deutsches Nord-Arier Reich) in favor of simpler terms, understood by most, such as White Aryan Reich, Imperium, etc.

Aryans are negatively impacted by the same issues. Indeed, as far as the racially-awakened are concerned: what affects Aryans in one corner of the globe affects us all. Those issues that affect White Aryans in America now also affect White Aryans in Australia, Britain, Germany, Sweden, Italy, France, South Africa, Canada, and so on. The main issues of the day are: population replacement (I will not use the laughable term “immigration”), government enforced miscegenation (i.e. “affirmative action,” forced bussing, mandatory integration, etc.), cultural degeneracy, spiritual decay, pornography, political corruption, social atomization, rampant consumerism, and economic enslavement to the usurious forces of financial capitalism and speculation on a global scale (i.e. “globalization”).

These issues affect us all the same. We, as a Race, are now less than 5 percent of the earth’s total population – actually, less than that once you cut out the inflated government statistics which include Jews, mestizos and Arabs as “white.” What’s more, less than 2 percent of this world’s population is White Female of child-bearing age! We simply do not have the luxury of maintaining our fratricidal, suicidal, genocidal petty nationalisms any longer.

The only way we can survive the present multiracial storm is by tossing our old beliefs and divisive petty identities into the fire, and by uniting into a planet-wide supranational union of White Aryan peoples – into an IMPERIUM or REICH, a Power which is total and centralized in its mission to annihilate any threats to the collective well-being of the Aryan Folk. To support everything that benefits the Aryan Folk, and to annihilate everything that harms it.

To these ends, the IMPERIUM has as its current goal: the union of the entire White Aryan Race into a single World Power or Super-State. The IMPERIUM can thus be described as the legitimate heir to the legacy of the Third Reich, its immediate predecessor, and yet also heir to the enduring Idea of the First Reich, the Holy Roman Empire – the original “Thousand Year Reich” which was defined by the perennial quest to unite the spiritual and temporal Life of Western Man and his Civilization (and thus the many diverse national and regional expressions of this Race and Civilization) into one unifying Western State, under one united High Leadership.

The coming IMPERIUM is therefore nothing less than a renewed and revitalized 21st Century Reich – a Fourth Reich, an Aryan Empire for White Aryans only! And so, this Supranational Power shall have, as its supreme 21st Century mission the reconquest and unification of all historically White Aryan lands; in other words, the unification of all lands that are still majority-White (even if barely), as well as those that are historically White yet temporarily lost to ever-increasing numbers of non-Whites.

These lands – and all the many sub-national regions, provinces, counties, cities and towns therein – shall be reclaimed for the White Man under the glorious banner of the IMPERIUM; taken back into the Aryan fold for good, and bonded in perpetuity to one of the Seven Sacred World Territories listed below:

- (1) Europe
- (2) Russia
- (3) Vinland (North America)
- (4) Australasia (Australia/New Zealand)
- (5) Visigodica (the White nations/regions of southern South America)
- (6) Capeland (the former Anglo-Germanic lands of southern Africa)
- (7) Indo-Nilus (racially and historically vital portions of northern India, the Middle East, and North Africa)

The IMPERIUM takes as its slogan “Race above nation,” as it is based on the higher masculine concept of Race – as opposed to the intrinsically feminine, sub-racial concept of the nourishing “nation.” The IMPERIUM, like the masculine Elite State that serves and defends it, is form; the White Aryan nationalities, which populate the IMPERIUM, are matter (i.e. mater, “mother”) – the feminine mater-ial from which the masculine IMPERIUM is nourished, and for which its Elite defenders fight while gathering their strength from above. Thus, in no way can the IMPERIUM, in its über-Masculine totality and essence, ever be fashioned artificially into a nation-state. Again, the very essence of a nation is feminine (maternal) and defined by the unique biological and cultural traits of a particular people living within a set geographic space (or cradle).

And so, the IMPERIUM shall be modeled, by and large, on the old Holy Roman Empire – an Organic, masculine Reich (much more than a mere “political entity”), centralized yet respectful of the diverse Aryan populations and territories under its sway. An IMPERIUM of diverse and dynamic Regions, which are fully autonomous in their ability to maintain their respective national and sub-national (regional) cultures, and to enact their own local laws, provided said laws do not undermine the White Aryan Race (and thus the IMPERIUM) in any way. For centuries, the Holy Roman Empire, based on this same model of regionalism, epitomized the Western Cultural and Political Ideal. This Ideal is yet to be fulfilled.

Governmentally, the IMPERIUM shall be aristocratic, operated and controlled by a steely, battle-hardened Elite – a True Elite neither based on economic privilege nor dynastic family claims or titles, but on achievement and merit; a body of Men who have all earned their lofty stations. Men who are modern philosopher kings, Nietzschean Supermen, trained experts in all aspects of human existence: spirituality, cosmology, the Arcane Tradition, racial concerns, eugenics, DNA, genetic engineering, High Culture, High Politics, statecraft, geopolitics, war, social and economic affairs, and much more. Most importantly, they will be Men (a veritable Super-SS!) who all share the same single Vision, Weltanschauung, IDEA: the purification, preservation and edification of the White Aryan Race. They shall be known as EHREANS. This is to say that they will be the most spiritually and racially pure Aryans on earth – and Aryans of the Highest Ehre (or “Honor”). Hence the word EHREAN. They will thus understand that in order for the White Aryan Race to be purified, preserved and enhanced, it must first be separated completely – which is to say, segregated geographically – from all other races. Yes, a racially exclusive territorial imperative is the first necessary step toward building a brighter, whiter world.

Thus it is essential: only members of the White Aryan Race can be citizens of the IMPERIUM. Upon the establishment of the new system, all non-Whites will be returned to their lands of genetic origin. This means Negroes will be sent back to Africa, mestizos to their respective countries in Central and South America, Muslims to the Muslim lands, Asians to Asia, and so on. The White Man will finally be free of the centuries-old tragedy of having to “care” for an ungrateful Burden that has only sought to stab him in the back at every turn.

Whereas the IMPERIUM oversees the sum total of its territories, the Dominium represents all of the individual Regions. Qualitative Organic-structure within a regional and local framework is thus provided by the Dominium. Whereas the IMPERIUM is the Rex Magnus of High Politics, the Dominium reigns as the Regina Mater of the same. To be specific, everything that concerns citizens in their daily lives – their rights, their preferences, lifestyles, customs, local ordinances, etc. – all these things, fall decisively within the sphere of the Dominium. And so, the Dominium represents the interests and liberties of both regions and peoples, states’ rights and individual freedoms.

Each individual within the Dominium (and thus under the protection of the greater IMPERIUM) shall have the right to “absolute ownership” of his or her own life, as well as the right to live in any way that he or she desires, so long as the individual does not harm other citizens or constitute a formidable threat to the State. Here, the complementary feminine, “libertarian” sphere of the Dominium comes into play, whereby the racial citizens of the IMPERIUM shall possess many rights.

In our coming society, it shall not be the business of government to tell people what they should do in the privacy of their own homes. No! As long as one’s lifestyle does not infringe on the rights of other citizens or on the general health and well-being of the racial collective, it is the citizen’s right to live as he or she chooses, free from fear and intimidation.

There are stipulations of course – specifically for those whose destructive behavior infringes on the life, liberty and happiness of others. For example, drug abusers will not be allowed to operate vehicles, and their rights will be reduced considerably. Homosexuals, Marxists and “feminists” will not be allowed to promote their sick, twisted and often interlocking agendas in any way whatsoever. Pedophiles will be put to death immediately upon conviction. Animal cruelty, kosher slaughter practices, bestiality, and other forms of animal torture will not be permitted at all – in accordance with all Third Reich policies on the issue.

The fundamental cause of these stipulations is simple: Such acts of total degeneracy are crimes against Nature, and thus, when carried out even by a small minority of the population, they contribute to the disintegration of the spiritual, physical and moral well-being of the Race as a united whole. Such exceptional crimes notwithstanding, the Dominium supports and encourages the complete freedom of the individual in a positive and constructive way, as well as the development of the individual's total consciousness. (True Aryans, i.e. all healthy, sane members of the Race, already know what this means, and so they do not need a hollow, legalistic definition of the terms “positive” and “constructive.”)

In addition to representing the individual rights of the citizenry, the Dominium represents the rights of the hundreds of Regions within the IMPERIUM. Here, the term Global Regionalism best describes the position of the Dominium. Ethnically and culturally distinct (yet of course one hundred percent Aryan), the Regions shall possess in common the fundamental right to trade and interact with each other, as they see fit. There is only one stipulation: trade and/or interaction between the Regions and non-White nations and peoples shall not be permitted no matter what comprises said trade or interaction (e.g. manufactured goods, services, peoples, medicine, technology, currency, etc.).

It must also be stressed that quarreling (of any kind) between Regions will not be tolerated by the IMPERIUM. At the first sign of any heated dispute between differing populations of White Aryans, regardless of where they reside – and regardless of the nature of the dispute (be it economic, cultural, ethnic, etc.) – the Elite Army (2 million strong) will be sent out to quell the inflamed passions of all parties involved. Indeed, the Elite Army shall always stand poised and ready to stamp out any internal unrest within the IMPERIUM, no matter where or when it should occur. Moreover, the Elite Army, because of its excellence (in terms of breeding, training, equipment, etc.), shall be fully capable of quelling such insurrections – much the same as a first-rate fire department is fully capable of extinguishing any and all fires within its jurisdiction, and at lightning speed! It should be stressed, however, that once the IMPERIUM is firmly established, an inter-regional conflict shall be as likely to occur as a current war between Germany and France. Ten to twenty years of inter-regional trade, harmony and mutual prosperity (after the initial founding of the IMPERIUM), and all regional disputes shall be rendered obsolete.

EUROPA

Now we come to the third letter of IDEA – the letter E, which stands for Europa; a word that ties together the White Aryan’s Spirituality, Race, Culture, History, Identity, Traditions, Virtues, and indeed his entire Consciousness on planet Earth. Europa! A word that describes much more than a continent – that relatively small geographic space stretching from the Iberian Peninsula to the Urals. Europa! An Identity, a Higher Consciousness.

Europa! A Biology, a Higher Spirituality. A word, a Weltanschauung that orbits around one’s innate sense of being truly European, both inwards and outwards – and in every possible definition of the word. And so, the word European is much more than a mere demonym (or even ethnonym). Like the related word “Aryan,” European describes any place in the Cosmos where the White Aryan Race, its High Culture, and all corresponding traits can be found. Wherever the White Man goes, so too goes his Culture. But first and foremost goes his Spirit.

Man is nothing without the spiritual – this is a core tenet of the IDEA, as well as National Socialism and all Organic Thought. Spirituality, or the transcendent Quest to engage the Higher, Unseen Power, is central to the existence of all higher humanity – it is the determining factor in fulfilling a happy and meaningful life.

Throughout the ages, the great creative impulse, so inexorably attached to the White Man's destiny, has been the result of this Man's unique need to commune with the Almighty. Naturally, countless religious traditions have been formed as a result, though they will not be touched upon here. For now, the reader must understand that the realm of the spiritual is real; and there must be an attempt to commune with the higher realm if creativity is to develop.

The first law of all Organic-thought is: the spiritual always precedes the physical. The second law is: the physical/material realm is inferior and subservient to the spiritual. These laws are essential to EHREAN Man's worldview. If He forsakes them, He degenerates and becomes a child of base matter (Materialism) – a perfidious follower of the perverse worldview of his sworn and eternal Enemy: the Jew.

So, our concept of Europa should first be associated with High Spirituality, which itself must be tied to all forms of the Traditional (i.e. Aryan Pagan) worldview, and also to the related organic worldview of the coming IMPERIUM-Elite: Cosmotheism – an “archeo-futuristic” philosophy combining the best elements of traditionalism and futurism, Spirit and Science. Here, it is important to stress that Spirituality is not the same as religion.

Religion is the organized ritualization of a particular group's shared metaphysical beliefs. Shared customs, traditions and values are also instrumental in defining and maintaining the religious identity of the group. Due to its dogmatic nature, religion is oftentimes closer to the political realm than the spiritual. Conversely, Spirituality is intricately tied to the upper regions of High Culture and Race. Spirituality is therefore transcendent, meditative and reflective on both the individual and collective levels. It is not ritualistic so much as it is contemplative and reflective of a particular group's highest aspirations.

Undeniably, religion largely serves a metaphorical purpose, guiding people (through myths and fables) toward a greater morality and, likewise, toward a particular vision of the world. Religion is structural, physical, doctrinal. Spirituality is pure Spirit, pure Idea.

We promoters of the IDEA understand that in order for society to function organically (as a whole), its people must have a profound reverence for something Higher, something Spiritual. At the same time, let the reader understand that in our coming society, this sense of higher spirituality will not be forced on individuals. It will rather be encouraged and promoted organically through a number of public and private initiatives which all fully endorse the positive societal effects of combined eugenics and euthenics policies.

After Spirituality comes the concept of Europa as Race and High Culture – and the creation of a Fourth Reich IMPERIUM (an Imperium Europa) of, by and for the White Aryan Race. Currently, this magnificent Race is dwindling in numbers worldwide, to the earth's great disadvantage. If all White Men were to disappear tomorrow, the human world would simply cease to be. Space exploration, medical breakthroughs, feats of engineering, technological innovation, high speed travel, communications, tremendous food surpluses, scientific achievement of all kinds, all would cease! All that would be left in the world would be the half-men – the hominids, the primates, the sub-humans – until they breed themselves into a final famine and become extinct.

Racially, White Aryans (or “Europids,” as my friend is fond of saying) are divided, more or less, into three main branches. These are the North Aryan, Central Aryan, and South Aryan – more commonly referred to as the Nordic, Alpine and Mediterranean subgroups. All three branches have shared in the creation and development of the High Culture of Europe, or what is commonly referred to as Western Civilization.⁴

Sometime around the beginning of the second millennium AD, a definite Western Culture began to crystallize, centering around the Germanic lands of Central and Western Europe. It was defined by its general unity in the fields of language (Latin), architecture (Gothic), common law (Roman), religion (Roman Catholicism),⁵ empire (“Holy Roman”), race (Germanic), and class system (the feudal order). Throughout the High and Late Middle Ages, this Western Culture, defined by the above factors, flourished in the heart of Europe.

⁴ There are eight High Cultures known to have asserted an extraordinary influence in world history. They are: the Mesopotamian (aka the Sumerian or Babylonian); the Egyptian; the East Indian (or Vedic); the Chinese; the Classical (or Greco-Roman); the Arabian (or “Magian”); the Mesoamerican (i.e. the Culture of an extinct non-Amerindian Race wrongly identified with the Mayans, Aztecs and Incas); and the current great world Culture: the European or Western.

Grievously however, by the late eighteenth century the unity of the Western Culture was dealt an irrevocable, near fatal blow, as the egalitarian doctrines of the French Revolution and the subsequent Jacobin Terror initiated a new age of fratricidal warfare amongst Europeans. Epic wars of mass slaughter would now be fought in the name of three interrelated ideological forces: secular/political liberalism, philosophical materialism, and financial parasitism. And so, a baneful scenario was created which effectively played into the murderous hands of Europe’s most ancient and conniving enemies: the Culture-distorters, the preachers of equality, the mass levelers, the bourgeois marketeers, or, in a word... the Jews (and their lackeys).

Currently, the Western World is still ensnared by the corruptive cultural, political and economic influences of these forces. The White Aryan is still caught in the Materialist trap! Only by breaking free from the evil spell of the Jew can we reassert our once mighty Culture and begin to develop a truly united and long-lasting White Aryan Civilization.

To these ends, all Western nations and European-descended peoples must band together into a global IMPERIUM or Reich. There is no time for petty nationalist squabbling. Europe, as the primus inter pares of the Seven Sacred World Territories, must once again become the spiritual and cultural heartland of the White Race. Indeed, Europe is the heart and soul of the coming IMPERIUM, and the White Race (spread throughout the entire world) is its Living Body. To borrow a phrase from the great Initiator of the IDEA, Norman Lowell: Magna Europa est Patria Nostra! The other Six Sacred World Territories shall enjoy a fully integrated, organic and mutually beneficial union with Mother Europe at their core.

Not haughty pride, but a healthy love of heritage must reinvigorate our Aryan souls with a level of passion commensurate to the towering level of our ancestors' achievements. All leftist-induced guilt for the vigorous promotion of Aryan racial awareness, and all sorrow for fictitious atrocities committed against non-Aryans, must be scorched from our collective conscience and the ashes turned into praise.

Auctoritas (Authority)

Finally we come to the last letter of the word IDEA, the letter A, which stands for Auctoritas or “Authority.” The Supreme Virtue of the old Roman variety, Auctoritas can best be described as the Will to Power. Connected to the body of Auctoritas are the four limbs of Faith, Loyalty, Discipline, and Duty. If the State lacks any of these four virtues, the very mechanics of Authority as a complete hierarchical unit break down. Likewise, if a person lacks any of these virtues, he cannot attain Honor.

In addition, the very concept of Freedom depends not on those corrupt popularity contests called “elections,” but rather on the Authority Principle properly applied. No political organization understood this better than the NSDAP.⁶ As Hitler stated in his Munich Speech of April 12, 1922: “We recognized that political freedom can eternally only be the result of power, and power only an outflow of the will.” Indeed, Power is the source of one’s freedom since that which yearns to be free must first assert its own power. Such power comes in many forms: spiritual, cultural, political, economic, etc. The Will to Power, therefore, is also the Path to Freedom.

In the typically sordid history of mankind, a pendulum has continually swung back and forth between Tyranny and Rebellion. Of course, too much tyranny has always precipitated rebellion. At the same time, too much rebellion or chaos has always led back to the re-establishment of Authority and Order. Here, it must be understood that tyranny is not synonymous with Authority, as most Westerners have been led to believe by the Jew-controlled media and education system. Merely exercising Authority, or what some would consider “too much” power, has never necessitated rebellion. Rather, rebellion has always resulted from the misapplication of Authority, either through corruption or dereliction of duty (i.e. the refusal to wield the Authority Principle) or both.

From the very beginning, Authority has defined Aryan Man’s existence on this planet. Hardly a virtue to be ashamed of, Authority should be held in the highest esteem. For with great authority comes great responsibility, and there can be no greater terrestrial responsibility than being the steward of the planet. This is a charge that cannot possibly be assumed by any of the earth’s lesser races. Only the Aryan has the innate capability and thus the moral authority and imperative to rule over the earth with his wise and virtuous, yet iron, scepter.

It should come as no great surprise, then, that National Socialist Germany was the epitome of what an authoritarian state must be. Indeed, the Third Reich was a third Aryan alternative to both the hyper-individualistic insanity of liberal democracy and the blatant despotism of communist dictatorship. In essence the “authoritarian” aspect of National Socialist governance was nothing other than a reflection of the Authority Principle in action. At its core was the supreme recognition of total responsibility married to the systematic implementation of Meritocracy. As author Richard Tedor correctly pointed out in his book Hitler’s Revolution: “The authoritarian state form required that only persons exhibiting natural leadership ability assume positions of responsibility.”⁷ This could never be the case in either a liberal democracy or a communist dystopia, where the political life of both societies is dominated by incompetence and corruption.

In today’s postmodern world of liberal-globalist darkness, only the Reich-IDEA, the IDEA of IMPERIUM can pick up the blazing Torch of National Socialism and illuminate the soulless depths. Only the well-defined IDEA of IMPERIUM can replace the incoherent, muddled void of “White Nationalism” and the matching chasm of “Alt-Right” vaguery (if not fakery!). Only this IDEA can provide White Aryans with a brilliant new hope and an all-encompassing mission for the future – a Mission to fulfill the destiny of the Aryan Race by projecting it to ever new heights of glorious achievement, forever and ever...

Thus, in the author's opinion, the preceding pages outline the best concise description of the IDEA. In addition, the reader should understand that the term "Imperium Europa" (as coined by Norman Lowell) also describes the same abovementioned IMPERIUM or REICH – a geopolitical colossus not limited only to Europe, but deeply rooted culturally in the Old Continent. In the proceeding chapters the reader will acquire a more detailed conception of the IDEA in every possible way, and thus the question shall be answered definitively as to why the IDEA should be implemented. Essentially, this IDEA stands as a great bulwark against all the forces of Materialist decay.

Since the end of the First World War, the strength of the Materialist worldview has grown exponentially as two anti-Western forces – representing the very vanguard of Materialism – continue advancing their steady line of twentieth century victories well into the opening years of the new millennium. These forces are: Cultural Distortion and Barbarian Revolt. The first is a symptom of Civilization-crisis working within the Western Culture; it is internal – promulgated by all the various agents of Materialism and civilizational rot. The second force, Barbarian Revolt, represents all the external (extra-European) political-racial movements of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries that seek to destroy the West as a Culture-unit. The USSR, World Jewry, Imperial Japan, Red China, the Pan-African movement, Aztlan – all these are very recognizable past and present examples of Barbarian Revolt.

Unfortunately, the internal agents of Culture-distortion are, for many, not always so easy to recognize. They include such political Trojan horses as the pro-Jewish lobby, the cultural Marxists, and of course liberals of every stripe. These internal bearers of decay utilize their joint control over politics, the economy, the media, major news outlets, entertainment, art, education, etc., to propagandize the masses (the unthinking herd) so as to undermine and replace the influence of the dominant Culture.

The internal Culture-distorters also use the external forces of Barbarian Revolt to their advantage by sympathizing with the non-Western cultures as “victims of senseless Western aggression.” The Culture-distorters frequently employ Marxist terminology in their tirades against all things Western, describing Western Civilization as innately “bourgeois” or “capitalist,” hence evil. Thus, in each Western nation a large percentage of the Jewish element – ever ready to pounce on its Aryan adversary – has always advanced the doctrine of Marxism, which, up until Stalin’s postwar “anti-Semitism,” meant supporting the Soviet Union.

Examples of internal Culture-distortion abound. In the United States, a large percentage of both liberal and conservative elected officials support the illegal, genocidal rogue state called Israel. Inside all Western nations the so-called “feminist” movement advocates the destruction of the Western patriarchal family unit. The homosexual agenda follows suit, railing against the oppressive Western “straight society.” Communists bark about liberating the world from evil Western capitalist domination. Leftists of all shades are quick to rattle off endless examples of White discrimination against non-Western “immigrants.” Indeed, Culture-distorting movements of all kinds, acting within the West, have united to chastise the West into doling out a never-ending supply of unwarranted concessions. Here it is important to note that each of these movements is driven by two main goals: (1) the destruction of the West as a Culture, and (2) the deracination of the White Man.

Consequently, all of the above anti-Western currents fit within the greater nexus of Globalization – the Materialist, Culture-distorting worldview par excellence. Via its economic and political policies, Globalization seeks to fulfill the task of total Western annihilation. Namely, by creating a horizontal world of cash flow, a downward oriented world in which the poorest of the poor reap the most social benefits (via the welfare system); where the wealth-producing White Middle Class is targeted for destruction by the financiers and plutocrats. A world in which Meritocracy (i.e. true Aristocracy) and Authority have no value and are instead replaced by Mediocrity and Chaos; where all manufacturing jobs are “outsourced” to the Third World, thereby dragging the Western standard of living down to the level of savages; and where the native populations of Western countries are replaced with an endless supply of cheap labor. This cheap labor proceeds, in turn, to outbreed the natives and to demand an ever-increasing number of special group-rights, so as to prevent assimilation and maintain their “minority” status as cultural parasites within the host Western Culture. Hence, bit by bit, the White Aryan Race and its Western Culture is being replaced by the Brown peoples of the world and their varying savageries, just as Spengler predicted a century ago.⁸ Globalization is the vehicle which makes this replacement possible.

Meanwhile, White Westerners possess no rights at all in the Third World. In many Muslim countries, Westerners can neither build churches nor display crucifixes. And yet each year mosques are being erected by the hundreds (perhaps thousands) all across the West! Europeans live in constant fear, afraid to speak out against such madness lest they be arrested for “hate speech” or “hate crimes” – legal tricks devised to keep the Aryan Man politically immobile. Ensnared by the “politically correct” Culture-distortion, Aryan Man is thus prevented from advancing the interests of his own Race in any meaningful way.

⁸ See: Spengler, Oswald. Man and Technics: A Contribution to a Philosophy of Life. Arktos, 2015.

Is this fairness? Of course not. The universal system of Globalization has nothing to do with fairness, and everything to do with vengeance. Globalization is merely a toy in the hands of Them, the Culture-distorters, those who have spent the last thousand years living as cultural aliens among the people of the West, plotting, planning, mobilizing their all to pay back the West for a millennium of pogroms and discriminatory laws (the natural result of two antithetical populations living in proximity to each other). We promoters of the IDEA understand our enemies: the forces of Materialism, Liberalism, Globalization, Marxism, Culture-distortion, Barbarian Revolt, Them.

And so, it is vital that we spread our message to ensure that as many White Aryans as possible (even if only a minority of a minority) come to possess the same level of awareness as to who their enemies are and what can be done to stop them. For now, we represent a select few of the Elite of our Race and High Culture. Far from working at a handicap, our exclusivity fuels the quality of our work and the success of recruiting more people to our sacred Cause.

Why Latin?

Already the reader may be wondering why Latin is being used to convey the concepts of the IDEA. The reason for this is quite simple: Latin is the linguistic bedrock of Western Civilization. Only through Latin was the West able to express its fundamental Soul.

This truth is reinforced by Norman Lowell in his work Imperium Europa: “Without Latin, nothing would have been possible. Language is power – the power to express conceptions in Latin was the vehicle that carried European Man along [in] his progress.”⁹

When studying the many diverse cultures of the world, it becomes clear that language plays a large role in determining the greatness of a people. One will find that each great culture possesses only one language by which the culture expresses its soul, and thus its genius. For example, the Han Chinese have their Mandarin language; the Muslim culture, stretching from Morocco to Indonesia, has its Arabic tongue; the Jews, numerically small yet economically and politically powerful, relish their “chosen” Hebrew. We, of the West, have historically used Latin to convey our greatness both to ourselves and to the outside world.

When one studies the inextricable link between language and culture, one will recognize (even if subconsciously) that a language possesses either a masculine or feminine character based on the type of culture it comes from. When one thinks of a masculine language, there can be no greater example than standard German. On the other hand, when one thinks of feminine languages French should certainly top the list.¹⁰ That said, very few cultures possess neutral languages. Latin is one such language, possessing a beautiful balance of both masculine and feminine characteristics.

Latin is also the perfect language for Pan-Europeans to adopt for the sake of expediency. At this very moment there are millions of Europeans and European-descended people studying and speaking the Latin language. Latin clubs and societies already exist in countless schools all throughout the Western World.

Furthermore, the adoption of Latin as the official language of the IMPERIUM would in no way conflict with the daily usage of the more popular national languages of Europe. Germans would continue speaking German, Frenchmen would continue speaking French, Anglophones the world over would continue using English, etc. Latin would simply resume its cultural role as the interlingua of the various Western nationalities, in the same way that Arabic unites the Muslim world. And as far as nationalism goes, there is no need for concern that a particular European nation would use Latin to extend its own cultural-linguistic domination over all the others; for

Latin is the official language of none, and yet the historic cultural property of all.

In Latin, more than any other Aryan language, one can distinctly hear the distant echoes of the original Indo-European mother tongue. In fact, most of the reconstructed Proto-Indo-European (PIE) is based not on Greek or even Sanskrit, but Latin.

Early on, the corrupt Catholic Church understood the cultural-linguistic power of Latin, and thus set out to desecrate and de-Romanize it in order to employ Latin in the Church's own two-thousand-year war against all things Aryan. Indeed, the Church tried to turn Latin into a language reserved only for itself and the slavish masses they had dominion over, but this did not succeed. The boorish majority, and even most clerical bureaucrats, never cared to master the noble tongue. Latin thus retained its aristocratic essence as the language of the Elite geniuses of our Race – the scientists, inventors, philosophers, scholars; Latin retained its noble essence, its Aryan provenance.

The rightful successor of Sanskrit and Ancient Greek, Latin is truly the noblest of Indo-European tongues. To this day, every animal, vegetable and mineral under the sun possesses a proper Latin name. Not Hebrew, not Arabic, not Chinese, not Swahili, but Latin: the natural language of the White Aryan Race and Civilization.

Even the English language (arguably the most popular language in the world today) derives most of its rich essence from Latin. This is apparent in all of the Latin words and phrases that English has adopted as its own. Although classified as a West Germanic language, English derives most of its vocabulary from Latin. According to Finkenstaedt and Wolff, at least 56.5 percent of all English words are derived from Latin and Latin-based (“Romance”) languages.

For all of the above factors, it is clearly essential that Latin once again becomes the official language of communication within the IMPERIUM. As it once commanded respect all across the ancient world for the better part of a thousand years, then nurtured another thousand years of European spiritual, cultural and scientific progress, so must it be resurrected to communicate the power and majesty of the coming White World IMPERIUM. If the White Aryan Race and Culture should survive, then the Latin language must also survive. For, in fact, Latin is the White Aryan’s Identity in linguistic form.

CHAPTER TWO

The IMPERIUM

Now that the reader has a general sense of the meaning behind the IDEA and its vital role in restructuring the chaotic world disorder, it is imperative to understand the political and ideological structure of the IMPERIUM itself.

I. The IMPERIUM

As mentioned in the previous chapter, the concept of IMPERIUM is more than geography and politics, and thus more than base “imperialism.” IMPERIUM is the higher, masculine consort of the feminine-oriented Dominium. A living organism, the Will of the IMPERIUM is entrusted to the Leader, and the maintenance of its sacred Life-Force is entrusted to the entire Folk-Community as a divine blessing from Providence. Physically, the IMPERIUM is composed of the following parts: (1) the Leader; (2) the Race; (3) the Racial State which acts as a vessel under the leadership of the Elite; (4) the contents of said vessel, i.e. the combined spiritual, racial, cultural, political, territorial, social and economic integrity of the IMPERIUM.

Just like the many individuals who comprise it, the IMPERIUM possesses the unhindered right, as well as the evolutionary duty to grow spiritually, culturally, scientifically, territorially, and to enrich itself in all aspects possible so as to ensure the perennial survival of the sole Race which it nurtures. This natural right of expansion is grounded in the Cosmic Law of the Omega-cycle – the law of the expansive universe. At some point in the future, when the Alpha-cycle commences, the universe will start to contract and begin its long journey back to the Divine Source. The Arcane Tradition teaches that it is the supreme spiritual goal of all existence to eventually repatriate back to the Divine Singularity.

For now, the geopolitical goals of the IMPERIUM are quite modest, which is to say terrestrial. First of all, upon its founding the IMPERIUM shall effectively seal its borders to all non-Whites and repatriate all biological aliens to their respective lands of genetic origin. Inside the IMPERIUM, straight and fair economic competition shall exist among White Aryans only while externally the IMPERIUM shall procure whatever resources it needs from the non-White world by trading only its food surpluses and never trading its non-perishable wealth, i.e. money, gold, technology, medicine, etc. A system of bartering food for resources will be in play when dealing with the non-White world.

Since food surpluses have historically been achieved only through the genius and labor of the White nations of the earth, these nations reserve the right to use their food surpluses to their own benefit. This means that instead of wastefully feeding billions of the earth's unproductive hence undeserving denizens, the White World ought to send food-aid on a quid pro quo basis, only to those non-White nations that provide considerable natural resources for the IMPERIUM. Likewise, the IMPERIUM would also restrict aid to those nations which oppose its geopolitical will.

In this way, everything will be carefully considered and decided upon. Nothing will be left to chance. White wealth shall not be found circulating at random in any of the earth's non-White nations; nor will any non-Whites be able to buy into the non-perishable wealth of the IMPERIUM. Only our food shall be offered as tradeable items, and only if we deem it necessary to procure resources which we ourselves might lack yet deem necessary for our own survival. Racial exclusivity and territorial imperative – thus racial survival – constitute the highest geopolitical goals of the IMPERIUM.

II. The Leader

The First Citizen of the IMPERIUM is the Leader: the Dux, the Führer, Imperator, Commander, the Father-figure of the Race. Representing both the Spiritual and Temporal realms, he serves as both the High Pontiff and Emperor of the Aryan Race – as the living embodiment of the IDEA. But make no mistake, our Leader is not an effeminate despot to be worshipped and coddled by a degraded population of serfs. Rather, he is a tireless worker on behalf of the People; the chief Guarantor that all aspects of the IDEA will be carried out. He is the People's Pride and Glory, their Almighty Strength and Refuge, the Sacred Banner and Glorious Name of the IMPERIUM, deriving his highest of stations from his own merit and receiving his mandate of power from Almighty Providence above and the consent of the popular will below.¹¹ As long as the Leader upholds the sacred principles of the IDEA – composed of the Spiritual, Racial, Cultural, and Political – he is justified in his leadership, and thus cannot legally be deposed; this in accordance with the Organic Laws of Nature.

Just as the word IMPERIUM means “supreme power” or “command,” so also is the Leader the Supreme Commander. This is a primary concept for those of us who subscribe to both National Socialism and the IDEA of IMPERIUM. Indeed, the concept of the Leader as Supreme Commander is an idea that can be found among all the Organic doctrines of the Far-Right. It comes from the metaphysical belief that there is no greater power than the Supreme Power/Energy that exists above and throughout the Cosmos. From this eternal Power Source all things have come into existence. So we base our own terrestrial power on this much Greater Force.

The Council of Twelve is a life-long appointed body of men charged with the task of counseling the Leader on all matters of State, High Politics, governance, military concerns, eugenics, technology, and all other matters of importance. The Council is a body composed of the highest-ranking members of the Elite; a body of combined elders and specialists – the most learned, able and race-conscious members of the IMPERIUM. The Leader and his Council comprise the heroic men “above Time,” as described by Savitri Devi in her works. They embody all of the defining spiritual aspects of IMPERIUM/Dominium; essentially: Power, Mind, and organizing Will.

III. The Elite

Hence, under the direct command of the Leader stands the Elite. This all-male body, many hundreds of thousands strong (from the high-ranking Council of 12 down to the Elite Army), forms the Spiritual, Racial, High Cultural and High Political bedrock of society. The Elite, themselves, do not represent a composite of society, but are rather above society. They are the spiritual, cultural and political trendsetters dictating their superior values to the rest of the population, so as to preserve the IMPERIUM from internal decay; they are the real-life Nietzschean Supermen of our coming society. It is through the mandated policies of the Elite that the IMPERIUM progresses ever forward in its mission toward a Divine Singularity.

The Elite is a body that: scorns money, is austere in its worldview, “diamond hard,” and does not consider family nor intimate relationships to be the highest priorities of life. The Elite is above petty politics and all egalitarian fantasies; a Divine Right of Kings guarding the sacred soul and soil of the IMPERIUM and all aspects of our Sacred IDEA.

This Elite draws back on the strength of its ancient forebears: the 300 Spartans of Thermopylae; the invincible army of Alexander the Great marching from victory to victory across the known world; the intrepid Roman Legions that conquered Europa with sword in one hand and, with spade in the other, built magnificent cities out of their former barracks; the Knights Templar – those bravest of men who devoted themselves entirely to the protection of their racial kinsmen in the deserts of the Semitic Serpent; the Teutonic Knights – that highly trained and disciplined northern vanguard defending European Civilization at every turn; and of course, the Waffen SS – those heroic 20th century legionaries who comprised the finest warriors the world has ever seen, and certainly the greatest fighting force the Aryan Race has ever fielded. Indeed, the coming Elite shall be a revived and greatly strengthened Schutzstaffel that will draw back upon their revered warrior ancestors for inspiration in their Divine Mission. As such, they shall be nothing less than a caste of veritable supermen and warrior sages (Zarathustras!).

In its Spiritual capacity, the Elite shall serve as a caste of High Priests who are bred specifically to advance and perfect the coming Science of the Spirit – a successful fusion of science and spirituality. Members of the Elite shall be the ultimate authorities on: cosmology, the Arcane Tradition, genetics, eugenics, anthropology and medicine (among other things). They will intensely study the origin of our sacred Race and the magnetic bond that exists between Aryan Man and the Cosmos – the bond by which our evolution and our very existence is enabled. These High Priests of race-consciousness will serve Aryan Man by urging him on to ever greater self-realization and overcoming – from White Aryan Man to EHREAN Godlike Perfection.

The Elite will expose and discredit the manipulative international cohort which now controls all things (economically, politically and culturally) through its scandalous, usurious tentacles. At the same time, the evil cohort's false values and religions – its "Judeo-Christian" slave morality – will also be exposed and discredited.

As Spiritual Guardians of the IMPERIUM, the Elite also constitute the front-most vanguard of the "Culture-bearing stratum" of society. This element is best described by Francis P. Yockey in his magnum opus Imperium:

There is in all Cultures a spiritual level of the entire population called the Culture-bearing stratum. It is this articulation of Culture-populations alone which makes the expression of a High Culture possible.... The Culture-bearing stratum is the custodian of the wealth of expression-forms of the Culture. To it belong all the creators in the domains of religion, philosophy, science, music, literature, the arts of form, mathematics, politics, technics, and war, as well as the non-creators who fully understand and themselves experience the developments in this higher world, the appreciators.¹²

In the relationship between creators and appreciators, the Elite – along with all other cultural geniuses who are not members of the Elite – fulfill the role of the first group. Here again, it is the Elite that society looks to as its Cultural trendsetters. The role of the appreciators of High Culture is fulfilled by those individuals who do not necessarily create, but nevertheless have a strong appreciation for the Arts, and who, in general, possess a heightened awareness of all aspects of High Culture. Numerically stronger, this second group is no less vital in its civilizing mission than the creator group; for it is the appreciators who act as Cultural transmitters, filtering down all the many forms of High Culture to the general populace. This transmitting process of the appreciators serves to recruit higher material into the ranks of the Culture-bearing stratum.

Politically, the Elite serve the call of High Politics, safeguarding both Race and Territory (Blut und Boden) from all external threats. Such an essential task cannot be fulfilled through the paramount idiocy of the electoral system, as the Western World – already in a state of advanced decay – is just now beginning to understand. The Elite already understand that democracy, or the senseless “popularity contests” held among corrupt plutocrats (the lapdogs of financial oligarchs), is not synonymous with “freedom,” and that democracy is certainly not the source of freedom. Rather, POWER (i.e. IMPERIUM) is the source of freedom; this has always been true, and will continue to be true for as long as time endures. Quite simply, that which dares to be free must first assert its own power. This power comes in many forms: spiritual, cultural, political, economic, etc. The Will to Power, therefore, is the Will to Freedom (in essence).

A rigorous, qualitative process of selection, based on merit, shall thus replace the election process entirely, and shall facilitate the recruitment of the Elite. In the meritocratic tradition, members of the Elite shall be selected by means of the most exacting mental and physical examinations. They shall be defined by total discipline, loyalty, and singularity of purpose. In this way, members of the Elite serve as the archangels of the IMPERIUM.

The hierarchical structure of the Elite shall be based on Sacred Numerology – a pyramidal structure which is six levels deep – as outlined by Norman Lowell. At the top is the Council of 12 (the CORE group)¹³ and also the Leader who possesses the casting vote. Below this is a second group of 144, followed by a third group of 1,444, a fourth group of 14,444, a fifth group of 144,444, and finally a sixth group numbering 1,444,444. This last group constitutes the Elite Army – a military wing that is above the Regional Police forces, and capable of being dispatched immediately to any part of the IMPERIUM. The Elite Army is composed of the Warrior Elites – a noble caste of bona fide Supermen. Accordingly, to strengthen the numerical output of this special breed, the practice of polygamy shall be encouraged.

IV. The Race

The Race is the spiritual, biological and cultural wealth of the IMPERIUM. Not merely genetic or physical, the Race is also a state of spiritual consciousness, a sacred Body which is in perpetual communion with its great Leader, its Head. The first defining characteristic of Race is spiritual. It is the very sense of race that enables a people to push itself upward toward greatness. Again, Yockey best described this truth when he wrote the following:

¹³ As an acronym the term CORE stands for: Command Organization Revolutionary Elite.

Race is, in the first instance – in its subjective sense – what a man feels. This influences, whether immediately or eventually, what he does. A man of race is not born to slavery. If his intellect counsel him to a temporary submission, rather than an heroic death, in the hope of future changes, it is a mere postponement of his breaking out. The man without race will submit permanently to any humiliation, any insult, any dishonor, so long as he is permitted to live. The continuance of breathing and digestion are Life to the man without race. To the man of race, Life itself represents no value, but only Life under the right conditions, affirmative Life, rich, expressive and growing.

...Men of Race are scattered through all populations everywhere, through all races, peoples, nations. In each unit they make up the warriors, the leaders of action, the creators in the sphere of politics and war.

Thus in the subjective sense, there is also a hierarchy of race. Above the men of race, below – those without race. The first are swept up into action and events by the great cosmic rhythm of motion, the second are passed over by History. The first are the materials of high History, the second have outlasted every Culture, and when the stillness resumes its sway over the landscape after the whirlwind of events, these are the great mass.¹⁴

Therefore, the ideal men of race in our coming society will also be the warrior-guardians of the IMPERIUM's spiritual and genetic wealth. These ideal men are represented by the Elite. Their primary function will be to fight against the degenerative specter of mass-mediocrity – an elusive enemy that casts its giant shadow over the decaying body of a finished race.

Biologically, it is a somber fact of history that as goes the Race, so goes the Nation. When the blood of a people is mingled, it becomes diluted; they are no longer the same people. And when the blood of a great people becomes diluted, their greatness is ended. This is a proven fact of history, from ancient Egypt and India, to Persia and the Classical civilizations, to the Judaization of the British Empire and the continued niggerization of the United States and the entire Western World. In other words, High Cultures can only be maintained through racial purity. And since High Culture depends so heavily upon the genetic strength and homogeneity of a given population, the biological safeguarding of the Race is thus the highest priority of a competent Leader, a worthy Elite, and the State as a whole.

¹⁴ Yockey, op. cit., pp. 293-294.

Truly, the Race constitutes the IMPERIUM's most precious resource. It is on behalf of the Race that the Leader carries his Domain forward to Victory. In turn, the people's most pious slogan can be heard resounding all across the earth: "For the Glory of the IMPERIUM above all!"

The best way to safeguard the Race from all alien biological threats would be via Norman Lowell's concept of a Europid Identification Card or E.I.D. In his book, Imperium Europa, Lowell outlines the E.I.D. program thus:

A simple genetic test would be undertaken by everyone within the Imperium. This is an inexpensive, quick genetic scan that determines precisely the genetic affiliation of the individual. An EID (Europid ID) card, storing all information about the person, would be issued solely to Europids – none else!

This EID card will serve as both money and as a key to everything. Without the Europid ID card, one will not be able to buy or sell. Ours will be a cashless society. Without the EID, one will not be able to travel, find employment, procure food, drive, whatever. In short, without the Europid ID: one becomes a non-person – one starves!

Lacking the Europid ID card, every single alien within our borders will be starved and forced to leave. Non-Europids will be forcefully expelled from within the Imperium. With them will have to go their Europid spouses and mixed offspring, the innocent victims of racial treason. Couples who have adopted non-Europid children will also have to leave – they will be classed as outcasts and exiled. We will return to the old laws of Manu – and we will be inflexible in their draconian application.¹⁵

V. The “Anti-Party” System

We of the IDEA, like our National Socialist forebears, neither support nor promote the concept of a multi-party political system as found in the world’s plutocratic liberal democracies. This is because we understand that a multi-party system does not and cannot represent the interests of High Politics; even less could such a system submit itself to the greater and far more important interests of Race and High Culture. Indeed, by its very nature, the multi-party system brings nothing but rancor and disunity to an otherwise organic and racially healthy society.

For the most part, political parties are nothing but bodies of narrow-minded, bureaucratic little men whose petty smallness is only matched by the size of said men’s goals. Rabid hypocrisy and bitchy back-biting demeanor are the identifying characteristics of such lowlife creatures. Is it any wonder, then, that most politicians begin their professional careers as lawyers? Ladies and gentlemen, I give you: Homo politicus.

In the coming IMPERIUM there will not be any room for political partisanship, factionalism, infighting, none of it! How will these things be prevented, you ask? Simple. No political party will exist. Period. Political parties will be outlawed.

The IMPERIUM will operate politically much as the United States is supposed to operate under its very own constitution (but of course doesn't!). Ever notice how there is absolutely no mention of political parties in any article or section of the U.S. Constitution? This is because the Framers did not envision their ideal republic to be split along ideological or partisan lines. They envisioned only one kind of United States government to exist in perpetuity, and to be in the service of only one Race of people, and they further believed that if the people maintained their high morality, the people would remain indivisibly tied to the Idea of republican representative government as outlined in the Constitution. Hence, no need for parties! The Framers had the foresight to know that political parties would be irrelevant if the young nation was to maintain its racial, cultural, moral and thus High Political values. So, did the young nation maintain those values which were integral to its identity? Resoundingly, no! And Americans are now living with the after-effects.

The IMPERIUM will not make the same mistake. In fact, the IMPERIUM could not make the same mistake because, unlike the liberal doctrines of petty political parties and movements, the IDEA encompasses every possible aspect of White Aryan existence. This IDEA of ours is neither a doctrine nor dogma, nor even a worldview – it is a Weltanschauung embracing everything! There simply will not be any room for short-sighted political parties to represent the interests of anyone or anything in our coming society and IMPERIUM.

Furthermore, the coming Elite, as a fully united body, is incapable of being divided by inner partisanship or factionalism. We who support the IDEA of IMPERIUM either succeed in our mission fully united, or we fail. Period. To ensure success in our endeavors we shall only select the best of the best, on a system of merit, to fill every possible position within the State. Testing and re-testing will become commonplace so as to obstruct any possibility of bureaucratic degeneration.

Working alongside the Elite shall be the many citizen creators and appreciators who will contribute their strengths as catalysts of High Culture. So, whereas the multi-party system fosters everything that fractures and disrupts the harmony of the Organic State, the natural role of the creators and appreciators of High Culture serves to bolster and promote the Spiritual, Racial, Cultural and High Political interests and unity of the coming IMPERIUM.

VI. State & Nation

One of the greatest things that Fascism imparted in its teachings on political philosophy was its honest truth on the relationship between State and Nation. The State is a masculine institution of power and law-giving, which must always remain separate (though not aloof) from broader society. The Nation is a naturally feminine entity, representing the total sum of society's organic components. By nature, the State is qualitative whereas the Nation is quantitative. Thus, the State must never be organized along inorganic, liberal lines as a microcosm or representation of the broader Nation. Hence the proper view: "State is form – Nation is matter."¹⁶

The Nation is physical, material, of "flesh and blood"; it is easily recognized as a Folk possessing visible racial traits. The Nation is also spiritual, mental – a People's common consciousness of identity; a commonality of language, culture, tradition, religion, worldview. As such, the Nation manifests itself in a People's psyche revealing the shared hopes and fears of all. The Nation is a shared consciousness betraying the People's dreams and nightmares, its "friends" and "foes." It is a common history and destiny.

Thus, a Nation is properly defined as a People in possession of a Cultural Idea. England, Spain, France, ¹⁶ Lowell, op. cit., p. 373.

Germany, Italy, Denmark, etc. – all the countries of Western Europe are subcultural, national Ideas that exist as individual units within the collective, overarching Culture of The West. Each Nation-Idea possesses its own unique soul-rhythm, which is expressed through the organic life of its distinctive language, music, artistic expression, religious inclination, temperament – even the national ethnic type, its racial traits, and the physical characteristics of the landscape play a monumental role in defining the Nation-Idea.

That said, it should be noted that the above factors are merely differences of complexion that exist between the Western nations; they do not alter the Cultural uniformity of the greater Body of the Western Culture. The homogeneous Culture and Race of Europe (of the Aryan) remain inevitably intact. More than a thousand years of racial contempt for the non-Western Barbarian (the racial Other) is perhaps the greatest testament to the fact of Western unity.

Liberals, Marxists and other assorted Materialists conceive of the Nation as being merely language and mass, or the “language of the masses.” Such a belief is absurd! In truth, the Nation is composed of three conjoined elements: (1) Idea; (2) Nation-bearing stratum; (3) the mass that composes the body of the Nation.

As for the State, it is neither Race nor Nation, but a government-juridical system that is instituted among men to serve the interests of both Race and Nation. (It should be mentioned that this kind of Organic State is the complete antithesis of its current democratic, liberal, cultural Marxist counterpart.) The State is the vehicle by which the Will of the IMPERIUM asserts itself and carries out its policies. It is the framework, the infrastructure, the holy temple supporting – mentally, physically and emotionally – the rest of the civilizational complex. Furthermore, the State, as an organic reality, can only be the product of the development of a High Culture. As Francis Yockey confirmed: “Outside of a High Culture there is no State, but only leadership of more or less permanence.”¹⁷

It must be reiterated that there will be no professional bureaucrats employed by the Racial State (i.e. individuals who are pathologically lazy and contented in receiving a steady paycheck for their consistent lack of service.) This degenerate, parasitic species actually delights in its dereliction of duty, preferring a life of easy desk-sitting over the daily struggles that besiege the tireless worker who truly fights to advance the well-being of his Race. Indeed, the bureaucrat is the wretched Homo politicus of all Marxist “utopias” and liberal democracies. Therefore, in the coming IMPERIUM there shall only be dutiful citizens employed by their fellows, on a meritocratic basis, to serve and promote the common good of all.

¹⁷ Yockey, op. cit., p. 354.

The working government of the State shall consist of three main bodies: the Lower House, the Upper House, and the High Council. The Lower House, operating on a qualified voting system, shall represent the local economic and political interests of the citizenry and their regions. This Lower House shall always be subject to High Politics (or the higher interests of the Upper House).

The Upper House shall be comprised of a smaller number of Elites whose prerogatives are High Politics and Race. Only in extreme situations would the Higher House overrule or intervene in the affairs of the Lower House. Such a scenario would unfold only when the policies of the Lower House would somehow imperil the higher values of Race, Culture, and Territorial matters.

Above the Upper House stands the High Council – a body consisting of the Council of Twelve, also known as the High Elite. And above the Council stands the Leader – the High Sacred Sovereign embodying the eternal values of the organic Racial State. Spirituality, Race, High Culture, High Politics, Territory – these are all the privileged realms of the Leader and his High Council. When needed they get the final say on everything in the above spheres of vital racial existence. And as mentioned earlier, the Leader has the privilege of casting the deciding vote on all issues.

VII. The Military

Vital to the security of the IMPERIUM is the Military, which includes all the branches of the Armed Forces and State Police. These bodies ensure the inviolable sovereignty of the IMPERIUM and protect the rights and freedoms of the Dominion sphere, which includes the Regions and the Citizenry. As in the selection of candidates for all State service, prospective military personnel shall be selected by means of the most rigorous mental and physical examinations. Service in any branch of the Military is the highest form of duty and honor achievable. Those who serve are truly the unblemished saints of the IMPERIUM.

The Military shall be composed of the best physical and intellectual specimens of the Aryan Race, and shall enjoy a favored position within the IMPERIUM. The Military shall be charged with the primary task of defending the total interests of the IMPERIUM, just as the State leadership represents the interests of the same. On our sacred borders, all around the world, Military personnel shall remain ever vigilant and poised and ready to repel any alien incursion – and by any means necessary!

To be sure, the Military men of which I speak – those who defend our IMPERIUM and Race as an indivisible whole – are not soldiers; they can't be! Why? Because the word “soldier” is related to the Italian word soldi, which means “money.” And by definition, soldiers are money hounds.

You see, during the Middle Ages, the warring Italian city-states, each possessing a very limited number of able-bodied males, hired foreign mercenaries to fight in the field. Unlike the native Italians, the mercenaries were not fighting for their homes, but for spoils of war, loot, booty. Logically then, the only way the Italian city-states could maintain the allegiance of the mercenaries was by paying (and often lavishing) them with soldi, or money. Hence, the Italian word soldare came to mean “enlist.” The English word “soldier” has its origin in these old Italian words. It is quite easy to see, therefore, that a soldier is essentially a supplementary word for “mercenary,” or one who fights for money.

Modern soldiers are nothing more than modern mercenaries fighting to preserve the power and further the interests of the ruling bourgeois State that pays them. It does not matter whether these “soldiers” are employed by America, Britain, France, Russia, or any other country – their motives are ultimately the same: a paycheck! And, ultimately, they all serve the same Moneyed Power behind the thrones of all the world’s leaders. The motives of a warrior, however, are quite different.

The warrior is not motivated by monetary gain. His motivation comes solely from honor, loyalty, duty, and his innate love of combat. The warrior is the penultimate expression of a Spiritual Force; he fights for his kith and kin, blut und boden, for an Idea. He is not influenced by the vicious propaganda of a bourgeois ruling class – a class whose sole purpose in fomenting war is to further its own economic expansion, the tentacles of its great beast, Mammon.

Naturally then, a warrior seldom ever has hatred for his adversary; yet if he does, his hate is never blind. Hatred is typically embraced by the soldier, the poor wretched grunt who can only muster enough nerve to fight by accepting the lies his Wall Street masters tell him. Lies like: the Hun is parading Belgian babies around on bayonets; Germany is fighting to destroy Western Civilization; the War on Terror is a New Crusade for freedom and democracy; etc.

Historically, such lies have been accepted by the common grunt, the cannon fodder, the armed agent of twentieth and twenty-first century Finance. And why shouldn't these lies be embraced? In peacetime a soldier possesses the unquestioning mindset and bourgeois lifestyle of an ordinary citizen. The fact that Germany had the best military in the Second World War, "pound for pound," as they say, and regardless of the outcome, is a testament to the very real differences that exist between mere soldiers and warriors.

So it is essential to the survival of the coming IMPERIUM that we eliminate the word "soldier" from our vocabulary, and that we come to despise it just as much as we despise the term "mercenary." In its stead we must adopt the word Warrior and embrace its total meaning. Warrior – a word describing a caste of spiritual-racial Supermen capable of defending their beloved Super-Patria, their Race and Realm, in all possible ways: militarily, intellectually, politically, etc. This, then, is the true definition of the word Warrior; the sainted defender of the IMPERIUM; the holy disciple and proselytizer of the IDEA.

The above seven sections of the present chapter constitute the most essential and complete political-structural principles of the IDEA, which provide a physical framework that truly gives life to the term “Organic State.” The entire ideological-political infrastructure holds together the organic order of society and State, and is outlined thus: Spirituality and Race, nurtured by High Culture, protected by High Politics, and enforced by the Elite.

By now the reader must know that the Higher Levels of Organic-thought are absolutely central to our entire Philosophy. These Higher Levels don’t only include Spirituality and Race – they also include High Culture and High Politics. Of course, it is impossible to think of these two latter terms without thinking of the historical personages who embodied them.

Those who have famously represented the world of High Culture, as creators, are the true geniuses of our White Aryan Race. Such individuals include Plato, Aristotle, Da Vinci, Shakespeare, Mozart, Goethe, Nietzsche, Wagner, et al. Men such as these, through their respective arts, have expressed the Aryan Soul to the fullest. Their art acts as a bridge toward the Spiritual realm – a realm of absolute Perfection to which all Aryans are instinctively drawn.

Historical figures who have embodied the realm of High Politics, as Thought-Deed Men, include Alexander the Great, Julius Caesar, Charlemagne, Peter the Great, Frederick II of Prussia, Napoleon Bonaparte, Benito Mussolini, Adolf Hitler, et al. Norman Lowell states the following about such Men of Destiny in his book Imperium Europa:

All these personages had an element of the Spiritual within them, but were shackled, impeded by world and current events. They were burdened and slowed down in the implementation of their Vision by the...[e]conomic, financial and social level.¹⁸

It shall therefore be necessary for our new system, once implemented, not to simply subject the realm of High Politics to the “beck and call” of High Culture and Spirituality, but to base these realms (all of them!) on the purest of racial instincts, and then to organically fuse them together. Then we shall have a successful Civilization!

And indeed, after the final battle for Power (for IMPERIUM) is won, there shall be a successful integration between the Higher Levels of Organic-thought. The Elite shall elevate High Politics to the status of High Art, and upward still to High Spirituality. The three shall become nothing less than the Divine Trinity of our Supreme Racial IDEA.

And although it is the duty of all in society to cherish and uphold the principles of this Racial IDEA of ours, it is the specific role of the State, as the bedrock of the IMPERIUM, to secure and protect the ideological framework by instituting an equally strong Dominion to specify the many rights and responsibilities of all people living within the IMPERIUM.

CHAPTER THREE

The Dominionium

As mentioned earlier, the Dominionium can be described as the feminine counterpart to the masculine IMPERIUM. But this is not all. When considered together, as a political whole, both Dominionium and IMPERIUM constitute the essential “checks and balances” of our coming New Order.

Whereas the IMPERIUM is primarily concerned with the maintenance and extension of Power and is represented politically by the Elite (and through the Upper House of government), the Dominionium concerns itself with everything pertaining to individual freedom and Regional identity, and thus expresses its will through the government’s Lower House. That which is “libertarian” is, by and large, protected by the Dominionium. We, who believe in the complete fullness of the IDEA, are fierce proponents of individual freedom. Yea, Absolute Individualism is our Cause (in the Nietzschean sense).

Adjoined to this is our mission to destroy all false values wherever we find them, including one of the most bogus popular concepts: human rights. Born into highly unequal circumstances, due to the determining forces of nature and nurture, people – both civilized and savage – are endowed with a set number of traits and individual choices, not “human rights.”

When an organizing State is empowered with enough stability and influence to afford its populace the comfort of being able to make a great number of choices extending to the social and political realms, then this is what we can honestly call “individual rights.” These rights were neither acquired “magically” at birth, nor are they “human,” but rather entrusted to a People, of mature mind and body, by their State. Without the full protection of the State there can be no true social or political freedom, as all individuals would be subjected to the anarchic, despotic rule of Chaos.

Contrary to popular belief, individual rights do not exist in plutocratic/liberal democracies like the United States. In such countries, individuals actually count for nothing. While the citizens of these countries are certainly able to choose what clothes they will wear on a given day (Levi’s or Wrangler) and what food they will eat (“Big Macs” or “Whoppers”), such choices do not constitute true individual rights; these are instead the mundane choices of a hyper-consumerist society and civilization. As long as the individual complies with the inorganic consumerist lifestyle, he or she is able to make a set variety of market-based choices which characterize every facet of capitalist society. This is not true freedom.

In our coming IMPERIUM, individual rights will be near-limitless and protected by the State. As for lifestyle choices, there will be many. If one wishes to be a polygamist, for example, one will have that right. If one wishes to lead the solitary life of an ascetic, one will be able to do so. If one wishes to abuse drugs, one will have the option of living in a secure retreat which is fully stocked, yet cordoned off from the rest of society. Indeed, all kinds of lifestyles will be permitted, but with two vital conditions: (1) the rights of other individuals are not infringed upon; (2) the societal order and moral authority of the IMPERIUM is not threatened or undermined in any way.

In addition to lifestyle rights, every White Aryan living in the IMPERIUM shall possess certain rights that are fundamental to the existence of both the person and society. These basic rights are represented by the Dominium; they are individual by nature, and ensured by the State. As a whole, these rights comprise the following Sections and codes, which, as of publication, still remain incomplete.

Section I (Civil Rights)

- (a) Citizenship in the IMPERIUM is reserved only for full-blooded White Aryan males and females. Only White Aryans shall live within the boundaries and jurisdiction of the IMPERIUM and its many Regions, localities, cities, towns, etc. All non-Whites must be registered by the State as “Aliens” and deported forthwith to their respective lands of genetic origin.

- (b) All White Aryans have the right to Life, as ensured first by Nature and then by the State. It is the duty of the State to protect honest, productive individuals from all harmful and unlawful acts.
- (c) All White Aryans have the right to liberty and security of person; they possess the right to live a free life without being exploited, enslaved, tortured, or treated inhumanely by any individual, group or State. Only the State reserves the legal authority to arrest, punish and restrict the freedom of individuals living within its jurisdiction; and the State shall not use that power without legitimate lawful cause. The State shall not be permitted to mete out punishment to anyone without first acquiring a judicial ruling.
- (d) All White Aryans have the right to State-protection from unlawful searches, seizures, and arrests; they are guaranteed inviolability of the home. No one – neither private individuals nor State agents – may, without lawful grounds, enter, nor evict, nor occupy, nor demolish a home against the will of those residing in it.

- (e) The State guarantees certain fundamental juridical rights to all White Aryans: the right to not incriminate oneself; the right to be tried by an unbiased jury of one's peers; the right to an attorney and criminal defense; the right to a presumption of innocence until proven guilty; the right to not be removed, expelled or extradited to a foreign state to be tried (regardless of the person's innocence or guilt). Before the law, all White Aryans are equal without distinction.
- (f) All White Aryans have the right to live according to their own beliefs, creeds, religions and ways of life without harassment from other individuals, or from the State, so long as their lifestyle is not subversive or in open conflict with either the IMPERIUM or any aspect of the IMPERIUM-IDEA.
- (g) All White Aryans have the right to travel and move freely within the IMPERIUM and without being harassed or impeded by any other individual or group of individuals. The State may restrict the free movement of people during times of crisis, or when having good cause, so as to protect the general welfare and maintain the stability of the IMPERIUM.

- (h) All White Aryans have the right to peacefully assemble, so long as they are not assembled for any subversive or hostile purposes intended to harm the IMPERIUM and/or its People.
- (i) All White Aryans have the right to freely say and print what they want without being threatened by the State or other persons, so long as their words are not subversive or hostile toward the existence and authority of the IMPERIUM.
- (j) All White Aryans have the right to acquire public information, so long as their motives do not conflict with or run counter to the interests of the IMPERIUM.
- (k) All White Aryans have the right to privacy in the following spheres: (1) the home; (2) among family; (3) with regard to property, relationships, and the conducting of private matters. It is illegal to spy on someone, i.e. to place him or her under surveillance, unless the State has reason to believe that that individual is guilty of, or in the process of committing, or conspiring to commit, criminal acts. Only then shall the State conduct its surveillance activities; and never, under any circumstances, shall private individuals be granted the right to conduct surveillance activities. The State shall protect the innocent and law-abiding from arbitrary, unwarranted investigations and surveillance activities.

- (l) All White Aryans have the right to privacy regarding their personal data (e.g. personal correspondences, telephone conversations, email/internet communications, etc.). Only the State reserves the right to seize personal data, and only if the party involved is the subject of a government-warranted criminal investigation approved in a court of law.
- (m) All White Aryans have the right to healthcare and medical attention; this is a fundamental civil right guaranteed by the State for a healthy, hygienic population, in accordance with the right to Life (as outlined in subset-b) and with the State's fundamental belief in sound eugenics policies.

Section II (Cultural Rights)

- (a) All regions, localities and peoples of the IMPERIUM possess the natural right to preserve and develop their own unique traditions, customs, cultures, and general attributes which distinguish them from others.
- (b) All regions, localities and peoples of the IMPERIUM have the right to participate in the Cultural Life of the IMPERIUM as a whole.

- (c) All White Aryans have the right to pursue education, both mental and physical, from the elementary to vocational and/or collegiate (university) levels. Mens sana in corpore sano is the glorious motto of our educational system.
- (d) All White Aryans have the right to their own intellectual and artistic property, and to the compensation and royalties stemming therefrom, provided said property is not ideologically opposed or incompatible with the inviolable principles of the IMPERIUM-IDEA.

Section III (Labor & Family Rights)

- (a) All White Aryan adults possess the fundamental right to work, and every individual is free to choose the work that suits them best, and which serves the interests of both the individual and society.
- (b) All healthy White Aryan adults have the right to marry and found a family. The State recognizes that marriage is based on the free consent of the woman and the man. Although their family and societal roles may differ, the spouses are completely equal in terms of human dignity, and equally responsible for maintaining the family as an institution.

- (c) The State recognizes that the traditional family unit is the cornerstone of a healthy society and encourages healthy couples to have as many children as they can comfortably provide for.

The above represents only a rough sketch of the fundamental rights that will be codified upon the founding of the Dominion. It is not the purpose of the present work to lay out the final draft of our future constitution, only to provide an honest example of what's to be expected.

In our coming society the individual alone shall be burdened with the task of living his or her life. Only the individual shall decide how to live, as long as the freedom of the individual neither infringes on the freedom and rights of others, nor threatens the integrity of the Racial State.

In our world, we shall transfer all responsibility for one's actions onto the individual, not society. There will be no more blaming "society" for the personal failures of individuals. (This is precisely what Absolute Individualism means to those of us who embrace the IDEA.) Necessarily then, there shall be no welfarism of any kind in our society – no food stamps, no "low income housing," no affirmative action, no tokenism, and no rewards for those who contribute nothing! Ours is a society of Workers and Producers; if one does not work, one starves. Lazy behavior shall never be rewarded in the coming Age.

CHAPTER FOUR

The Revolutionary Political C.O.R.E.

For now, neither the IMPERIUM nor the Dominium are political realities. They do comprise, however, a very powerful IDEA which is being fought for daily by the underground Elite of the IMPERIUM EUROPA movement and various other groups of the European New Right, in cooperation with a growing number of clandestine National Socialist cells and “lone wolves” operating in high places.

Upon future political victory, the current members of this underground CORE shall become the first-wave leaders of the IMPERIUM Elite – the Vanguard of the Radical Racist Right. And indeed, as of the writing of this work, CORE is a cunning, battle-hardened fist of White Aryan activists; a fascio of the most loyal Aryan racialists on earth.

As an acronym, C.O.R.E. stands for: Command Organization Revolutionary Elite. Currently, this underground brotherhood is battling behind the scenes to implement the agenda of Nova Europa in the European Parliament – and they are meeting with great success! Norman Lowell has described Nova Europa as the first stage of the establishment of IMPERIUM EUROPA. All CORE members fanatically believe in the IDEA of a White World IMPERIUM. This means that all members hold sacred the following principles:

1. The 14 Words of the late David Lane: “We must secure the existence of our People and a future for White Children.”
2. The establishment of a racial geopolitical entity (i.e. IMPERIUM or REICH) exclusively for White Aryans, and encompassing the Seven Sacred World Territories (outlined in the next chapter of this work).
3. The fundamental belief in the primacy of Race over Culture (and nationality), Culture over Politics, and Politics over economics.
4. A passionate belief in High Culture and its propagation; Culture as an Organic Life Form.
5. A nature-oriented cosmological worldview (i.e. Cosmotheism), which includes a place for the primordial Pagan wisdom of our ancient Aryan past.
6. A fully self-sufficient Economy tying together all White Aryan Peoples and Nations, and excluding all non-Aryan peoples and nations.

7. A definitive knowledge of the Enemy; we must know who we are up against, what we stand for, and thus what we do not stand for.

Principally, we stand against these 9 Enemies:

1. The Unholy Duo of Liberalism-Marxism, and the entrenched decadence that these diabolical creeds naturally spawn.
2. Egalitarianism – or the continued lowering of standards in order to spread the Lie that everyone is equal; this, to the detriment of the one true Aristocratic Race.
3. Universal Human Rights (the uncompromising and often brutal Laws of Nature neither acknowledge nor make any provision for such a deluded fantasy).
4. Materialism – the creed of those who seek to substitute “things” for Ideas; an economic view of the world rather than a Cultural and Spiritual one; the belief that the pursuit of money and material possessions can explain every human motive and desire (that money is the only true historical stimulus).
5. Modernity – an irrational, psychotic belief that modernism, in all its forms, represents “that which is good,” and that Traditionalism is nothing more than superstition and “backwardness.”

6. Technocracy – the belief that all would be well if we humans surrendered ourselves to the technical material realm which we, ourselves, created; to let things control our existence for the sake of a pleasurable life devoid of any meaning. Such a belief is renunciatory, self-cancelling, anti-Natural, and totally absurd.¹⁹
7. Globalization – the international system of economic domination which is propelling the abovementioned points, while at the same time destroying the many unique races and cultures of the world, by means of the WTO, the U.S. Federal Reserve System, the economic and political policies of the “rich North,” the United Nations, and the world’s richest corporations and media conglomerates. Behind this system of Globalization, controlling it from the top, are the International Manipulators – the usual “Chosen” suspects and their goy lackeys.

8. Americanization – the most recognizable “face” of Globalization pushing, at bayonet point, its economic might and degenerate “pop culture” on the rest of the world. The ideal type of individual that this system produces is, as Norman Lowell, puts it: Homo dollaris uniformis.
9. Judeo-Christianity – a perverse, anti-Natural religious philosophy that seeks to achieve spiritually what Marxism attempts politically, namely: to break the spirit of man, and to instill in him a slave morality so as to control him. This is the false religious dogma which misinterprets much or most of the bible, as David Lane expertly understood in his revelations on the King James Bible. Proponents of “Judeo-Christianity” focus all their attention on the Jewish-derived slave-moralist aspects of the Christian faith, which have little if anything to do with the concept of an Aryan Krist. These “Judeo-Christians,” “Christian Zionists,” “Messianic Jews” and other such groups are the idolatrous worshippers of every slash and dot of their respective versions of the bible. Hardly “spiritual,” these morally repressed reprobates are Materialists par excellence. They are bought and paid for by the hybrid Tribe of Jew/Shabbos goy globalists.

The 16 points above, representing both the positive and negative ideological positions taken by those who support the IDEA, must be subscribed to by all CORE activists – the coming Elite. It is only this Elite, representing both the creators and disseminators of High Culture, that must carry the revolutionary message to the White Aryan masses.

In turn, the masses shall take part in the Struggle only as auxiliaries of the Elite – and even these should be kept to a minimum. The outdated quantitative notion that a revolution's success depends heavily on the involvement of the masses is nothing but romantic hogwash! The fact of the matter is that all political revolutions – from the days of Caesar Augustus to Chairman Mao and beyond – have depended only on the cunning and success of the dedicated minority that staged them.

The CORE activists perpetuating the IDEA are one such dedicated minority. The type of revolutionary uprising they are staging is, largely, a cultural one: a Culture War. Their medium of choice for spreading their ideas: the Internet (since it is not yet controlled by our Enemies).

It is the duty of every CORE member, as well as every likeminded Thought-Action Man, to declare total war on the “Judeo-Christian”-Liberal-Marxist-Multiracial status quo in the realms of art, politics, economics, and most of all: Ideas. If you are a Superman, an Absolute Individualist, an Attempter, an Inhuman, then welcome to the Movement. If you are not... Me ne frego!

CHAPTER FIVE

Geographic Structure of the IMPERIUM

NORTH vs. SOUTH

Since ancient times, the perception of the “North,” among the world’s many cultures, has been that of a prosperous and triumphant realm superior to the lands of the “South.” The North has always symbolized a Spiritual Source – an original northern paradise of Light and beauty, transcending the frigid arctic landscape; a place where all human knowledge came from.

The Zoroastrian texts of ancient Iran refer to the northern Aryan homeland of Airyanem Vaejah and its capital “Vara” – a place from which the Aryans were forced to migrate due to glaciation. The Vedas also refer to a northern land that was the ancestral homeland of the Aryans. It was called Sveta-dipa, or “White Land in the Far North.” The ancient Greeks, in their boundless wisdom, dubbed this northernmost land: Hyperborea, the land of the sun-god Apollo. To these ancients the North was the “Land of the Sun,” where the sun never sets, the Sacred Eternal. No doubt they were well aware of the six months of daylight within the Arctic Circle.

The North also symbolizes the idea of the Center, the “Immobile Pole,” the quintessential Masculine Force – what the Chinese Taoists and Confucianists call Yang. As Norman Lowell states in his book Imperium Europa:

The North is the idea of The Centre, The Immobile Pole, the Point of Eternity around which the cycle turns – the cycle of space and time. The point where contrasts converge and parallels point, drawn by a powerful Cosmic Magnetic Force. The place that is not subject to the laws of cosmic entropy. This Centre is symbolized by the Swastika. It stresses both immobility and constancy of the Centre, with the revolving action of the periphery. It symbolizes a Nordic Spiritual polar-paradise: light, purity, unity, completeness, eternity.²⁰

The South, by contrast, symbolizes the direct opposite of the description above, thus representing: the material, the profane, the lascivious, plurality, darkness, ignorance, chaos, etc. The South is therefore characterized by its inherently feminine nature (or Yin).

In the South, the original truths of the North (Hyperborea) – and also the North’s symbolism – are lost and become legend, myth, superstition. The South, the realm of substance (not spirit), materializes the North through its many sensory pleasures: feasts, fetishes, folktales, etc. Conversely, the North spiritualizes the South. Since primordial times, Nordic messengers have always brought their enlightened views, their Spiritual Life, to the South. All civilizations were founded by this Great Light.

Whenever the South fails to acknowledge the primacy of the North, great catastrophes and wars ensue for which the South is always to blame by its rebellious dismissal of the natural order.²¹ The antediluvian war between the primeval continents of Hyperborea and Gondwana (the paleo-continent of the South) was perhaps the greatest indicator of this truth.

In concordance with the teachers of the Ancient Wisdom, Norman Lowell describes in great detail the polar relationship, that seems to have always existed, between the Man of the North and the man of the South; a relationship defined by opposition in every way:

The Sacred North defines a special human type: the Spiritual Man: a biological, racial embodiment, but also with the capacity to raise every object of the physical, material world to its archetype: to its Idea. (Plato's "chairness.")

The Man of the North is not simply White, "Aryan" or Indo-European because of his blood, language and culture – but a particular kind of human being, possessing a direct intuition to the Sacred. To him the cosmos is a texture of sacred symbols. He is the “Solar Man”: Sonnenmensch: creative, pouring out light, force and wisdom from the Spiritual essence of creation.

True, the pure Nordic Civilization disappeared with the ancient Hyperboreans. However, the Nordic messengers had laid the bases of all present civilizations, religions, traditions, cultures, of all continents and colours of skin. Traces of Hyperborean cults can be found among the Indians of Northern America, the ancient Slavs, the founders of the Chinese civilization – and even among the natives of the Pacific.

A true Spirituality, a supra-rational Mind, divine Logos – capacity to see through the world to its secret Soul: these are the defining qualities of the Man of The North.

On the other hand, the Man of the South, the Gondvanic type, is directly opposed to the Nordic type. The Man of the South lives in a circle of effects, of secondary manifestations – he dwells in the cosmos that he venerates, but does not understand. He worships exteriority but not interiority. He is not able to proceed from mere symbols to the symbolized. He lives by passions and puts the psychic above the Spiritual, which he does not understand since he has never come to know it.

The cult of the Great Mother – of matter generating out of a variety of forms: from the “scarab-beetle pushing dung” to the “sow suckling piglets” is typical of the Man of the South. He is a man of the Moon, receiving not giving light – the female valley. The Man of the South is a Mondmensch. Thus the civilization of the South is a receptive civilization: the Moon receiving light from the Sun of the North.

At the very beginning the people of the North and South opposed one another. Later Northern Man penetrated into southern lands, founding some bright expressions of the “Nordic” civilization: ancient Iran, India. Also, the Southern Man sometimes went far northward: Finns, Eskimos, Chukchi, etc. Gradually the original clearness of the sacred-geographical panorama became muddy. However, the typological dualism was preserved in all times and epochs. Today, it has become an internal conflict within the same civilization: Western civilization.

The paleo-continent of the Nordid Hyperborea, physically disappeared millennia ago. Yet it remains a Spiritual reality. A beacon for the precursors of the Elite of the future: [the] embodiment of the ancient “White Teachers” – We, the Elite, with our IDEA of IMPERIUM EUROPA.²²

Quite ironically today, the North, the so-called “rich North,” represents the same material degeneration that has always been associated with the Gondwanic – which is to say, Southern – races and civilizations. After thousands of years of attempting to destroy the inherent morality and high virtue of the Spiritual North, the South's materialist vanguard, led by the Jews, has finally been able to thoroughly implant its degenerate values in Northern regions that were once indigenous to the ancient Hyperboreans and their descendants: specifically, in Europe and North America.

And so, today, the term “rich North” actually describes the governments of the Western bloc of nations that surreptitiously promote all forms of materialist, multiracial, liberal-Leftist “culture” (i.e. garbage!) at the expense of Tradition, Spirituality, High Culture, and Racial Consciousness. And those in the “driver's seat” of government, steering these nations to ruin, are the usual suspects: the Jews and their Shabbos goy lackeys. They are the culprits responsible for the modern economic-social-political-cultural-racial-international disease called Globalization. They are the ones who are using the maximizing productivity of the North against itself. For centuries, these poisonous vipers have embodied the corrupt materialistic world of the South – and indeed, they have made it their prime mission to use the Materialism of the South to corrupt and destroy the Spiritual/Aryan North. (Will they succeed?)

In his definitive treatise Imperium Europa, Norman Lowell correctly points out that, in modern times, the Spiritual North has found a great refuge among the people of Russia and the Slavic nations. In Eastern Europe/Northern Eurasia, Traditionalism has successfully endured. While Russia and the rest of “Pan-Slavia” have hardly been untouched by the Materialist hand of the Enemy, these lands have not yet been totally subdued either; thus they represent a great bulwark against the Enemy; a giant recruiting ground for loyal Aryan warriors in the fight against Globalization. The winning over of Russia – this largest of all Aryan nations – is therefore vital, both spiritually (for the coming Aryan Reawakening) and politically (for the implementation of the IMPERIUM itself).

Nevertheless, one should have no illusions: Russia and the Slavic nations cannot, by themselves, solve the West’s myriad problems. It must be understood that in order for the West to emerge triumphant in a future showdown with the forces of the global ZOG, all rival European nationalisms must be eliminated in defense of a common White Aryan identity and unity. This is the most essential prerequisite for waging a successful Struggle. The establishment of the IMPERIUM – and, at the same time, the reestablishment of a legitimate White Western Civilization (minus all forms of Culture-distortion) – would then become an organic reality.

For now, it cannot be stressed enough: the time for petty competing nationalisms among the Western Family of nations is over; such backward thinking should have been buried long, long ago. Sadly, it still survives; and only one thing can come from this fratricidal tendency: White World extinction. And with this extinction would go the aristocratic spirit of the human race. High Culture would be no more.

There would be no more genius manifesting itself in the arts, sciences, philosophy, politics, exploration; innovation of all kinds would cease; the entire world's food supply would dwindle down to nothing, as great food surpluses (the result of the White Man's agricultural genius) would swiftly be consumed or rot away. Indeed, the tragedy of a White World extinction would go down as the single greatest cataclysmic event in the Earth's 4.6-billion-year history – a disaster of the greatest magnitude for the entire planet.

Therefore, we must finally put aside our petty national chauvinisms and, as White Aryans, unite against the common foe who tirelessly works toward our total extinction. Only thus will the transition to EHREAN Man finally be achieved. The dark age of Kali Yuga is reaching its end. Transition must and will take place.

Seven Sacred Territories of the IMPERIUM

1) Europe

By now, it should be obvious to the reader that we of the IDEA seek to restore Europe to its rightful place of high honor as the unequivocal Heartland of the White Aryan IMPERIUM. Truly, the European Continent is (and ever will be!) the Spiritual, Racial, Cultural,

Philosophical, Political, Historical Cradle of the White Aryan species. On this Great Mother-Continent all European nationalities shall be united in their diversity and forged into a single indestructible Bloc. From the Atlantic to the Russian border, hundreds of sub-national regions will exist and thrive under the system of Dominium. Dynamic cultural and economic exchange between regions will destroy any possibility of intra-European conflicts arising in this glorious future.

The political capital of Europe will be located in a city of renowned High Culture, and geographically situated at a common point of convergence for the 4 major European subgroups – the Teutons, Slavs, Celts and Latins – and the numerically smaller groups, such as the Magyars, Balts, Finns, and Greeks.

In addition to its centrality of location, the city chosen to be the capital of Europe must possess a long history of being a bastion and champion of all things European. Spiritually, racially, culturally, politically, militarily, it must represent Europa in every conceivable way. It must be a city of incredible strategic importance that has historically defended the Blood, Soil and Soul of Europe from the armed invasions of non-White Barbarians (and on multiple occasions) – a city that united a thousand-year REICH which was both Holy and Roman.

This capital city can only be...Vienna (Wien) – the aesthetic mistress of Central Europe. And indeed, Vienna is the undisputed queen of an historical region dating back thousands of years to the Proto-Celtic Hallstatt and Beaker Cultures – a region tying together many successive waves of kindred Indo-European peoples. There is simply no major city better suited to maintaining a truly united Europe than Vienna.

Vienna must also be chosen as the political seat of Europe because, out of all the other prominent cities, she is the one that is best positioned according to the laws of sacred geography. The general area surrounding Vienna is in the center of a sacred longitudinal belt. If one draws a vertical belt (or axis) from the extreme south of Europe to the extreme north, and between 12- and 17-degrees east longitude (in width), one will see that the belt passes through the majority of Europe's great spiritual sites and centers of power, e.g.: Malta, Rome, Venice, Vienna, Berchtesgaden, Braunau am Inn, Prague, Berlin, Copenhagen, Old Uppsala... This is truly a sacred belt!

And the sacred energy of this belt is strongest in its center – inside the ninety-degree triangle between Venice, Zagreb and Vienna. This region is at the crossroads of all the great peoples and empires of European history. It is thus well suited to hosting the true capital of Europe.

United around the great Capital City, each subdivision of the European Family shall be as one: Teuton, Slav, Celt, Latin, Anglo-Saxon, Greek, Magyar, Illyrian, Balt, Finn, Basque, et al. The rich heritage of each shall finally become the rich heritage of all. Reflecting the richness of the Pan-European heritage is the Latin language – a language that must resume its eternal mission to join White Aryans together into a single planetary Power.

Once again shall the old noble Race rise up from its slumber – that Race of Biological Aristocrats, nay, Anthropomorphic Gods... the Aryans. Once again shall all the earth tremble at their Great Reawakening! And with the resounding roar of a single, massive tidal wave crashing upon a lonely beach, the Gods shall proclaim in unison: MAGNA EUROPA EST PATRIA NOSTRA! And the nations of the South shall be very afraid for having offended the Gods.

2) Russia

This most glorious Aryan nation – ancient epicenter of Indo-European cultural diffusion – stretching from St. Petersburg to the Bering Strait, spanning eleven world time zones, shall yet attain a higher level of magnificence than it has ever experienced in its remarkable history. Before this happens, however, certain regions within the former Soviet republics of Central Asia and the Caucasus must be returned to the Russian Motherland for racial, cultural and historical purposes. The regions to be returned will not be specified here, but each one must be considered on a case-by-case basis and must contain a clear White majority before being readmitted. The restoration of designated territories to Russia will be accomplished by peaceful or other means. Thus shall a fully restored Russian Union play a major role in the life of our coming IMPERIUM.

Over the past millennium, Slavophobia has sporadically surfaced in a number of Western nations to the detriment of a stronger Pan-Aryan bond. Whether the “grudge” was held by Teuton, Latin or Anglo-Saxon, the judgment of these kindred people was always the same: the Russian, the Pole, the Serb, the Slav is of a barbaric Asiatic culture; he is not a Westerner; he has no ethnic or cultural ties to the ancient Classical Culture; his dress, language, manners, habits, temperament all betray a crude and savage origin somewhere beyond the Ural hills. This was all summed up in the popular French-derived phrase: “Scratch a Russian and you’ll find a Tatar.” In fact, up until the mid-nineteenth century, the Slav (and especially the Russian) was barely considered human at all!

This view began to change in Europe with the popularization of Indo-European studies, and thus the notion of a common Aryan origin for the European peoples and their related languages. No matter how backward or rudimentary their culture still may have been perceived, the Slavs essentially became “one of us.”²³

²³ In the author’s opinion Tsarist Russia (the “Third Rome”) actually embodied the true Aryan Spirit in its undivided

Eventually, scholars gave the Slav his due credit. Often this meant giving Russians a favorable historical assessment, as Russia was by far the grandest of the Slavic nations, in both population and territory. In some cases, the alleged “Asiatic” nature of the Slavs was interpreted positively (and even considered to be an asset!) by certain scholars. The renowned William Ripley, for example, had this to say of the Russians in his classic 1899 work, The Races of Europe:

The Asiatic influence has been perhaps more powerful in determining the Great Russian character than the physical type. A struggle for mastery of eastern Europe with the barbarians [i.e. Asians] has made the great Russian more aggressive; vigour has to some degree developed at the expense of refinement. The result has been to generate a type well fitted to perform the arduous task of protecting the marches of Europe against barbarian onslaught, and at the same time

Traditionalist essence. For example, in Tsarist Russia there wasn't any significant conflict between the regal and priestly castes (between Tsar and Patriarch; Nobility and Clergy); instead the castes worked organically and each knew its role. The Tsar was both the temporal sovereign and spiritual leader of his people and (in theory) the world. He was the descendant of both Caesar and Saint Peter – a truly sacred sovereign. Ironically, Western Europe cannot claim such a united Radical Traditionalist legacy – not even when the Holy Roman Empire was at its peak. In Western Europe, the greatest tension was at all times present between Monarch and Pope; there was always some kind of clash between “Sun” and “Moon.” If, on the other hand, an Orthodox Patriarch ever claimed himself to be preeminent over the Tsar, or (worse) tried to usurp his regal authority, the holy man would have been swiftly “promoted” to the next life.

capable of forcefully extending European culture over the aborigines of Asia.²⁴

Today, one can see that Russia has retained more of a traditional culture than most other White nations. As was mentioned before, Russia has the advantage of not yet being enslaved by the International Manipulators. To date, the forces of World Jewry have been unsuccessful in totally subduing the Russian state and its people. This is not to say, however, that a number of inroads have not been made. But the Russian people are wiser than most Westerners believe; “anti-Semitism” is in their blood, and with good cause (as anyone who studies true Russian history would come to understand).

Even under the nominally “communist” Soviet regime, the Aryan roots of the Russian Folk were too strong to sever. Ever since Trotsky lost his bid for power to Stalin, while the USSR was still in its early years, the Judeo-Marxist plan to totally destroy the culture and patriotism of the Russian masses had been buried. The steely resilience of the Aryan-Russian Soul under communism first became apparent during World War II, when Stalin appealed to the average Russian’s sense of patriotism, nationalism, duty, heroism and even religiosity (all Aryan virtues) in order to boost morale for the war effort.

²⁴ Ripley, William Z. The Races of Europe: A Sociological Study. New York: D. Appleton and Company, 1899, p. 367.

Where the political hacks of the mid-twentieth century could not comprehend this unbroken continuum of spiritual Russianism, the greater minds of the age could not help but understand. Russia was, both under communism and now capitalist “democracy,” still unspoiled by the sooty hand of the Chosen. This is as evident today as it was then, especially when one contrasts some of the following factors: the utter lack of race-consciousness in most Western nations and the unrepentant national pride of the Russian people; the large number of non-White aliens residing in Western countries and the relatively small number living in Russia; and the rabid materialism infecting all aspects of Western life as opposed to the more traditional and culture-focused Russian Motherland.

Such basic observations have been noted by many racially conscious activists and commentators, including the late David Lane who, before his death in a ZOG prison, went as far as to say that the former communist countries of Eastern Europe “are the only remaining White nations” on earth.²⁵ While this might be a rather simplistic statement, Lane’s concern for the future of the White Race, as expressed in his famously short and direct epistles, is certainly well-founded and not the result of any idle day-dreaming.

²⁵ Lane, David. Victory or Valhalla: The Final Compilation of Writings. CreateSpace, 2008, p. 481.

What David Lane, Norman Lowell and other racially aware activists understand is that Russia represents a gallant fortress of Aryan Racial Awareness and Traditionalism in a world that has fallen under the dark spell of the materialistic forces of Zion. Russia represents the holy remnants of the Spiritual North at this pivotal point in world history. While I myself will not go so far as to say that the survival of the White Aryan Race depends on Russia, I do believe that the Russian people have retained many of the traditional values that Westerners, in general, have abandoned. Whether the Russian State contains enough authoritarian gears in its system to be considered the last bastion of unmasked racial nationalism remains to be seen.

In any event, it is crucial to the establishment of the IMPERIUM that a free and racially aware Europe is joined to all its racial progeny, and this includes, of course, Russia. A Eurussian merger is imperative not for the sake of empty sentimentalism, but because Europe and Russia share a common future, which is itself based on a common past – a past defined by the mystic bonds of a shared Blood, Culture, and Sacred Geographic Space.

To be clear: there is a combined racial-cultural, political and geostrategic Necessity that demands a coming union. To think otherwise is to deny Organic Law. Europe, at this point in time, needs to be reinfused with Traditionalism and the Authority Principle which Russia can provide; and Russia, due to drastic population decline, needs the continuous racial and cultural reinforcement that only Europe can provide. Historical Necessity demands union!²⁶

At present, one will find a number of outspoken proponents of a Euro-Russian union among the European New Right. Of particular notice are those who support Guillaume Faye's vision of "Euro-Siberia." Essentially, the Euro-Siberians anticipate a political federation stretching from Lisbon to Vladivostok which is racially and culturally European and strongly opposed to Globalization (a conception very similar to that of IMPERIUM EUROPA).

The Euro-Siberians also believe that Russia and continental Europe share a common telluric (i.e. land-based) civilization and destiny. They understand that Russia and Europe are naturally defined by land-oriented or "continental" geopolitics and are in geopolitical opposition to thalassocratic or "sea-based" powers like Britain and the United States. Inexorably tied to the telluric civilization are the principles of tradition and labor. Tied to the thalassocratic civilization are the principles of liberalism and exploitation capitalism.

Championing world thalassocracy is the United States. Defending tellurocracy is Russia. Torn between the two systems is continental Europe. If the latter is to survive culturally and racially (as both Western and White Aryan) then she must abandon the liberal-capitalist insanity foisted upon her by the proponents of Globalization and return to a more traditional path, as is currently being championed by her natural telluric ally: Russia.

Thus, in the years ahead, as the dark age of Kali Yuga gives way to the burgeoning Light of Krita Yuga, the Russian People shall play an instrumental role in helping to lead the Aryan Race to Victory. For there is still a bright Aryan Flame burning hot inside the soul of the Russian Folk. And it will not be extinguished easily. This is something that Spengler and Yockey failed to recognize.²⁷

And yet, today, it is clear to even the dumbest minds that the Pan-Aryan / White Pride movements are gaining their greatest momentum inside the Slavic nations; there is even a growing National Socialist ²⁷ What Yockey was able to realize was that Americanism posed a greater threat to Europe's survival than "Sovietism." This was why Yockey ultimately sided with the East when forced to choose between the two Cold War rivals. It must not have been an easy decision for him to make when one considers his undeniable Slavophobia.

Movement in Russia. We therefore cannot turn our backs on our Eastern European brothers and sisters. We simply cannot afford to!

Once the IMPERIUM is established, the ancient Baltic city of Königsberg founded by the Teutonic Knights – blasphemously named “Kaliningrad” at present (after one of Stalin’s minions) – shall serve as one of the command-capitals of the Elite Council of Twelve. In addition, the vast area between the Siberian cities of Omsk and Tomsk, protected by the Irtysh and Ob rivers, shall comprise a giant “Forbidden Zone,” an exclusive area reserved for the Elite Order. The above being in line with Norman Lowell’s grand vision that the coming Superman shall take his first steps inside this designated exclusive Zone.

3) North America (Vinland)

This third Territory includes the combined states and provinces of the United States and Canada – from the Arctic to the Rio Grande, Alaska to the Florida Keys, Pacific to Atlantic, and everything in-between.

After five centuries of European Civilization in the New World, the North American continent is rapidly reverting back to abysmal savagery. As an ever-increasing Third World population asserts itself in the U.S. and Canada, and as “homegrown” Negroes continue multiplying their numbers in our urban disaster-zones, the influence of White Aryan Civilization wanes and the percentage of Whites in North America continues its record decline.

The sequence of events unfolding before us bears no relation to the vision held by America's Founding Fathers. This all-White, slave-holding caste of highly educated men knew perfectly well that blacks and other non-Whites were not equal in any way to the average White man. For proof of this, read some of their statements on the topic of race – particularly those of Jefferson! Of course, some readers will now refer to the Declaration of Independence as “proof positive” that the Founders supported total human equality or viewed said equality in the same exact way as modern Americans. But this belief is incorrect.

The egalitarian language found in the Declaration of Independence, specifically that “all men are created equal,” was intended to emphasize the ideological divide existing between the freedom-loving American Revolutionaries and the cold, bureaucratic government of King George III. The Declaration was a piece of very good propaganda that utilized a fair amount of hyperbole in making the argument that independence from Britain was inevitable – and the propaganda worked! The great list of offenses committed by the King against the colonists was intended to shock and enrage both the monarch and the average person. Here, it is the proper spin that is needed to light the fuse of rebellion, not “truth.” Truth has no necessary role in revolution; the two do not share a bond. Often, truth is hostile to revolution, and vice versa.

Certainly, the Founding Fathers (Washington, Jefferson, Adams, Madison, Hamilton, et al.) all understood that Negroes were not and never were equal to Whites; that they contributed nothing to High Culture and civilization, philosophy, art, science, technics, politics, religion, etc., etc. And yet these men – these slave-holding White Aristocrats – found it politically expedient to pen the all too familiar and clichéd words: “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal...” This was eighteenth-century political spin in action. Jefferson and company were crafty, highly educated, cultured and politically calculating individuals. There is no way that they could have actually believed these words – nor even that their fellow Whites were all “created equal,” let alone the primitive blacks, who at this time were not even believed to be fully human, never mind fully equal!

Clearly, the vision of equality so glorified today by academia, the media and the entertainment industry, was not held by the great men of America’s early days. If one takes an honest look at the current niggerized “popular culture,” one will see why. Crime, lechery, degenerate “music,” an entire population of tens of millions loitering around all day, hollering on street corners about their “plight,” that the “White Devil” is to blame for everything, while at the same time looking for free meals at the expense of this same “White Devil.”

Yes, the degenerate Negroes have indeed been liberated – first, through the efforts of the Union Army which cost hundreds of thousands of lives,²⁸ and secondly through the subversive activities of twentieth century Jews: from the founding of the NAACP in 1909, to the speeches written for Martin Luther King by the Marxist-Jew Stanley Levison. They “had a dream,” these children of Moloch, and for the rest of us it has been an apocalyptic nightmare.²⁹ And just what is meant by an “apocalyptic nightmare”? Perhaps the following statistics could provide some insight:

- Since the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act by Lyndon Johnson (arguably the worst president in U.S. history), Negroes have committed hundreds of millions of hate-crimes against White Americans – from petty crimes to rape, torture and murder.
- In the year 1992 alone, one million Whites were murdered, raped, robbed and assaulted by Negroes.

²⁸ Based on 1860 census figures, 8 percent of all White men aged 13 to 43 died in the American Civil War (both North and South).

²⁹ Concerning Martin Luther King, Jr., let us see what this false prophet’s own religion says about him (from the New American Bible): “I have heard the prophets who prophesy lies in my name say, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’...Yes, I am against the prophets, says the Lord, who borrow speeches to pronounce oracles” (Jeremiah 23: 25, 31). It is well known that MLK borrowed the written speeches of his chief handler, Stanley Levison, a Communist Jew from New York. Among the borrowed speeches was the famous “I Have a Dream” speech delivered at the 1963 March on Washington.

- Statistically, Negroes are 50 times more likely to attack Whites than vice versa.
- Negro neighborhoods are 35 times more violent than White neighborhoods.
- Negroes murder Whites at 18 times the rate that Whites murder Negroes.
- Negroes commit 14 times more murders than Whites.
- Negroes commit 9 times more rapes than Whites.
- Approximately 90 percent of the victims of all interracial crimes are White.

The above statistics come from the well-respected Australian journalist Paul Sheehan, who first presented these figures in a May 2, 1995 article for the Sydney Morning Herald. Since the research he conducted is a bit “dated,” more recent statistics should prove to be all the more alarming. In 2005, for example, a study found that Negroes were “136 times more likely to commit robbery than Whites.”³⁰

And so, the only solution: deportation. We must deport all of the problems affecting the White Aryan community of nations the same way that responsible homeowners deport trash from their homes every couple of days. It must be done. The shared vision of two very different individuals, U.S. President James Monroe and Pan-Africanist Marcus Garvey, must be fulfilled: Back to Africa! Back to Africa indeed!

As for the other non-White races living in North America, they will also be sent home to their ancestral lands of racial origin. Some might still be curious to know what the term “non-White” exactly means and what the method would be for weeding these people out. Well, fret not, as this is a question that shall be settled by (1) mandatory genetic testing for all, and (2) the profiling of racially-suspect individuals based on their physical features, neighborhood by neighborhood, all across the continent. It is the only way.

An Aside on the American “Civil War”

The American Civil War (1861-1865) – or more accurately The War of Northern Aggression as it is still sometimes referred to in Dixie – was much more of a great turning point in the history of the Western World than most people would readily assume. There are a number of reasons for this.

Firstly, the American Civil War was one of the bloodiest conflicts that the Western World had experienced up to that time. At war’s end, the dead and wounded totaled 853,838 on the Union side, and 914,660 on the side of the Confederacy.³¹ Secondly, from a military standpoint, the American Civil War set the standard for the way in which future internecine wars would be fought between the European nations. The epic clash of ironclads on the open seas, the mass transport of troops by rail, the introduction onto the battlefield of the world's first machine gun (i.e. "Gatling gun"), and the appearance of trench warfare all contributed to revolutionizing military tactics and technologies.

More important than the material changes to the battlefield, however, was the ideological battle between North and South. It wasn't the ironclads and railroads that were responsible for sending hundreds of thousands of American men to their graves; these were only vehicles. Likewise, it wasn't the guns, cannons and bayonets that were to blame. Weapons are only weapons; by themselves, they possess neither the power to fire, nor to kill. Yet each trigger finger behind the weapon is attached to a man with a brain who, consequently, possesses a certain ideological leaning. This is what kills.

During the American Civil War, two ideologies were lined up against each other: Aristocracy and Egalitarianism. The first was championed by the South (i.e. Confederate States of America) and the second was propagated by the North. In the antebellum South there existed a definite aristocratic tradition, a caste system of sorts, in which Negro slaves were at the very bottom, followed by free Negroes, "poor Whites," the petite bourgeoisie, and at the top were the large landowners who, by means of their higher education and superior attributes, comprised the organic leadership of Southern society.

This was above all a conservative system incorporating a quasi-feudal attachment to the land of one's birth (i.e. estate, town, county and region) with a staunch patriarchal social structure. The corruptive influences of political liberalism, cosmopolitanism, big-moneyed transnational interests, the large-scale commoditization of labor, and the destruction of agriculture-based society are naturally inimical to a system based on conservatism, traditionalism and Aristocracy.

To be sure, the Southern worldview did not equate wealth with money, but prized honor, loyalty and kinfolk above all else – a patently Aryan outlook. Virtues such as these represented true wealth in the minds of all Southerners, rich and poor alike. The Northern elites who financed the war, in contrast, revered the world of commerce – of “hustle and bustle” – where one's origin counted for nothing; where the amount of money a man possessed determined the worth of his soul; where no god was sacred except almighty Mammon. The South was vertical in its social structure and possessed an agricultural economy. The North was horizontal and urban. The two sides, even before they lined up for battle, could not stand in greater opposition.

Today, in America's public schools and universities (and of course in the mainstream media), the Civil War is merely interpreted as a conflict over the issue of Negro slavery. If this was true, hardly any Northerners would have enlisted in the Union Army, except perhaps the staunchest abolitionists, who were conspicuously absent among the Union ranks.

In point of fact, the Civil War was waged primarily over the issue of States' Rights, as the culmination of a three-pronged spear of Northern aggression that had been poking the South for a number of years. Ideologically, economically and politically the North had been inflaming Southern passions. The cherished concept of States' Rights and the ongoing struggle to keep the South free from the greedy clutches of usurious Northern bankers were the core issues of the 1861 Revolution. Fomenting the flames of war was the great ideological divide existing between North and South.

On one side of the battlefield stood the Southern guardians of Tradition, Order and High Culture. On the other stood the Plutocratic Destroyers – the Crusaders for Chaos and Mass Mediocrity. It was the Cross versus the Eagle. The grim Gray realities of life against the lofty Blue naiveté of “equal rights.”

This was a war that would not end in 1865 but merely comprise the first battle in a series of conflicts that would set the world ablaze for more than a century, on battlefields and in parliaments. The Western World is still being rocked by this ongoing War – not “Between the States,” but between Tradition and Chaos, Aristocracy and Egalitarianism, Excellence and Mediocrity. In Washington, as well as in London, Paris, Berlin, Rome, etc., the American Civil War is not yet over, as all of us live with the ill effects of that long-ago failed Revolution of 1861 – a Revolution of nobility against tyranny, and true freedom against true slavery.

Consoling, the camp that won the war in 1865 is also the one that is coming to the end of its reign as queen regent of all the earth. In its aftermath a more noble order shall be implemented, and the Spirit of 1861 shall be given breath anew. Deo Vindice!

4) Australasia (Australia/New Zealand)

As strong outposts of Anglo-Celtic settlement, initiated at a time when the British Empire was at its zenith, the countries of Australia and New Zealand are intrinsically White nations just like those of Europe and North America. And, as is happening in Europe and North America, Third World colonizers are pouring into Australia/New Zealand at record numbers every day, week, month and year.

While non-White immigration to New Zealand is still somewhat negligible, this is not the case for Australia. Up until relatively recently, non-White immigration to Australia stood at 0.0 percent. Indeed, the Australians possessed one of the strongest and smartest policies in the world, totally barring entrance to Third World invaders. For the past quarter-century or so, the policy has changed – radically.

Now South and East Asians, Muslims, Africans – all the abject filth of the non-White world – are battering down the defenses of the once great Australian nation. Once they make landfall, these ungrateful miscreants lay waste to the cities and suburbs in their path, robbing hard-working Australians of their paychecks either at gun-point or through welfare, killing Whites mercilessly in their own streets, raping women, brutalizing the elderly, abducting children, pushing drugs, pimping, and the list goes on.

Interestingly enough, none of these crimes existed when there was a solidly White Australia, and when those who were “indigenous” (the Aborigines) knew their place. And yet somehow, we’re supposed to believe the liberal lie that Australia was originally colonized by “criminals.” Tsk, tsk!

Again, it must be stressed: the first priority of the coming White World IMPERIUM will be to take out the trash; the untermenschen will be deported.

5) Visigodica (southern South America)

The above word, Visigodica, refers to the majority-White nations of southern South America, and the descendants of the Spanish settlers – many of whom possess undeniable Germanic or, more precisely, Visigothic-Spaniard ancestry. The countries included in this region are: Chile, Argentina, Uruguay, and the southeastern portion of Brazil.

Due to a favorable climate suited to growing a diversity of crops, this “southern cone” of South America has attracted European immigrants for centuries. Hence the current percentages of Whites in the abovementioned countries: Uruguay – 88 percent; Argentina – 86.4 percent; Chile – 65 percent; and the White percentage for southeastern Brazil stands at nearly 100 percent.

Nevertheless, there is literally a Race against time for White Aryans living in southern South America, as every moment of every day this Race is under siege by the powerful Southerly (Gondwanic) forces that are lined up against it. Such forces include the usual list of suspects, and the Materialist doctrines they preach which all lead, ultimately, to miscegenation: the bane of Latin America.

Thus, in order to save millions of White South Americans from certain racial extinction it is imperative that they be given an all-White homeland. As productive Aryans they deserve and require such a homeland. Why should only the unproductive and criminally insane races, such as the blacks and mestizos, be allotted dozens of all-black and brown nations to choose from? Shouldn't the same courtesy be extended to the White peoples of the planet? – the most productive and creative Race in the world!

6) Capeland

The Territory of Capeland consists of all the lands formerly held in southern Africa by the British, Germans and Dutch-Afrikaners. These lands include the historical Union of South Africa, Bechuanaland, Rhodesia, and German South West Africa – all of which were settled and civilized by White Europeans who, in more recent years, had their properties expropriated by radical Marxists.

Though the mainstream media hates to report it, Whites have regularly been subjected to hellish torture by hateful black mobs since the end of apartheid. Through the years, countless personal stories and eyewitness reports have confirmed that Whites have suffered extensively after surrendering to black rule. To this day, entire families are being enslaved, raped, starved, slaughtered, burned alive, and slowly dissected by roving black mobs – tortured without mercy for days and weeks on end! Those who are fortunate enough to escape unharmed still have their homes and properties illegally seized (all in the name of “democracy,” of course). Yet the genocide against Whites in southern Africa continues, and is actually getting worse!

Therefore, it will be a top priority of the coming IMPERIUM to reconquer the lost White lands of southern Africa, and to send the so-called “natives” (the Congoid Kaffirs) back to West Africa, whence they came. This will not be a difficult task as everyone knows the African “soldier” is incapable of carrying out even the most basic military assignment due to his complete lack of discipline and courage. Thus, our mission to reconquer the Cape will only require one or two divisions of Afrikaner Kommandos to sweep across the southern cone of Africa, north to south and east to west.

Now, some might argue: “Why not just fund a program to send the Whites of southern Africa back to Europe?” The answer to that is simple: emigration to Europe is tantamount to a military surrender – not only on a national level, but on a RACIAL one as well. Telling the Boers to pack up and leave would be like telling someone whose family lived in Boston since the early 1600s: “You know, John Smith, your city really is swamped with non-Whites; you ought to just pack up the wife and kids, and head back to England.” This is the same kind of false argument supported by those who are totally ignorant of history.

Historically speaking, the Dutch and the Bantu tribes reached the Cape at approximately the same period of time. Prior to the arrival of these two groups, the land was partially inhabited by the primitive Bushmen folk who are a throwback to the Paleolithic epoch, and are now nearly extinct. The Bushmen (also known as the “San”) are a nomadic people with no historical claim to the lands they and their ancestors have used for centuries. In fact, much like the aborigines of Australia, the Bushmen – with their exceptionally small brains – don’t even understand what “land ownership” means! Hence, they cannot rightfully possess the land.

So, as far as legitimate claims go, there can be only two rivals: the Dutch and other Europeans on one side, and the Bantu-African tribes on the other. As stated above, both groups entered South Africa at approximately the same time. However, only one group brought civilization and a settled way of life to the land. And that group was unmistakably European. Hence, South Africa and the adjacent lands of European settlement will always be White lands! The coming IMPERIUM shall make sure of it!

7) Indo-Nilus

The above term “Indo-Nilus” comprises all racially and historically Aryan lands located in northern India, the Middle East, and North Africa. Historically, these three regions have always possessed large minorities of pure White peoples – whether they are to be found among certain Berber groups (e.g. the Kabyles and Riffians), or among the Copts of Egypt, or Circassians, or the remaining traces of pure Aryans in the Himalayan foothills.

While most of India, the Middle East and North Africa will of course not be annexed to the IMPERIUM, certainly those areas with the greatest concentration of pure Aryans will be admitted. Select parts of Iran and Afghanistan will be annexed and renamed Persia and Bactria respectively. To the south of the Caucasus Mountains (historically the barrier between Europe and the Middle East), select parts of Kurdistan and Anatolia will also be included.

As for North Africa, much of the Mediterranean coastline shall be annexed – just enough to reclaim the Great Mother of Classical Civilization, Mediterranea, for the White Man. Just as in Roman times, the Mediterranean Sea will once again be known as Mare Nostrum (“Our Sea”) – Our Aryan Sea. The vast and unforgiving Sahara Desert shall revert to its original role as a natural barrier to Negro penetration into White lands.

A thin band of territory shall also be annexed along both banks of the Nile River, where once the ancient White Man of Atlantis instructed his primitive Hamitic counterpart in the ways of godlike architecture; where many of the White Man’s South-Aryan Coptic descendants still live today.

Such areas of noticeable White population and cultural history – though they have yet to be thoroughly defined and delineated – are vital to the IMPERIUM on racial and/or historical grounds, depending on each case. In some of these areas both a White population and historical link converge. In all cases, the ancestors of modern Whites were the original inhabitants and bearers of civilization in these lands. Hence, the claims of the IMPERIUM are most legitimate.

CHAPTER SIX

SPIRITUALITY

“Mussolini can have anything he wants: Nice, Corsica, Cyprus, Crete, Tunis, Egypt, the Sudan, anything – but not Malta! That island I want for myself. I want to retire there and spend the last years of my life on that Sacred Island.”

– Adolf Hitler ³²

Malta: The Aryan Spiritual “Mecca”

Within the coming IMPERIUM, Malta (Melita, in Latin) shall be designated as one of a number of sacred spaces that will attract a constant flow of pilgrims who comprise, racially and spiritually, the healthiest specimens of our species. In Malta, White Aryans will commune with their most ancient spiritual past, as they visit the countless prehistoric sites of an island nation that is totally unique in the world.

For where else but Malta could one find tangible historical evidence of both the Aryan and Atlantean stages of ancient White Culture and civilization? And where else but Malta can such tangible historical evidence be found virtually everywhere?! I allude of course to the many temples that exist on land, as well as those known to exist offshore – submerged after centuries of rising water levels.

The great temples of the Maltese islands are the oldest megalithic structures in Europe, and even predate the earliest Egyptian pyramids. These structures include (among others): Ġgantija, Haġar Qim, the Tarxien Temples, and Mnajdra. The Ġgantija temple complex is more than 5500 years old, making it the second-oldest free-standing stone monument site in the world (after Göbekli Tepe). Even so, 5500 years is a relatively short amount of time in Malta's long history, as human settlement goes back tens of thousands of years to Atlantean times.

There can be little doubt that some of the temples submerged beneath the Malta Channel date to the obscure period before the Atlantean cataclysm. After the Lost Continent sank beneath the waves, new streams of Atlanto-Aryans settled the islands. Sea levels were much lower thousands of years ago, so naturally, the newcomers must have noticed the great megalithic temples either close to the shorelines or sticking out of the sea – temples erected centuries earlier by their own Atlantean ancestors. Observing every detail of these awesome structures, the post-Atlantean Aryans of Malta then went about building their own sacred temples further inland.

The godlike engineering skills of the Aryan Race on Malta did not go unnoticed by the ancient Egyptians, who called the island “Mlita,” which means “Land of Large Stones.” So great was the contact between ancient Egypt and Malta that the Egyptian concept of heaven was influenced by the Maltese islands themselves. The Egyptian Abydos – the equivalent of the Elysian Fields in Greco-Roman lore – was described in the ancient texts in these words: “that group of islands, situated below the western horizon, enjoying a perpetual spring and many Temples of the gods.” The Osiris myth also speaks of the “Lord of the Afterlife abiding in a group of islands to the west of Egypt.” Not surprisingly, many amulets of the Egyptian gods Horus and Anubis have been found in various Maltese localities.³³

The famous Egyptologist Walter B. Emery (1903-1971), excavating at Saqqara in the 1930s, found evidence of a pre-dynastic race of exceptionally long-headed people with fair hair, and who were taller and more heavily built than the local Egyptian population. Upon further investigation Emery found that this race was not indigenous to Egypt but a ruling caste of foreign origin. The scholar associated this caste with the Shemsu Hor, i.e. the “disciples of Horus,” recognized as the dominant sacerdotal caste in pre-dynastic Egypt – a caste of semi-divine kings, priests and keepers of sacred knowledge that dominated Egypt until approximately 3000 BC.

Interestingly, the temple builders of Malta's Saflieni Culture were of this same noticeably long-headed stock, and they disappeared around the same time as their Egyptian counterparts, between 3000 and 2500 BC. When one observes the images of later pharaohs, such as Akhenaton and his son Tutankhamun, the remnants of this long-headed caste are clearly visible. Hence the mutual White Aryan origin of the Maltese temple-builders and the ancient Egyptian ruling caste.³⁴

Long before the time of the Egyptians, however, Malta was the prehistoric center of the Cult of the Great Mother Goddess. The renowned Hypogeum (located in Paola, Malta) is evidence of this once vibrant cult. The so-called "Venus figurines" are associated with the cult – recognized by their highly exaggerated female body parts, namely the breasts, hips, stomach, buttocks and thighs. The same kind of figurines, along with many other Maltese-style artifacts, were found in 1928 in far off Siberia, just west of Lake Baikal – a land that was also familiar to the ancient Atlanteans. It is no coincidence that when the site was discovered the Russian excavators chose to name it "The Malta Settlement."

Archaeological evidence for this ancient Atlantean civilization – stretching back tens of thousands of years

³⁴ Lowell, op. cit., pp. 410-411.

– can also be found all across the vast Russian steppes, along the banks of the Dniester River in the west, south to the Caucasus Mountain region, and east to the peaks of the Altai Mountains. In worshipping the “Mother Goddess” and manufacturing “Venus figurines,” the Maltese Aryans (like their kinsmen in Eurasia) apparently maintained the old “Demetrian” religious traditions of the Atlantean civilization – not quite solar in character, yet not totally lunar either.

By 2500 BC, a degenerative lunar cult took root in the Mediterranean world. High Spirituality was replaced by base materialism. Masculine vigor was replaced by effeminate vanity. Sacred contemplation succumbed to the exterior façade of worthless idols, fetishism and profane public ritual. The funerary practice of cremation was replaced with burial.

The former Aryan traditions would later reemerge, but for the time being the Aryans were themselves replaced. As in Malta, so too in Egypt; the long-headed, fair-skinned ruling caste disappeared, and the resulting power vacuum enabled the mud-skinned masses to proliferate their kind. All the evil degeneracy of the Materialist South started to rise throughout the Mediterranean world.

With the exterior darkened complexions came the interior darkness of the soul. The lunar cult then produced a cabal of twisted, evil gods which included Baal, Molech, Sin, El (ancestor of “Allah”), and the chief of all perverted deities: Jehovah. This lunar spiritual darkness still occupies the lost souls of the billions of human herd-animals who still bow before the altars of their Jewish, Muslim and Christian “god” – the demiurgic “Lord” of Nothing.

If the modern White Aryan is ever to regain his true spiritual identity – and reclaim his Aryan-Solar spiritual heritage – he must totally cleanse himself of his adopted lunar idol and reorient his soul. A new and replenished Aryanism, uncompromising in its aims, will help him accomplish this. Hence, the Aryan must turn his qibla away from Jerusalem, Rome and Bethlehem – and if he should kneel, then let him do so in the direction of Malta, the Externsteine and Braunau am Inn. Once this solar reorientation is complete, a total spiritual reversal shall occur: from darkness to Light, south to North, material to Spiritual. Then shall the racial reformation of the earth take place!

Some readers will undoubtedly claim that while the Externsteine and Hitler’s birthplace make sense as sacred sites of pilgrimage for true Aryans, Malta does not. They will claim that Malta is an unimportant backwater, and that its culture, people and environment betray an origin that “looks” to be more Arab or North African than European (let alone Nordic). To these readers I would simply say: You are apparently confused and misinformed in your assertions.

The Maltese people have always possessed an indomitable Aryan Soul, and the majority of them actually display racial features that are more Alpine

(i.e. Central Aryan) than “Mediterranean.” In his classic work Imperium Europa, Norman Lowell actually disproves the myth that most Maltese are Mediterranean by race – a myth propagated by our racial enemies who wish to destroy Malta because they know very well that this sacred archipelago is a center of immense Aryan spiritual reserve power.

Still unconvinced, some readers might argue: “Well what about the Maltese language – isn’t it a form of Arabic; why would Aryans speak a Semitic language if they weren’t Semites themselves?” While I admit this is a “clever” argument, it is nevertheless ill-founded.

The first thing to understand is that the Maltese language is wrongly classified by our world-enemies as belonging to the Semitic group of languages. Proof that this classification is wrong can be found in the fact that approximately 70 percent of all Maltese words come from Indo-European languages – roughly 50 percent coming from Italian, and 20 percent from English. Even after the Arabs conquered Malta and then tried forcing their ugly guttural language on the natives, the Maltese resisted!

Most importantly, however, the Maltese never submitted to the twin policies that the conquering Arabs customarily imposed on vanquished populations: low-culture and miscegenation. The author has had the sublime pleasure of visiting the island nation, and can testify to the fact that the Maltese are among the most beautiful, civilized and hospitable people on earth.

One last thing to consider: Malta is home to one of the most traditional Catholic populations in the world; and it certainly hosts one of the most conservative populations in Europe. As such, Malta has forever acted as a natural rocky bulwark jutting out of the Mediterranean against Arab and Turkish expansion into Europe. Malta shall continue its role in the future, as the elite “tip of the spear” against anti-Aryanism wherever and whenever it dares to raise its repulsive head.

Cosmotheism

I speak now of a religion of the future – a uniquely Life-affirming spiritual expression conceived solely for the total advancement of the White Aryan Race: Cosmotheism. To be sure, this is neither a materialistic ideology, nor the latest craze in New Age fetishism. Cosmotheism is nothing less than the White Aryan’s Destiny to fulfill an evolutionary Mission (cosmic in scope) toward ever-greater consciousness and combined spiritual-physical perfection – toward Godhood itself!

As first envisioned by the late Dr. William Luther Pierce, Cosmotheism will fulfill the Aryan’s High Spirituality in a way that Judeo-Christianity never could. It will encompass every aspect of existence in the coming IMPERIUM: Spirituality, Race, Culture, Philosophy, Science, Education, Society, State, and more.

A wholly Natural spiritual expression, Cosmotheism reflects the organic, hierarchical order of the Cosmos (as evidenced by its name). It is a noble and honest spirituality which confronts Man with the existential duty to look both within and above himself for inspiration to achieve ever-higher states of Becoming.

Indeed, Cosmotheism puts forward the concept that the Aryan has yet to fulfill his Destiny as an Overman, and that he must continue on an ever-higher evolutionary Path toward Godhood, conquering Space, Time and beyond – that We must fulfill the Plan of our Divine Creator by finally confronting Him on Our own terms... and He will behold Us, as We behold Ourselves.

It should, by now, come as no surprise to the reader that Cosmotheism shall be the required Religion of the coming Elite. Nevertheless, it shall be accessible to all healthy members of the Race who desire spiritual and physical advancement. Cosmotheism shall not conflict with other healthy Aryan religious traditions, but shall stand proudly separate for those who truly Seek.

As for the guiding principles of Cosmotheism, they can be summarized in the following eight points:

1. All Existence (i.e. the Cosmos, the Multiverse, parallel dimensions, whatever exists) originates and thus emanates from one Eternal Power-Source – one IMPERIUM. Likewise, everything contains a portion of this pre-existing Power-Source within it. Thus: “All is within the Power and the Power is within all.”
2. All Existence eventually returns “home” to the Eternal Power-Source, whereupon Creation starts anew in an endless cycle of Cosmic contraction and expansion. In the Arcane Tradition these processes are referred to as the Alpha and Omega cycles, or the “inhaling and exhaling” of God. Scientifically, the cycles of contraction and expansion have been referred to, respectively, as the “Big Crunch” and the “expanding universe”; the Power-Source is described by science as the “Singularity.”
3. The Cosmos itself is alive, conscious, intelligent, organic and hierarchical.
4. The Laws of Nature are the result of intelligent forces. Hence all forms of Life, and indeed all Creation, are the products of superior Intelligence, and thus Intelligent Design.
5. Evolution applies to all living things on a grand universal scale. It is the prime mission of all forms of life to aspire toward physically stronger states of existence, in conjunction with the development of higher stages of consciousness and intelligence.

6. In opposition to the positive forces of Evolution are the negative forces of Devolution, which work toward an organism's degeneration and eventual destruction. The ancient Taoist principles of Yin and Yang reflect the Cosmic balance of Devolutionary and Evolutionary forces.
7. Long ago in the Earth's past, long before the onset of the current devolutionary era, there were lengthy periods of both evolution and devolution on the "lost continents" of Hyperborea (Thule), Lemuria, and Atlantis.
8. As the most advanced living species on planet Earth, the White Aryan Race has both the natural right and the duty to further its collective evolutionary ascent toward the higher realms of Cosmic Existence. This shall be accomplished by means of a dynamic eugenics program that skillfully fuses together science and spirituality into a permanent, inseparable bond.

CHAPTER SEVEN

“Without race there can be nothing except the slave wearing his master’s clothes, stealing his master’s proud name, adopting his master’s tongue, and living in the crumbling ruins of his master’s palace.” – Madison Grant

Race is a biological reality – this is the most fundamental of all the Truths mentioned in this work. If you do not believe that Race is a biological reality, then you need not continue reading, because all of the proceeding text is based firmly and inseparably on this First Truth alone. Indeed, everything is Race; without Race there is nothing.

The reality of Race, and thus racial differences, comprises the immutable and unconditional foundation of all Racialist philosophy. National Socialism reinforced this foundation by adding a supporting pillar of Truth which states that the Aryan Race – and particularly the Nordic segment of the Race – is the most precious genetic gift that Nature has bestowed upon an otherwise insignificant human species. Not in generations, but over the course of eons have the unseen forces of Natural Selection influenced the races in their respective physical, mental, emotional and spiritual traits.

The three primary (unmixed) races of mankind are: the Aryan (commonly called “White”), the Mongoloid (East Asian), and the Negroid (black sub-Saharan African). Each of these three original races are further subdivided into a series of subgroups (or sub-races) that can accurately classify the racial traits of every kind of individual on earth. The degree to which the various sub-races and nationalities deviate from any of the three original racial sources also marks the degree to which intermixture – between any or all of the three groups – has occurred. For example, there are no such races as the “Arab,” the “Mexican,” the “Gypsy,” etc. These “brown” types are instead highly mixed combinations of all three of the above primary racial groups (i.e. racial sources). I will now provide a very brief description of the three primary races.

People of Mongoloid race are extremely broad-headed or “brachycephalic,” they are yellowish or brown in skin tone, with straight dark hair (sometimes curly in the case of Polynesians), and they possess a noticeable epicanthic fold or “slanted eyes” as most Westerners would say. Although a number of scholars have theorized the existence of a brown-skinned “Malay” race which is allegedly separate from the Mongoloid, there is no such difference in reality. The Malay is merely a darker variety of Mongoloid, the same way a South European is but a darker sibling of the Northern European, which is to say, they are still of the same race. Amerindians also belong to the Mongoloid pan-ethnic family. Mongoloids most likely descend from Homo pekinensis – a type of Homo erectus that was native to East Asia.

The Negroid racial group is a pan-ethnic family that includes three main stocks: (1) True Negroid, also referred to as “Congoid”; (2) Australoid or Australian Aborigine; (3) Capoid, named after the Cape of Good Hope where Dutch settlers first encountered them (the so-called “Bushmen” people). The principle racial characteristics uniting these three Negroid subgroups are: dark skin colors (ranging from yellowish-brown to shiny black), kinky hair texture, thick lips, broad or flat noses, a high rate of alveolar prognathism (or “jutting jaw”), and a tendency toward extreme long-headedness or “dolichocephalism.” Undeniably, all three of the Negroid subgroups exhibit the most primitive and backward racial features of all Homo sapiens sub-species. These are the genetic dead-ends of humanity.³⁵ Perhaps Madison Grant said it best in his seminal work The Passing of the Great Race: “Negroes have demonstrated throughout recorded time that they are a stationary species, and that they do not possess the potentiality of progress or initiative from within.”³⁶ As a group, Negroids most likely descend from any number of African great apes. However, the direct ancestor of the Australoid subgroup might possibly be a Homo erectus species native to southeast Asia known as “Java man.”

As for the Aryan or “White” Race, it is most easily defined by its comely moderation of type in comparison to the Black and Yellow races. In other words, the Aryan type (as a whole) is not characterized by any unsightly extremisms. For instance, the hair texture of the average Aryan is intermediate (characterized by cymotrichy), ranging between the short curly texture of the Negroid and the extreme fineness of the Mongoloid. As for head size, the Aryan is generally mesocephalic, between the extreme long-headedness (or dolichocephalism) of the Negroid and the broad-headedness (brachycephalism) of the Mongoloid. The Aryan facial profile is typically straight, with little or no protrusion of the jaws (prognathism). The nose is rarely ever broad when compared to the other races. The ears of the Aryan are larger than those of the Mongoloid and Negroid. The bony ridges that surmount the orbits of the eyes are typically larger than those found on either Negroid or Mongoloid skulls. And the bony palate and teeth are usually reduced in size when compared to the others. In all other regards, the various Aryan subgroups, amongst themselves, can be quite diverse. Cro-Magnon man, known for his great artistic abilities and extra-large brain size, was modern Aryan Man's ancient equivalent – perhaps his “Hyperborean” ancestor.

Needless to say, racially mixed individuals – i.e. those with less than 100 percent full-Aryan blood – cannot be classified as Aryans in either the biological or spiritual sense. The concept of so-called “spiritual Aryanism” applying to non-Aryans is nothing other than racial blasphemy, intended to weaken the collective Aryan Body's resistance to infection.

To the “anti-racists” who stubbornly proclaim that “race is a social construct,” History invariably demonstrates the opposite. Society is in fact a racial construct. Indeed, Race is neither a “social construct” (in the Materialist/Freudo-Marxian sense) nor strictly a spiritual or cultural concept. Race is a biological reality. Biological Race is clearly determinable through casual observational methods, intelligence tests, and through more rigorous scientific study on the genetic/molecular level (i.e. DNA).

Contrarily, the anti-racists would have us believe that everyone is a product of only the social and economic realms; that the very realms which man has created are somehow responsible for creating and defining him. They would have us believe that nothing is grounded in race alone; that the endless variations of ethnic type (which exist within races as much as they do between them) are not real, but exaggerations, exceptions. This is the logic, the rationalism, of the quintessential Jew/liberal.

The social engineers of the “great” politically correct society maintain that environment counts for everything and heredity for nothing. They promote a worldview that replaces reality with fiction, and discriminating truths with psychotic fantasy. Those of us who possess true wisdom know better. To us, the anti-racist crowd is the living embodiment of the psychotic fantasy, the outrageous fiction. Of course, anti-racists can be found among all ethnicities, social classes and religious groups; however, the Jews and their liberal Gentile lackeys (i.e. race traitors) undoubtedly form the Vanguard of this sinister bunch.

And as much as the Jewish and Western liberal elites strive to propagate the falsehood that Race does not exist, they nevertheless undermine their best-made arguments by acknowledging the very existence of non-Aryan races, and by encouraging these races not only to exist but to proliferate and thrive at the expense of the same Aryan Race that they paradoxically claim doesn’t exist! Furthermore, no matter what the consummate liberals might say in public to the effect that “we are all equal,” you can rest assured that if their money was at stake they would pick a Kenyan over a Tibetan in a foot race, and a Swede over a Samoan in a speed-skating competition. Thus, the anti-racist (i.e. anti-Aryan) argument is not only illogical and intellectually dishonest, but it epitomizes Jew/liberal hypocrisy in general.

The Aryan Race Is Real and Unique

Indeed, the Aryan Race is REAL. It is divided into three main branches: North Aryan (or Nordic), Central Aryan (or Alpine), and South Aryan (or Mediterranean). These types correspond roughly to the Jarls, Karls and Thralls – the three castes described in the Norse poem, Rigsthula. Each branch will now be described in detail.

The North Aryans are native to all of Northern Europe, the British Isles and the Baltic littoral. Physically they are tall and long-headed (i.e. dolichocephalic) with a narrow face and thin nose; the jaw is angular and the chin “clear-cut.” The Nordic facial features are thus often described as being “bird-like.” As for skin tone, the Nordic is rosy and fair. The hair texture ranges from smooth and straight to wavy, and hair color varies but is most frequently light to dark blond. Eye color is typically light.

Historically, the Nordic element has formed a clear majority within the aristocratic and warrior classes of all great Aryan cultures. Nordic genes have also produced the greatest number of cultural geniuses, scientists and pioneering men of valor. It is no wonder that soon after coming into contact with the warlike Germanic tribes, Roman emperors (who presided over a racially depleted population) soon began filling their legions with these tall, powerfully built “blond beasts.” In no time at all, the emperors recognized that even the German peasants possessed an abundance of organizational genius, in addition to their conspicuous physical strength.³⁷

Needless to say, the Roman upper classes must have known, by way of Blood Memory, that the Germanic peoples were a purer version of themselves, as all of the surviving marble busts of the pre-imperial Patricians indicate a collective origin north of the Alps – which is to say, an origin that is neither “Mediterranean” nor “Alpine” but unmistakably Nordic.

Of course, Nordic Man’s aristocratic and warlike Spirit would survive the decline and fall of the Western Roman Empire. It would go on to sustain, rejuvenate and strengthen the fledgling Western Civilization, as well as protect it from all Asiatic and African attacks. By the late nineteenth century this same Nordic Spirit would be responsible for uplifting the Aryan Race to the point of world mastery. Unfortunately, the eternal Enemy had already spread his treacherous tentacles far and wide throughout the body of the Race, thus thwarting the plans of Nature and everything noble... at least, for a time.

Now on to the Central Aryans, or as they are more commonly referred to, the “Alpines.” This subgroup is medium to short in stature, stocky, brachycephalic (i.e. broad-headed) and brunet in its overall physical makeup, though not typically as brunet as the South Aryan type. Other typical characteristics include: a short and thick neck; broad and high forehead; brow ridges moderate to very pronounced; nose is broad and fleshy (mesorrhine), sometimes described as “blobby”; cheeks are fleshy and thus do not usually appear very broad due to the matching roundness of head shape; jaws are square in thinner-faced types; well-developed chin, either pointed or bilateral; lips are somewhere between the fullness of the South Aryan and the thinness of the North Aryan. It has also been observed that Central Aryans tend to have greater beard and body hair than their Southern and Northern counterparts.

Historically, the Central Aryans have yielded a wide variety of types from hardy peasants to skilled craftsmen. As for their geographic range, the Central Aryans are native to the vast middle zone of the European continent, running between Northern Italy and central Germany, and from France to the Ural Mountains. As this type progresses from France in the west, eastward across Europe, its geographic range widens. Generally speaking, the Central Aryan predominates everywhere in Europe except along the shores of the Mediterranean and Baltic seas. The origin of the Central Aryan subgroup has never been definitively agreed upon by scholars. However, it is probable that they developed out of an older Upper Paleolithic population in Europe, and then proceeded to spread both east and west along the great North Eurasian Plain.

Finally, we come to the South Aryans who are most commonly found in Europe's southernmost peninsulas and islands. This type predominates in Spain, Portugal, Southern Italy, Greece, southern France, and in all the islands of the Mediterranean (hence the term most frequently used to describe them).

Physically, the South Aryans are long-headed, of moderate stature, with a tendency towards a gracile build. Hair color is overwhelmingly brunet and can range in texture from smooth and straight to curly. Eye color is also typically dark, and skin tone can range from considerably fair to olive. The South Aryan skull is smooth, with small brow ridges and mastoids; the face is either narrow or oval, and the chin pointed. Nose form can vary considerably, ranging from very straight tipped to aquiline. Broad noses are not rare in the Mediterranean region; however, the typical South Aryan nose is somewhat thin with either a straight or convex tip. Historically, the South Aryan group has produced the majority of Europe's manual laborers and merchants.

As for the so-called Dinaric and East Baltic subgroups (popularized in the writings of various anthropologists), these represent mixtures of the three foundational Aryan types. The Dinaric comprises a Central/South Aryan combination, and the East Baltic constitutes a Central/North admixture. Thus they cannot be classified appropriately as “main branches” of the Aryan species.

As already stated: the Aryan Race, as a whole, constitutes one of the three major divisions of mankind – the other two being the Mongoloid and Negroid races. The qualitative uniqueness of the Aryan Race in both its mind and body, intellect and aesthetics, and thus in its high capacity for creative/cultural genius cannot be denied – especially when compared to the general unproductivity of the Mongoloids and Negroids.

Whereas the insular Mongoloid is known for his great scholastic ability in mimicking Aryan culture, technology, science, politics and technics, the Negroid is known only for his abject and total primitivism. Truly, even the common halfwit can understand that the Aryan Race cannot be denied its glaring preeminence on this planet when compared to the other lesser races. Hence, the terms “Civilization” and “World History” only possess true meaning when they are used to convey Aryan genius and Aryan achievements.

A testament to the biological uniqueness of the Aryan Race is its true diversity of color – yes... color. Constantly the mainstream media projects the blatant falsehood that non-Aryans are “people of color.” If in fact that were true, then non-Aryans would not be limited in their varying degrees of dark skin, dark eyes, and dark hair. Aryans on the other hand possess all shades of skin, eye and hair color excepting, of course, the very dark. For example, Aryans possess skin tones ranging from ivory and pinkish-white to tannish-white, eye colors from the lightest blue to dark brown, and hair colors from ash-blond to black.

These facts notwithstanding, it is the blanket negritude of the earth’s non-Aryan majority that is paradoxically touted by the Jew-controlled media to be “exotic” or somehow “rare” or even “endangered,” and thus “valuable.” In reality, darkness is all too typical, bland, and worthless as approximately 95 percent of the world’s population is non-Aryan. Hence the greatest confirmation of the Aryan’s biological uniqueness can be found among the true blond (i.e. Nordic) segment of the Race, whose total numbers comprise less than 1 percent of the world’s total population. This naturally begs the question: Which of the earth’s biological families is truly exotic, not to mention most valuable, when taking into consideration all of the civilizational achievements that that 1 percent has made for all mankind?

At the same time, it should be understood that although the Aryan species today possesses a diverse range of skin tones, this was not always the case. Thousands of years ago, long before the Christian era, the Aryan Race was much more uniform in its pigmentation and body structure. The skin was generally lighter and the shape of the head was less broad. We can easily discern these facts by observing the artwork of our ancestors in addition to reading the works of the modern anthropologists and scientists who have studied the physical remains of the Aryans. In this regard, scientists have already found conclusive genetic evidence supporting the long-held (though “politically incorrect”) belief that the original Proto-Indo-Europeans (PIEs) were all of the Nordic racial type. An impartial study published in the January-February 2013 issue of Heritage & Destiny found that a good 60 percent of PIE skeletal specimens studied would have had light hair and either blue or green eyes when they were alive.³⁸

Another quite obvious testament to the genetic whiteness of our Aryan ancestors is the way in which they portrayed their archetypal deities. The heroic gods of the various Indo-European religions, and certainly those described in the Homeric poems, are consistently portrayed as beings of the utmost beauty with ivory skin, golden blond hair, and blue or gray eyes. The Greco-Roman, Norse and Celtic gods were all described in like manner. Even in the Christian tradition the “angels,” without exception, possess noticeably fair features.

Furthermore, when one investigates the oldest of historical records it becomes glaringly obvious that the original Aryans – literally the “Noble Ones” in Sanskrit – possessed fine features and fair or white skin, unlike today’s fully mongrelized East Indians.³⁹ The oldest known Aryan texts to date, the Vedas, point to a Northern (even Arctic!) origin for the Indo-Aryans. For conclusive proof of this, one should read The Arctic Home in the Vedas (1903) by the renowned Indian scholar Bal Gangadhar Tilak. And indeed, when studying the Vedic texts, one will certainly discover that the color white represents cleanliness, purity, beauty and nobility. Essentially, white represents everything that was best about the tall fair-skinned conquering Aryans themselves. Thus caste and color were inseparably linked.

Likewise, in ancient Greece and Rome the color white represented the same aristocratic virtues. Hence the pure white togas of the Nordic-Roman (Patrician) nobility, and the imperious white marble architecture of the Greco-Roman world (to be resurrected, of course, by the Third Reich).

³⁹ Truly, there is nothing “Aryan” about the vast majority of living Hindus. They simply speak a variety of bastardized languages that stem from the ancient Aryan-Sanskrit root, and practice a corrupted, highly ritualized form of the ancient Indo-Aryan religion.

When the Romans brought the first Germanic captives back to the Imperial Capital, the swarthy Roman women were so struck by the captives' beauty that they hurriedly bought blonde wigs, often made from the hair of the captives themselves, or else they dyed their locks. They even began using white chalk to lighten their faces. The Roman historian Tacitus expounded at great length on how he believed that the people of Germania comprised the purest and noblest race in the world – a blond, light-skinned Nordic people not unlike the original Roman patrician class that had degenerated progressively over time. Of the ancient Germanii, Tacitus wrote:

For myself, I accept the view of those who think that the peoples of Germania have never been tainted by intermarriage with other nations, and stand out as a race distinctive, pure and unique of its kind. Hence the physical type, if one may generalize about so vast a population, is everywhere the same – wild blue eyes, reddish hair and huge frames that excel only in violent effort.⁴⁰

Such a view (or “bias” as some might call it) is by no means unique to the ancient Roman mindset. In countless other cultures of the Old World, from ancient times to our own, tall blond, fair-skinned warriors are always portrayed as the founders and maintainers of Aristocracy. In the Nordic tradition, specifically in the ⁴⁰ Tacitus. Agricola and Germania, trans. Harold Mattingly, rev. J. B. Rives (London: Penguin Books, 2009), p. 36.

Eddas and Rigsthula, those of noble birth were called Jarls – warrior aristocrats who fought, hunted, indulged in sport, and performed no kind of economic-driven task. Moreover, the Jarls were always depicted as tall, lean, and flaxen-haired with piercing blue eyes. The thralls, in contrast, were the servile ones (the slave class) always depicted as short, dark and homely.

To this day, the association of one's social class with one's color is firmly lodged in the collective unconscious (i.e. genetic memory) of all Aryans, with the fairest or "whitest" features still considered to be the noblest and thus the most highly valued. Perhaps Dr. William Z. Ripley – the long-deceased professor of political economy at Harvard – explained it best in his landmark work The Races of Europe (1899):

Is there any doubt that where, as in our own Southern States, two races are socially divided from one another, the superior would do all in his power to eliminate any traces of physical similarity to the menial negroes? Might not the Roman nose, light hair and eyes, and all those prominent traits which distinguish the master from the slave, play an important part in constituting an ideal of beauty which would become highly effective in the course of time?⁴¹

Needless to say, there is also an opposition to Aryan beauty that stands in its way, as its antithesis. And that is: blackness, negritude, darkness, ugliness. Today, there is literally a power of Darkness which is descending upon the entire Aryan World – a power manifesting itself through the perverse dogmas of liberalism, multiracialism and Globalization. It is by no means a coincidence that these perverse dogmas are propagated relentlessly by the Jews and tailor made for the sub-human masses of the Third World. It is this combined spiritual-racial-cultural-political-economic-social Darkness that Aryan Man must face and defeat if he is to exist in the coming centuries.

CHAPTER EIGHT

Parasites versus Producers

“The things that are valued by the creative Aryan peoples have been reduced by the Jew to the level of a mere piece of merchandise, which he buys and sells but cannot produce himself. He leaves production to the laborers and peasants of the people upon whom he has imposed his presence. The Jews are a race without farmers and without manual laborers, a race of parasites.” – The Eternal Jew (1940)

When one studies the races of man, it becomes immediately apparent that there exists a natural hierarchy among them – hence, a racial hierarchy. When one studies the racial hierarchy, it becomes clear that there are two distinctive and opposing camps which represent the innate characteristics of the races – the Parasite camp and the Producer camp.

The Parasite camp is defined by its inability to produce anything of substance on its own – thus its absolute need to prey on a host population of Producers. The Parasites include among their ranks all those races and individuals who gain in life not by conquering, but by begging, mooching and somehow appealing to the material interests of the Producer class. If we were to compare the Parasites to a specific biological organism, we can call them ticks, since they gain only by feeding on the blood and sweat (i.e. labor and productivity) of the host population. By their very nature, Parasites give back nothing positive to society.

Producers, on the other hand, are decidedly wolfish. Their camp includes the natural Aristocrats of this earth: the conquerors, the go-getters, the masters of their own destinies, those who subject others to an uncompromising Iron Will. Producers produce. They never look for a handout nor ask for a “free” anything, but are always ready to earn and, if need be, to take. Even so, there is a code of chivalry among these Producer “wolves” – for they must know how to operate within the confines of their pack. Outside of the pack, however, they are as cold and ruthless as any of Nature’s Laws.

Thus, Producers do not care a damn about any supposed “Judeo-Christian” value. They merely act as the honest pups of Mother Nature, monopolizing on every opportunity before them. For the Producer, Life is synonymous with Conquest, and Life’s greatest joy is in Overcoming all obstacles. To the Parasite, life is an ignominious existence of perpetual handouts.

It should be said in all fairness that, on the individual level, there exist Parasites and Producers within all races and peoples, all across the globe. Every group has its majority underclass on the one hand and its minority “chiefs” on the other. It cannot be denied, however, that Parasites are more abundant in certain groups and Producers more prolific in certain others. By far, the Parasite camp contains the greatest number of races, and also the greatest number of individuals of all races. Producers, in contrast, are always and everywhere in the minority.

Certainly the average Negro – who is nothing more than an unofficial ward of the state – is the quintessential embodiment of the free-ride Parasite. For everywhere he goes, he is begging and pleading with his Host and former Master for a free meal – for housing, food stamps, “reparations,” special rights, government protection, “affirmative action,” and tokenism of all kinds. The democratic system was tailor-made for such a failed individual.

Naturally then, the Negro’s values reflect his parasitical status. He seeks nothing but to eat, drink, mooch, copulate and drug himself into oblivion; self-pleasure with no responsibility is, above all, his primary focus. The thoroughly patronizing and hypocritical morality lessons he receives, in the form of sermons from his church and campaign promises from his political bosses, all serve to augment his already coddled position. Even though the United States can now boast of having twice elected a mulatto president, the American Negro is in a more subservient position than ever before. The two-term presidency of that half-white halfwit, Obama, does nothing but confirm the age-old maxim that “every tribe has its chief.”

As pertains to the Jews, much has obviously been said about this group's aggressive demeanor, particularly in the field of economics. And it is true, there is a strong wolfish element existing within the Jewish people which guides the collective body in its ultimate aim of destroying the Host Culture. However, one must understand the historically proven method by which the Jews have attained their lofty status.

First of all, by their very nature, Jews are parasitical – borrowing, extorting, swindling, mimicking their way to success wherever they go. Jews themselves cannot create anything of intrinsic beauty and value; they can only plagiarize, distort and destroy the creative work of others. In fact, they can only exist (and then thrive) by utilizing – nay, bastardizing – the creative capacities of other races, namely the Aryan Race, the same way vampires can only survive by drinking the blood of their victims. Jews are thus incapable of being classified as a Producer race. The Eternal Führer made this clear when he stated the following:

Because of the lack of productive capacities of its own, the Jewish people...needs the work and creative activities of other nations. Thus the existence of the Jew himself becomes a parasitical one within the lives of other peoples. Hence the ultimate goal of the Jewish struggle for existence is the enslavement of productively active peoples.⁴²

Historically, it is very interesting that for thousands of years Jews have consistently been described as nothing more than a motley gaggle of religious fanatics, cultural pariahs, and economic Parasites. Without exception, all of the great civilizations of the past – including Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Persia, Greece, Rome, Medieval Europe – ALL concluded that Jews were worth mentioning only for their naturally disruptive nature, their mercantile acumen, and their penchant for usurious moneylending, which is to say, economic fraud. As for the desolate region whence they came, all of the great Cultures recognized Judea/Palestine for what it was: an insignificant backwater.

With the fall of Rome and the rise of the post-Classical Western Culture, Jews were increasingly herded into cramped urban quarters by royal decree of the various European monarchs. The so-called “Wandering Jew” became the dwarfish, disease-prone Ghetto Jew with whom we are all familiar, to this day still inhabiting the “chosen” sections of Paris, London, Amsterdam, Rome and countless other European cities. Deprived of any role in Medieval politics and severely punished whenever he stepped out of line, this Jew focused all his energy on economic and religious matters, skillfully fusing the two, and forever coordinating his revenge against his Western oppressors.

Eventually the Ghetto Jew yielded three archetypal kinds of Jew which we are all familiar with today: the modern economic swindler, the Torah scholar and the social critic. The first kind, the swindler, is self-explanatory and undoubtedly the most common type of Jew. The Torah scholar is also self-explanatory, as this type focuses all his energy on religious matters, particularly with regard to Mosaic law and the Talmud. The social critic is one who is a little more tricky, as he devotes himself entirely to distorting and destroying the Host Culture he infests. A number of observers have termed this latter type a “secular scholar,” however I do not find that to be a befitting term. “Social critic” is more appropriate since, even if it is not admitted outright, this type of Jew is still working in the interests of Judaism/Zionism, i.e. his racial-religious dogma, by disrupting the Gentile social order with the ultimate purpose of advancing the “Chosen” People, Nation and State-within-a-state.

To advance his Jew-supremacist agenda, the Jew must do a bit of “shape-shifting” every so often. He must take the contrarian point of view of the social critic and, from that point, attack the host society on every possible level. (In this way, the Jew acts more like a deadly virus than even a parasite.) This well contrived super-cynical strategy of the Jew – deeply rooted in his own malignant, anti-productive nature – is precisely why (as Dr. William Luther Pierce pointed out): “he is a republican in a monarchist society, a capitalist in a corporate society, a communist in a capitalist society, a liberal ‘dissident’ in a communist society – and, always and everywhere, a cosmopolitan and a race mixer in a homogeneous society.”⁴³

It is important for the reader to understand that all three kinds of Jew – the economic swindler, the religious fanatic, and the social critic – are intensely aggressive if not wolfish. The fact that they have been permitted, for the past two centuries, to be aggressive (to further their fifth and sixth column agendas) within the Western nations clearly demonstrates how an isolated population of parasitical dogs can effectively be bred into wolves. Quite frankly, the West created the Jewish monster, and for its liberality in neglecting its own wolfish tendencies, the West has and shall continue to suffer the consequences.

For the past two centuries, democracy has permitted the Jewish Parasite to ride on the back of the self-mutilated (and thus enfeebled) Western Wolf, until at last a Wolf had also been created in the Jew. Now one Wolf is young and vital, while the other is old and sickly. At the same time, other young wolves are in the process of being born in the East, particularly in China and India. Add to this the many “minority” wolves that are deliberately being created within the Western nations – the Muslims, the blacks, the mestizos, etc. – and the old Western Wolf (she who suckled the Tiber twins in her youth) is slowly dying.

Democracy, liberalism, Materialism, negative altruism in the form of Third World charity, Globalization – these bogus philosophies constitute the vital food-supply (the very lifeblood) that is so desperately needed for the continued existence of the non-Aryan Parasites. Without these ideologies, enabled paradoxically only via the goodwill of the Aryan, the Parasites would be cut off from their major food source, they would no longer be able to feed and they would thus quickly vanish.

By doing away with the current anti-Natural system, by finally destroying the Parasites which he is foolishly permitting to attack him, the Aryan Producer-Wolf shall restore himself to good health, to his old preeminent status as Predator par excellence. But it cannot be stressed enough: First, the old system must go!

CHAPTER NINE

EUGENICS

“The Aryan seeks perfection in his race and people.” – James L. Battersby

If one takes an honest look at all of the various complex problems facing the modern world – and the Aryan Race in particular – it becomes crystal clear that there is a tremendous need for eugenics. In other words: there is a pressing need to bring a better quality of human beings into the world.

The current quantitative degeneracy – the sheer sub-humanism which exists in every corner of the planet – did not appear spontaneously, as if by magic. It was the result of one successive victory of Culture Distortion after another; one triumph of the Materialist cult of quantity after another. Its first great victory, it can be argued, came in 1789 – and certainly the most pivotal came in 1945.

Today’s postmodern “globalist” world is nothing other than the manifestation of the victorious Materialist worldview. It is a system and an ideology which emanates from the filthy minds of those who ought to have been sterilized and quarantined from the rest of society long ago. If eugenics policy had been implemented on a wide enough scale before Western Culture had reached its zenith, things today would certainly be a lot different.

During the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, the United States led the way in eugenics and was the envy of the civilized world. Even Adolf Hitler had studied American eugenics policy in the 1920s and lamented how backward the Weimar regime was in this field. American states such as Connecticut, Indiana, Washington, California and North Carolina led the way in the sterilization of all kinds of societal reprobates and in preventing the genetically unfit from getting married, thus hindering their ability to reproduce in an era which already placed great cultural restraints on premarital sex.

Pro-eugenics organizations sprouted up all over the U.S. during the early years of the last century, garnering massive popular support among average, everyday Americans. As a result, steady legislative gains were made throughout the first three decades of the twentieth century – gains which also influenced a number of other Western nations to follow suit. All positive gains ceased, however, after the defeat of Western Civilization in 1945.

With the victory of Jewish Capital came a relentless propaganda campaign, via the media and academia, against the completely moral and natural science of eugenics. By the time the official narrative of the “Holocaust” came out, the subject of eugenics was forever banned from public discourse. In the name of “humanity” (or rather sub-humanity) the Jews and their leftist henchmen – all advocates of mass mediocrity, the promoters of all things weak, runtish and degenerate – had successfully equated eugenics with mass-murder. And of course the miniscule minds of the gullible herd bought it.

In reality, there is no connection whatsoever between eugenics and mass-murder. While eugenics is intent on preserving Life, so as to see it developed to the absolute highest degree, mass-murder is intent on destroying Life. And while eugenics has historically been implemented by a variety of nations and has successfully produced some of the healthiest populations the world has ever seen (such as the ancient Spartans and Germanic peoples), mass-murder was the defining characteristic of all dysgenic leftist regimes – from Communist Russia and China, to Pol Pot’s Cambodia, and the hundreds of millions of deaths caused by leftist revolution all over Asia, Africa and Latin America.

Actual atrocities, however, mean nothing to the heartless Enemy we are up against. Such an immoral adversary merely focuses his outrage on alleged atrocities committed by “evil Nazis” (i.e. Germans) who were actually in the midst of a war for their Nation’s very survival against both foreign and domestic enemy combatants – and on all fronts! Yet the anti-eugenic crowd persists in utilizing words such as “liquidation” and “genocide” in order to silence all debate and infuse their arguments with unwarranted emotionality.

But make no mistake about it: the totally defensive actions which the Third Reich certainly did take against its enemies had absolutely nothing to do with genocide. To be clear, the imprisonment of national traitors is not an act of genocide; the execution of dangerous enemy combatants is not an act of genocide; the encouraging of millions of undesirable enemy-aliens to leave the nation is not an act of genocide. In reality, such defensive measures fall well within the realm of eugenics. Yet the anti-eugenics mob, in their rabid attack on civilization, make no distinction here. Consequently, their brand of emotionally charged propaganda has won out... for the time being.

Thankfully, the strict demands of Natural Selection, of High Culture, of Destiny itself, do not make any superficial compromise with such unabashed Culture-distortion. Eugenics is needed in this world, today more than ever – and it will be implemented.

With all the present talk of a coming post-Faustian era where computers will finally outsmart and out-compete man, it is essential that we do not surrender ourselves to the advanced artificial intelligence that we created – in the same way that Dr. Frankenstein created and ultimately fell victim to his monster. Instead of programming smarter non-biological technology, we must begin programming ourselves to be smarter, stronger and better. We must begin to strengthen and enhance our genes with superhuman capabilities, infusing all that is wise, healthy and strong; discarding all that is weak and unnecessary.

The mystic forces of Creation stop for nothing and no one. Eugenics is merely man's scientific ability to help advance and expedite the progressive work of the higher elements of Creation. As of the writing of this book, we possess both the knowledge and the ability to accomplish our task. And with each passing month and year, our knowledge and ability increase exponentially. It is therefore only a matter of time before all mendacity on this topic ceases, thereby enabling the great New Age to commence.

The great positive effects of eugenics (and euthenics) on the total hygiene of a population (racially, culturally, morally, politically, etc.) can be demonstrated by no greater historical example than that of colonial America. The average person today cannot possibly imagine the courage it took for the old settler stock to migrate from their warm homes and stable lifestyles in Northwest Europe to the savage wilderness of the New World. And yet, the majority of these settlers migrated not on account of any intolerable persecution (religious or otherwise), as the history books so often romanticize, but typically to claim large tracts of land on which to raise their families. This spiritually anti-communist desire of theirs – for family, property and personal freedom – continued for the next three centuries, after the initial settling of the Jamestown and Plymouth colonies, pushing the frontier of Aryan Civilization ever westward.

The type of person it took to tame the North American continent was strong-willed, rugged, independent and physically virile – the type who built settlements that soon turned into cities, and farmed virgin soils with a plow in one hand and a musket in the other. The type of person it took to settled the New World was truly a superior individual. In contrast, the weak-willed puny types typically never left the Old Continent, preferring to live out their days in the squalid yet familiar conditions of the overcrowded cities.

Thus, by the time of the American War of Independence, for nearly two centuries natural selection produced a colonial population that was physically sound, spiritually and morally upright, homogeneous in race and culture, highly literate, accustomed to local self-governance, and thus well-suited to the natural rigors of implementing and maintaining a continent-wide republic. So competent was the Founding Generation of American leaders that not since the time of Plato and Aristotle has there been a single era which produced more geniuses. And like ancient Athens, America's total population in the Age of Washington was miniscule, comprising no more than 3 million Whites, as of the 1790 census.

Can the current United States, whose population is exactly 100 times larger and infinitely more “diverse,” claim nearly as many geniuses as were alive two centuries ago? Can the current United States actually claim any political or philosophical geniuses among its 300 million-strong citizenry?

Hence the qualitative victory of late eighteenth century America over our present quantitative age. And the author is by no means the first to recognize this contrast. As Lothrop Stoddard so eloquently stated in his 1920 classic, The Rising Tide of Color Against White World-Supremacy:

When peoples come to realize that the quality of the population is the source of all their prosperity, progress, security, and even existence; when they realize that a single genius may be worth more in actual dollars than a dozen gold-mines, while, conversely, racial decline spells material impoverishment and decay; when such things are really believed, we shall see much-abused “eugenics” actually moulding social programmes and political policies.⁴⁴

That in every Culture a small percentage of exceptionally endowed human beings have provided the brains for the larger body of the Organism is a fact recognized by all. Yet it must also be recognized that each great Culture has had its own unique system of regulating and removing cancerous growths which, if left unchecked, would eventually spread causing the death of the entire Body, including the Brain.

From the Indo-Aryan Laws of Manu, to the Spartan rejection of defective infants, to the virile Roman maxim “mens sana in corpore sano,” great Cultures remained great for precisely as long as they rejected the proliferation of degenerate types. This rejection was enshrined in the legal codes of such Cultures, and therefore represented an early form of eugenics policy. The incorrect notion that eugenics is somehow “inhumane” is perhaps the greatest lie of the modern era. As Hitler wrote in Mein Kampf:

The demand that defective people be prevented from propagating equally defective offspring is a demand of the clearest reason and if systematically executed represents the most humane act of mankind. It will spare millions of unfortunates undeserved sufferings, and consequently will lead to a rising improvement of health as a whole.⁴⁵

Failure to regulate the proliferation of degenerate types in our modern world – a world which prizes all things diseased, defective and decadent – is the absolute summit of stupidity. Moreover, this form of stupidity is ultimately cataclysmic for the human species because it is totally against Nature.

⁴⁵ Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf, trans. Ralph Manheim (Boston: Houghton Mifflin Company, 1943), p. 255.

In the Natural world, weak individual organisms perish in order for the collective species to remain healthy and thus thrive. Continuing to force an ever-dwindling minority of Biological Aristocrats (i.e. Aryans) to provide their intellects, resources and generated wealth for the benefit of the earth's limitless supply of unproductive derelicts (i.e. untermenschen) represents the summit of injustice as it relates to Nature's fundamental Laws – the only Laws worth respecting in this corrupted world of man-made hypocritical values.

Negative altruism,⁴⁶ in league with liberalism, Marxism, Judeo-Christianity, welfarism, so-called “philanthropy” – all these inorganic Materialist dogmas are in fact derivatives of each other, as they contribute equally to the appreciation of all things weak and sickly, while at the same time condemning the strong and the healthy, i.e. those capable of maintaining High Culture. Such perverse doctrines arise whenever there is an internal Materialist-derived crisis within a Culture – thus, they are not a mere “part” of the problem, they are the problem. Eugenics is the solution!

If Nature is our guide, then the summit of Wisdom for man is a mountain peak called Eugenics. Without eugenics man will remain a potential genius who yet lacks a brain! Without an effective eugenics policy man is useless, an animal without a purpose, self-cancelling, a pitiful monstrosity.

In the coming IMPERIUM the field of eugenics shall occupy a very special, even sacred place – a vertex where science and spirituality converge. Eugenic policy shall reflect the mission of High Culture itself; harsh to the weak-minded, yet the very epitome of humaneness to those of vision.

After all the undesirables have been deported from the IMPERIUM, IQ testing shall be institutionalized and made compulsory. The test shall be administered to all Whites equally; and one need only take this test once in their lifetime. Those who score abnormally low, as judged by a panel of experts, shall be sterilized so as to prevent the spread of their defective genes throughout society. For it is a well-established fact: people who have a lower level of intelligence also tend to have more offspring. This trend will be reversed!

Likewise, all convicted felons and “repeat offenders” shall undergo mandatory sterilization. Many in this category will also be subjected to extensive genetic research in order to pinpoint their defective genes and rid them from the racial commonwealth. Thence, in only a couple of generations, crime and criminality will be conquered – not by means of useless acts and edicts or even by execution, but through the implementation of scientific wisdom. Lastly, all bungled and botched individuals shall be euthanized at birth.

It must now be stressed, so as to prevent any misunderstanding: the elderly and those who are living with a disability shall NOT be affected by the State's euthanasia program. It has long been a favorite smear tactic of the anti-eugenics crowd to portray the disabled and the elderly as the two main victims of state-sponsored euthanasia. This is a deliberate lie intended to deceive people as to the true and humane mission of rationally applied eugenics.

The three main groups that will be prevented from further degrading the Sacred Gene Pool of the Race are: violent and habitual criminals, the mentally ill, and genetic mutants. These types will be sectioned off and prevented from spreading their defective genes. Non-Aryans, race-traitors and sexual deviants are not mentioned since, upon their deportation, they will never again have the opportunity to mix with Aryans. Each succeeding generation shall therefore come to breed ever healthier levels of Aryan Life.

Thus shall all “Whites” advance to the Aryan – and indeed EHREAN – stage of development, and from there to the Infinite Beyond, ever higher in our steady evolutionary progression; not only toward Godhood, but toward an ever greater physical and spiritual refinement of Godhood Itself. All the while, the sacred-scientific field of eugenics – endorsed by the State and protected by the Iron Will of a resurrected Elite – will be there to prevent our development from falling off course.

This is why we must make it a primary concern of the IMPERIUM to implement a eugenics program that seeks, as its greatest Goal, to preserve and increase the number of White Aryans in this world. We must never forget the wise words of the Führer when he stated: “[T]he highest aim of human existence is not the preservation of a state, let alone a government, but the preservation of the species.”⁴⁷

But alas! As of the writing of this work, the scientific community in the Jew-controlled West is seriously considering the resurrection of the Neanderthals through cloning!⁴⁸ Hence the same old liberal quest to aim down, down, down, lower, lower, lower... mass mediocrity the final goal of all. Meanwhile the dumbing down of our youth continues unchecked. Eugenics is the only answer!

In closing this chapter, I must cite one of the 20th century’s leading eugenics advocates, Harvard Professor Earnest A. Hooton – from his 1939 book Twilight of Man:

If man can make machines which are better than himself, cannot he make himself better? We do not need more automobiles, we need fewer fools in the driving seats; we do not want mechanical robots, we want human animals who still have brains; not more jails, but fewer criminals; not perfected weapons of war, but peace. The gorilla can manipulate human tools, but he uses them destructively. There is but one way of making a man, and that is the biological way. There can be no stability of civilization when the human biped totters, and he cannot be propped effectively by law, by education, by religion, or even by mechanical inventions. Breed better animals by selection and elimination of the inferior; study the transmission of those organic capabilities stored up by our species through the millions of years... You will then conclude that it is man who makes the tools, and that only men, not morons or apes, may use them for the betterment of humanity.⁴⁹

CHAPTER TEN

The IDEA on Various Issues

The Death Penalty

As one could doubtless perceive from the last chapter, the IDEA is not at all pro-death, but pro-life – in so far as this latter term is fitted to accommodate the total advancement of the Aryan species. Thus, we proponents of the IDEA do not relish the prospect of dishing out capital punishment. We do not want to employ draconian methods of punishment. We only want to penalize offenders in proportion to the crimes they have committed and simultaneously work toward the creation of a crime free society.

We will not abandon reason, nor evade our duty to serve justice. To be sure, capital punishment will be employed for capital offenses. As long as there are murderers in society, there will be executioners ready to put them to death; as long as there are rapists in society, the State will be ready to castrate them. An “eye for an eye” shall be the cornerstone of our future legal code.

After the IMPERIUM repatriates all non-Whites to their various lands of genetic origin, there will be a noticeable plunge in violent crime throughout the Western World. This will especially be true in the absence of Negroes. Wherever Negroes had thrived in large numbers (e.g. London, Paris, New York, Detroit) the local locksmiths will simply go out of business! Likewise, the majority of our Western prisons – which are, at present, merely “holding pens” for non-Whites – shall be virtually empty once the great burden is sent packing back to the jungle.

This leaves only a small minority of White Aryan felons remaining behind bars, some of whom would still be scheduled to die for the murders they committed previous to the founding of the IMPERIUM. All cases will be re-opened and a specially formed judiciary will be appointed by the IMPERIUM Elite to judge each case. When the judiciary rules that an incarcerated Aryan is either innocent or has killed someone in self-defense or killed any number of non-Whites, then the incarcerated will be freed and their record expunged of all guilt. However, those who are found to have killed one or more fellow Whites for any reason other than self-defense or racial treason will be executed.

Thus, capital punishment will not be abolished. Those who deserve to be executed will be put to death, yet not before the State studies their DNA. All other incarcerated Whites will get the opportunity to have their cases reviewed by specially appointed judges. However, those who are truly found guilty of their crimes will become little more than “lab rats” in the prison system, perpetually subjected to rigorous genetic testing.

Once we unlock the secrets behind the “violent criminal gene” – and we are thus able to breed a superior quality of people – violent crimes will completely vanish from our society. Also vanishing will be the need to impose the death penalty. (This is just simple logic.) The death penalty will be done away with organically – not by useless acts and edicts, but by the total absence of sociopaths plaguing our society and Gene Pool.

In our genetic studies of the various kinds of criminals – from the petty thief to the serial killer – we shall learn which genes to expunge in the refinement of the Aryan species. Crime itself will become a thing of the past; criminals will no longer exist; criminality will survive only in text books, as a warning from the past about the negative socio-cultural effects of bad breeding.

Eventually, as the Golden Age of Krita Yuga unfolds, the need for the death penalty will seem as illogical to our descendants as the need for prisons or even a police force. Genetic advancement via eugenics will ensure that such a utopian future is possible.

Gun Laws

Upon the establishment of the IMPERIUM it will be legal for all adult citizens to own and carry firearms. Yet with this right comes the responsibility to know how to use firearms. A system similar to the Swiss

Home Defense Corps shall be implemented which educates and trains citizens in all aspects of self-defense and the martial arts.

That well-armed peoples have always prevailed over invading enemy armies is an historical fact. It is also a fact that so-called “gun control” laws only succeed in taking weapons out of the hands of the law-abiding, thereby preventing the lawful citizenry from defending itself against the criminal element which will always find ways of procuring or manufacturing firearms.

Let the reader make no mistake about it: Gun-control advocates are enemies of the people who “advocate” for a state of affairs wherein the law-abiding are perpetually at the mercy of a well-armed underclass.

Such a situation has plagued New York City for decades. The New York liberals have made sure that it is near-impossible for a law-abiding citizen to acquire a firearm simply on account of the rampant criminality among the trousered apes of Harlem and the city’s many other ghettos. The liberal political class and business elites would have us all believe that it is the gun itself that harms people, and not the trigger-finger and the brain behind the trigger-finger. (Materialist Rationalism at its zenith!)

I would like to ask the people of New York why it was that the black supremacist Colin Ferguson purchased his gun legally in California and decided to use it in New York City? The answer is obvious: Because every other White person in the American West is carrying a firearm. But in New York City, Whites are completely disarmed; they are fair game for other vicious, criminal races.

And who were the first to rush to Ferguson's defense after he killed six passengers in cold blood on the Long Island Rail Road? Two of the usual "Chosen" suspects: William Kunstler and Ron Kuby.

The insanity must end! The IMPERIUM shall guarantee that it does. For it is only the coming IMPERIUM, uniting the entire White World, that can save the White Race from its impending destruction. It is only this kind of IMPERIUM or Reich that is totally concerned with the best interests of the White Aryan Race. And certainly, the right to bear arms – and specifically firearms – is a necessary right for a free people and a lawful society.

False Intellectualism vs. Real Education

There is a false intellectualism that can be found on the campuses of most Western schools and universities – an intellectualism that is at the heart of all Materialist decay; an intellectualism that does not seek truth, but rather focuses all its energy on obscuring truth, while hiding behind a thin "academic" veil.

This intellectualism is synonymous with liberalism and cosmopolitanism. It is the natural ally of all inorganic, anarchic, Materialist creeds; and the enemy of all organic, structured, spiritual truths. False intellectualism – or what Francis P. Yockey described as the “raceless, rootless-intellectual attitude” – is naturally opposed to all truth seekers and truth-seeking regimes. As it was an enemy to the 16 Martyrs of the twentieth century, so also is it an enemy to us Free Spirits of the twenty-first.

Alongside other parasitical career paths, such as the ever-popular corporate swindler and political hack, the professional intellectual (or so-called “academic”) is today one of the most coveted occupations among college graduates. Of course, the Jews have monopolized all power in this field, just as they have in the economic and political realms due to their unrivaled prowess in the art of infiltration. But transitory power (such as the Jews hold) and true intellect are two different things.

In our coming IMPERIUM a true intellectual spirit shall be promoted by the Elite. There will be a dynamic fusion between Spirituality, Race, High Culture and Science in all our academic institutions. The student will not merely study one subject separate and isolated from the others, but shall be exposed to all subjects of study – to a fully integrated educational curriculum – and then organically acquire a special focus based on his performance level in a given area. This method will not merely produce true intellectuals, but true geniuses.

We of the IDEA understand that education is the key which liberates one from ignorance and also from being at the total mercy of others. Indeed, education is a wonderfully liberating tool that must be placed firmly in the hands of our children – the next generation of leaders, scientists, doctors, explorers, artists, etc. Unfortunately there is a great misconception regarding that which constitutes education – true education – and the manner in which it should be applied.

Throughout the Western World there is a long-standing belief that by simply cramming the heads of our children with information (mere facts), we shall turn out a generation of super-intelligent geniuses in all walks of life. This is a proven fallacy – and a blatant one! For the better part of the last century, our “great” educators have been promoting this untruth while at the same time producing an ever-increasing number of young idiots – a veritable army of morons!

The educators fail to realize the plain fact that genius is not taught, but inherited. Intelligence, like skin color, is a genetic characteristic inherited from one’s parents. As Madison Grant correctly put it:

Genius is produced, first and foremost, by race – social factors, education may play a deciding role in bringing the genius to the world’s attention, however, the mental traits of genius are as plainly inherited as the physical traits on the genius’ face.⁵⁰

⁵⁰ Grant, Madison. The Passing of the Great Race. New York: Charles Scribner’s Sons, 1916, pp. 85-86.

In the United States, the education problem is accentuated. For approximately 50 years there has been a policy of lowering standards in order to get as many children as possible to pass through the public-school system, from kindergarten to graduation. As in all other aspects of our Materialist-Democratic System, quantity is valued much more than quality. This policy forces the truly intelligent children to be constrained in their abilities, restricted and held back from achieving their innate potential.

Today in the United States, schoolchildren are showered with empty accolades for merely being able to pass basic geography – for being able to locate their own country on a map! High school students possessing fourth grade reading skills are graduating en masse. “Advanced Placement” English students do not know how to compose a simple business letter. College seniors are graduating without knowing the names of the original Thirteen Colonies. All this, while the smart kids (what’s left of them!) sit quietly in their seats, having learned to never flaunt their superior intelligence, to aim downward for the sake of mass mediocrity, to be tolerant of the dunces in their midst!

There are at least three generations of teachers who are products of this pitiful system – “teachers” who are complete morons themselves! Meanwhile, as the children of North America are getting stupider and stupider, business leaders are finding it necessary to import tens of thousands of unassimilable Asians each year to fill the so-called “high tech” positions in the fields of science and medicine. They come from India and Pakistan, China and Malaysia – they come to replace our beautiful young White children who have been mentally raped by the “wonderful” democratic system.

By now, it should be clear to all that the public-school system has failed. It must be abolished and tossed into the waste basket. Not one more cent should be robbed from U.S. taxpayers to support this derelict institution which can turn out nothing but future imbeciles (at best) and criminals (at worst).

On the other hand, we who support the IDEA shall create a school system that is as rigorous and intense as it is rewarding and fun. We shall implement a fully meritocratic system of education, which pushes the student to his maximum potential and then rewards him proportionally. In this kind of system an exciting program of study and physical activity will be actualized throughout the student’s entire scholastic career.

Students will become familiar with cutting edge sciences. They will enjoy a robust classics program where they will get to study the ancient Indo-European language(s) of their choice. They will be subjected to the doctrines and theories of all major philosophies; and of course, the natural superiority of the IDEA and its National Socialist antecedent will be explored in full. At every turn, students will be trained in an environment surrounded by High Culture.

Students will also indulge in physical sport and outdoor activities of all kinds and be encouraged to perfect their physical form. Indeed, this latter point shall never be stressed enough, as the success of the coming IMPERIUM requires – nay, demands! – a population that possesses the brains of the Renaissance Masters, the bodies of their greatest works in marble, the souls of unrepentant Pagan martyrs, and the hearts of modern-day Viking warriors. Only thus, will the student finally learn what it truly means to be creative, healthy, dedicated, passionate and cultured – hence Aryan.

The above description of our future educational system is just a meager sample, a mere smattering of what the term “education” shall come to mean once the IMPERIUM is “up and running.” Above all, students will learn that the realms of science, art, eugenics and euthenics all comprise an integral, organic whole – and they will learn this before they even reach the university level!

By the time they graduate, students will be fully prepared for the university. They will be instilled with tremendous pride for their racial and cultural heritage. As the Führer informed us so many years ago:

The crown of the folkish state’s entire work of education and training must be to burn the racial sense and racial feeling into the instinct and the intellect, the heart and brain of the youth entrusted to it. No boy and no girl must leave school without having been led to an ultimate realization of the necessity and essence of blood purity.⁵¹

The Economy

Capitalist Globalization has wrought an unprecedented amount of suffering on the people of the world, in both poor and developed countries, and has engendered massive environmental destruction on a planetary scale. Under this liberal economic system par excellence, the world is made “flat,” non-hierarchical and chaotic, perfectly paralleling the democratic political structure.

In such a Materialist system, economics is neither a mere topic of study nor simply an institutional framework of a society’s generated wealth. Instead, economics is treated as the “divine spark” of all Creation. In the Global Capitalist worldview, money is man’s ultimate goal, and business his raison d’etre. Mankind exists purely for economics’ sake – to serve as the shackled slaves of the interest-accruing, extortionist, speculator gods of Wall Street; to be bought and sold and used as commodities, whenever, wherever. We of the IDEA do not subscribe to this bleak and meaningless conception of Life. We are not Global Capitalists.

⁵¹ Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf, trans. Ralph Manheim (Boston: Houghton Mifflin Company, 1943), p. 427.

We of the IDEA conceive of a competitive world in which nationalized economies provide firm foundations for stable societies and steady economic growth. A system in which the economy serves as a strong bulwark protecting a Culture, but is not the pinnacle of a Culture's aspirations as is believed in the modern world of Global Capitalism.

Rather, the economy is there to serve as a bed on which the physical body of the Race-Nation sleeps, under the Cultural roof of the Race-Nation's house. This is the proper analogy for the future economy of the IMPERIUM – an economy that exists to serve us (the Folk), and not vice versa.

The economic philosophy of the IMPERIUM is thus perfectly aligned to the spiritual, racial, cultural and political necessities – hence overarching Destiny – of the White Aryan Race. This philosophy and the system it generates can best be described as: Racial Protectionism⁵² – a mixed market economic system of racially homogeneous (White) workers, producers and entrepreneurs who are protected by the State from non-Aryan influences and all economic practices considered detrimental to the interests of the IMPERIUM, its Regions and its People.

⁵² It should be noted that Racial Protectionism is the very same economic philosophy that I promoted as “Folk Socialism” in my previous work. The only thing different is the name; yet the two are interchangeable. See: National Socialism: 30 Fundamental Truths for the Kämpfer of the 21st Century, chapter 24.

In other words, this is a system which will maintain a racially hygienic society where no citizen of the IMPERIUM will be exploited by devious economic means, and where all shall have an equal chance of success (the deciding factor being ambition). What one produces, one owns. The greater a worker's productivity, the greater his wealth. The current system of financial slavery will cease to exist. Unhindered economic growth will skyrocket under the new system, but among White Aryans only! This latter point is the key concept to our economic philosophy.

Never again will non-Aryans be able to use capital to exploit White Aryan workers. This is because non-Aryans will not be included in either our society or our economic system. It must be understood that, above all, the system of Racial Protectionism is race-conscious. This is an economic philosophy and system which provides nothing for those who are not White Aryan by race. Racial Protectionism is exclusive, and yes, it is racist.

This system is defined by the belief that all the products of the White Aryan's mind and labor, produced by him and through him, should naturally benefit the White Aryan only – and none else! When the IMPERIUM is established, all the Regions of the White World will only trade and deal amongst themselves; and never again will they transfer any of their non-perishable wealth to the uncivilized savage states of the Third World. All business dealings, investments, technological instruction, military cooperation, etc., shall cease between the White Aryan World and the non-White-Aryan World. This “hardline stance” is a fundamental prerequisite for any and all subsequent economic plans and actions effectuated by the IMPERIUM.

In the meantime, our first order of “business” must be to destroy the Global Capitalist system operating within our White nations – a system of high interest loans and legalized global racketeering. This inorganic and thoroughly immoral system must be destroyed by any means possible. Antithetical to the Laws of Nature, the Global Capitalist order does not reward individuals according to true worth or merit, but according to how fat one’s bank account is.

As we all know from recent history, when multi-billion-dollar corporations defraud workers out of their hard-earned paychecks and life-savings, such corporations are not only excused by the plutocratic government, but they are provided with even more stolen money, only this time it is taken directly from taxpayers! This is how Wall Street and the world’s richest banks and corporations are able to continue amassing their undeserved wealth. Global Capitalism is nothing more than plunder-ocracy, and so it must be destroyed and replaced with a more natural system.

Racial Protectionism is the only viable “Third Way” economic system that can defeat Global Capitalism and Marxism. In fact, it can defeat these two soulless, Materialist enemies precisely by combining the best features of both systems, thus picking up where National Socialist Germany left off. The following are only some of the key changes that will be made under the new system:

- The replacement of the current Gesellschaft system of horizontal-global exchange with a vertical, organic, hierarchical and merit-based Gemeinschaft system.
- A central banking system, and the nationalization of certain natural resources, utilities and vital industries.
- The abolition of interest and all forms of usury, and the issuing of debt-free and interest-free money.
- A 10 percent flat rate VAT (value-added tax) and the abolition of income and property taxes.
- The phasing out of all work related to wage-slave Capitalism, especially in those industries which require veritable armies of labor, as one finds in large manufacturing plants and the giant “agribusinesses.” To accomplish our task, we must mechanize all production in these fields by robotic means, making absolutely certain that at all times we are in control of the machines.⁵³

- The outlawing of Marxist-controlled “labor unions,” which are actually communist guilds of extortion that prevent working people from attaining better wages and working conditions. These foul, vampiric syndicates only care about one thing: enriching themselves on the blood of the working class!

Hopefully the reader can deduce from the above bullet points that Racial Protectionism is against both the unproductivity of the Marxist system and the usurious nature of Global Capitalism. Most of all, it should be clear that neither system is race-conscious; in fact, they don’t value race at all. Where Marxism values the multiracial “brotherhood of man,” Global Capitalism values nothing but the unbridled hoarding of wealth.

Both Marxist-inspired miscegenation and Global Capitalist greed work together as Internationalist partners in destroying Race and Racial Values. And just as Marxism stifles ambition, Global Capitalism devalues skill. Both systems are entirely quantitative, seeking to make all things cheaper, faster and more abundant. Conversely, Racial Protectionist economics is a system that values qualitative principles like ambition, ingenuity, skill, merit, and thus true worth.

One should also understand that this is, above all, an ethical system. Within the economy (as in all other spheres) there exists a natural meritocratic infrastructure. Those who want to advance by means of their own unrestrained ambition will do so. Those who are habitually lazy will also find a place in our society, but at the bottom of the ladder. And it must be made perfectly clear that there will be no room at all for either dole-collecting parasites or “fat cat” high-interest men.

When the racial dimension is added to the State’s meritocratic economy, the result is a system of true Volksgemeinschaft (i.e. “People’s Community”). Historically, the additional facet of Race was very much alive in the economic systems of ancient Sparta, republican Rome, Anglo-Saxon England, the Viking communities of Northern Europe, and of course National Socialist Germany. Hence, the system of Volksgemeinschaft is one that we deeply revere, and one that we seek to implement in a full and unrestrained capacity.

Thus, the final nail in the coffin of the Communist Specter shall be hammered into place. Globalization and the corrosive forces of International Finance will also be rejected. An ethical form of race-based Aryan economics will develop instead; the kind envisioned by Francis Parker Yockey when he affectionately referred to the concept of “ethical socialism.” There will be a liquidation of the parasitic classes that contribute nothing, a tremendous leveling will occur, and then will come the rapid implementation of Meritocracy in all fields. And the latter will swiftly lead to True Aristocracy. Those who deserve power shall attain it!

When one speaks of “professions” in our coming society, they will be referring only to those which reflect High Culture, High Politics, Science and Spirituality. In fact, the latter two shall steadily be fused into a Science of the Spirit and shall increasingly take precedence over the other fields in tandem with all issues concerning Race.

In other words, our society will be founded on the higher principles of Race, High Culture and Science-Spirit as opposed to economics or politics. Consequently, the individual realms of Spirituality, Race, Science and the Arts will all come together and flourish organically. A New Renaissance of the Cosmic Man – the Cosmic Aryan Man – shall commence.

Even now, a vast number of people are coming to the realization that the dogmas of Global Capitalism and Marxism are but two sides of the same dull coin – perverse ideas seeking to fit a naturally vertical world into a horizontal frame, while striving to make everything bland and uniform. From the same “Big Mac” that can be found in Detroit and Singapore, to the drab gray apartment blocks that still dominate the urban landscapes of Communist East Asia (North Korea, Vietnam, China) and the former Communist countries of Eastern Europe.

In his book Imperium Europa, Norman Lowell sheds light on the shared interests of Marxism and Global Capitalism (aka Financial Capitalism), thus proving that they are indeed two of a kind:

For today, Communism and Financial Capitalism meet at their highest point. The apex of Communism today, is nothing more than the multinationals. Huge conglomerates, with a multiracial, unseen, board of directors, more often than not manipulated by one or two of the usual tribe, operating from some unreachable, hidden headquarters. And below them, far, far below them, millions of shareholders, blind as to the operations, the machinations, the goals of their all-powerful, mysterious Moloch. The quarterly document denoting the dividend keeps the millions of minions contented and quiescent. Today’s multinationals are nothing else but the meeting point, the convergence, the apex of both Communism and Capitalism.⁵⁴

What Lowell is describing is a system in which Marxism and Global Capitalism converge; where one does not actually, physically, tangibly own the wealth that is legally and rightfully theirs. A system in which all rights have been surrendered economically and politically to the new Managerial Class – a class comprised of greedy CEOs who have pushed aside shareholders thereby seizing control of big corporations, and power-hungry political bosses who’ve taken over the reins of government. Just as the Financial Managers are no longer responsible to stockholders (the legal owners), Political Managers are no longer responsible to the voters who elected them.

And yet there is a third group, the Cultural Managers, who can be found in the realms of academia, the mass media, the arts, law, etc. The Cultural Managers were the last group to emerge, but also the most influential. For they are the ones who control the sentiments of the masses (so-called “popular opinion”). It is through the schools and universities that the Cultural Managers train the next generation of teachers, lawyers, journalists, etc. – professionals who are guaranteed to maintain and further advance the multicultural/multiracial agenda of the Managerial classes.

The three groups of Managers form a world ruling elite which is inimical to the interests of Traditional Society. While operating solely under the guise of “Capitalism,” the Managerial Elites are very much Marxist in their beliefs and goals. Economically, politically and culturally, the Managers are all working toward their shared ultimate goal: the total destruction of the White Aryan Race by any means necessary. Miscegenation, immigration, class warfare, political and economic centralization, unnecessary wars – all are used as weapons against the White World.

It is therefore only logical that – in conjunction with a fully integrated political union of the world's White nations – Racial Protectionism is the one economic philosophy that fully serves and represents the best interests of the White Race. Only by the armor-piercing sword of the Aryan's Will, coupled with the protective shield of Racial Exclusivity, shall the Enemy be slain. The weaponry of Racial Protectionism wielded firmly in the hands of a White World Goliath will deliver the final death blow to the Liberal-Marxist World Conspirators. Thus shall the White Aryan Race advance beyond all present limitations, upward, upward, ever upward, to the distant borders of the known Universe and beyond. And we shall!

The Environment

Always taking precedence over the economy is the natural environment. Along with all racial and cultural matters, the environment is a primary concern of the IMPERIUM. For it is on our terra sacra, our sacred soil, that the Race must live and flourish. Respect for Nature is therefore essential. Our Aryan forefathers understood this – men such as Ernst Haeckel, Madison

Grant, Richard Walther Darré, Alfred Rosenberg, and of course Adolf Hitler.

Environmental degradation is a very real phenomenon that has been plaguing the earth since the second half of the nineteenth century. In recent years, of course, the wholesale destruction of Mother Earth has picked up incredible speed. Polluted fresh-water sources, maritime oil spills, smog-filled skies, vast stretches of land and sea that are toxic and radioactive, the deforestation of even vaster wooded regions, and other such calamities are threatening to seal humanity's fate as a doomed species in the 21st century. These manmade catastrophes have been combining with uncontrollable natural disasters at record pace in recent years. And with the decadent global system currently in place, the scope of these ecological disasters will only increase in severity.

To be sure: the current world economic and political system is to blame. In this regard, we who support the IDEA agree with the Green Party folks. Where we disagree, however, is in our conviction as to what Force actually controls the current world system. The leftists (Greens included) typically take the “politically correct” route by blaming the “Capitalist system” and, quite often, Western Civilization. What they fail to acknowledge, either consciously or not, are two fundamentally interconnected truths: (1) modern Capitalism's enabling political counterpart: liberal-democracy, and (2) Jewish control and manipulation of the Liberal Capitalist world system via Jewish International Banking (hence “Globalization”).

The International Manipulators know that if a nation was to go “green” by harnessing the forces of nature to provide energy, then that nation would (to a large extent) be free of the Manipulators’ transnational political-economic domination. It is partly for this reason that the IMPERIUM must nationalize – or rather, racialize – certain natural resources, utilities and vital industries, so as to put them fully in the hands of the Race, via the medium of the Racial State. It is only logical, then, that the IMPERIUM will work toward total green energy conversion, thus utilizing Mother Nature’s natural gifts to the fullest.

In addition to “going green” (in the protective-racial sense), the IMPERIUM will initiate an extensive long-term program of environmental cleanup in order to reverse much of the destruction that has already occurred. Funding for environmental restoration programs shall be a prime concern for the State, as it is in the Aryan species’ best interest to inhabit a clean and sustainable planet. Within the IMPERIUM entire cities shall be cleansed; programs of environmental restoration and restructuring shall be enacted in full measure.

Wherever it is possible, concrete will be replaced with grass; brown-tide waterways will vanish before crystal clear waters; decrepit old tenements will be eradicated from the urban landscape in favor of aesthetically beautiful living spaces replete with trees, flowers and finely manicured parklands.

Any business or industry that violates the State-protected sanctity of the Aryan environment shall be tried and convicted, and its executive staff punished with long prison terms and hard labor. The future Aryan Leadership must possess this high level of passion and consequently act upon it, in order to preserve the natural inheritance of future generations.

As it stands now, Western cities are polluted, immoral and totally putrid. They are not the kinds of places that are conducive to racial and cultural hygiene. Rather, one finds all the human garbage, all the waste, weaklings and weirdos in our modern cities. Hence, the high percentage of blacks, Jews, homosexuals, leftists, deviant artists, Muslims, racial aliens and other assorted degenerates currently infesting our urban zones.

Without a hygienic environment it is absolutely impossible to either sustain or produce a healthy Race. As the great 20th century American conservationist Madison Grant stated in his 1916 work, The Passing of the Great Race: “The country villages and the farms are the nurseries of nations, while cities are consumers and seldom producers of men.” Grant understood the ecological conditions that were necessary for producing a healthy Race and Culture. He recognized how the ideal Aryan Cultivator of Civilization needed

“exercise...and air, and cannot live under Ghetto conditions.”⁵⁵

Since the overall health of the Race is so fundamentally tied to the health of the environment, the latter must always take precedence over monetary concerns. The country farm must always prevail over the city bank. To quote the Führer: “The economy is something secondary.”⁵⁶ Race and environment, Blood and Soil, are primary.

The integral relationship between eugenics and euthenics, biology and ecology, was superbly explained by Professor of Botany Ernst Lehmann in his 1934 work, Biological Will:

We recognize that separating humanity from nature, from the whole of life, leads to humankind’s own destruction and to the death of nations. Only through a re-integration of humanity into the whole of nature can our people be made stronger. That is the fundamental point of the biological tasks of our age. Humankind alone is no longer the focus of thought, but rather life as a whole... This striving toward connectedness with the totality of life, with nature itself, a nature into which we are born, this is the deepest meaning and the true essence of National Socialist thought.⁵⁷

Also falling within the realm of environmental stewardship is the often neglected subject of Animal Rights. The State shall enact a strict code of Anti-Animal Cruelty laws, which will prohibit the abuse, torture and flagrant disrespect of all domestic pets and wildlife. The following phrase represents official State policy regarding animal life: “Domesticated animals need our love and care; wild animals need our respect.”

The famous anti-vivisection laws of the Third Reich shall serve as a guide for all our future acts and edicts with respect to non-human life. Likewise, all conscionable citizens should seek to emulate the Führer’s own unsurpassed kindness to animals and his perpetual love of Nature in general.

Women’s Rights, Feminism, and Abortion

Woman is beauty. Biologically, she possesses the older, more primitive physical characteristics of the race, displaying the race’s mysterious past – the enigmatic ankh of creation. Oppositely, males show in their development the direction in which the race is heading under the forces of variation and selection; they are the arrows of evolution.⁵⁸

As living vessels of the racial future, female citizens of the IMPERIUM shall hold the most venerable and important position relevant to the continuance of our Civilization, fulfilling the sacred role of Mother and Wife. It is therefore recognized that woman is equal to man in human dignity and has her own rights to enjoy as well as duties to perform. Women must be upheld and lauded as the great nurturers of the Race – as mothers, wives, sisters, daughters. They are to be esteemed first and foremost by the State.

This is not some abstract ideal which needs to be enshrined in law, but a fact of history. For it is well known that White women have always enjoyed a much higher degree of reverence than the women of the Third World. Whereas the Woman of the West has had a long colorful history of being adored, idolized, romanced and treated with the utmost chivalry, her non-Western counterpart has had no such history – for she has been abused and degraded without end, regarded as little more than a work mule, a beast of burden. For evidence of this one need only observe the traditional gender protocols of cultures and races such as the Muslims, Chinese, Hindus, Negroes and “Hispanics.” Doubtless, one will soon come to the realization that, indeed, the White Man actually worships his Female counterpart.

⁵⁸ Grant, op. cit., p. 23.

To be sure, Woman is the ultimate physical manifestation of the feminine ideal – the carrier of the “weaker” emotions: peace, love, compassion, sensuality, etc. These emotional traits are, themselves, neither good nor bad. When tempered by the “stronger” masculine emotions – such as bellicosity, fortitude, austerity, hardness – the feminine ideal is in line, acting as a great stabilizing force in society.

When feminization overtakes the men of a society, however, the results are negative and they manifest quite rapidly. In only a couple of generations the ill effects of forced feminization take root and strangle every facet of a once healthy culture. On all fronts, men are transformed into mere women with penises – genderless freaks, lesbians! – to the point where they have to feel guilty or apologize for being men and for having manly urges. Such a sorry state of affairs has afflicted the West for generations.

Indeed, the forced feminization of White men has wrought an enormous amount of mental, emotional, social and cultural havoc on the Race as a whole. The liberal democratic State has abetted the problem, since it is liberal democracy itself that is so appealing to the fairer sex – and to the “feminine side” of men as well. Actions like voting (mere popularity contests), demonstrating/boycotting (clearly passive-aggressive behavior), lobbying, punditry (i.e. gossip) – all these are feminine by their very nature. Is it any wonder why women in the United States overwhelmingly vote for

Now it must be said: we of the IDEA are neither anti-woman nor against the feminine ideal when it is properly balanced by the masculine. We only oppose the wholesale emasculation that occurs when feminism is permitted to infiltrate a society to the exclusion of masculinity, and on all levels. The forced feminization of the West – by those who control the media, academia, politics, world finance, etc. – is allowing our race-enemies to boldly use their unapologetic masculinity against us. The aggressive Third World invader, with his ever-increasing list of demands, naturally gains concession after concession as the effete Westerner, proportionately ever more aloof, retreats into eunuch-dom.

Therefore feminism – alongside the analogous homosexual agenda – is one of the greatest crimes a society can perpetrate against its people (both men and women). The concept – or rather the ideology – of so-called “feminism” is thus totally incompatible with the IDEA in every conceivable way (morally, socially, culturally, etc.). What’s more, the Marxist roots of feminism are easy to find when one studies the topic for any small length of time. As Catharine A. MacKinnon wrote in her book, Toward a Feminist Theory of the State (1989), “Feminism, Socialism, and Communism are one [and] the same, and

Socialist/Communist government is the goal of feminism.”⁵⁹

On top of all this, feminism is an idea which is totally antithetical to the laws of Nature. For where exactly can it be observed among mammals (or most species in general) that the female sex is equal to the male in terms of physical strength and sheer hardness? Perhaps a better question would be: Where in all of Nature, and among all species, do you find female animals performing the same exact roles as their male counterparts? The answer would most likely be: among human beings in the asinine Western World. That is: in the politically and culturally liberal Western World.

As Francis P. Yockey remarked decades ago: Liberalism “puts a uniform on [woman] and calls her a ‘soldier.’” Such absurdity only confirms that History is eternally masculine, and “that the fundamental realities cannot be renounced, even, by the most elaborate make-believe.”⁶⁰ Quite illogically, feminists promote their agenda as some kind of distorted mirror-image of masculinity – to the detriment of true femininity. Julius Evola described this development, which has appeared cyclically throughout history, as Amazonism.

It has been over the course of the past century that the Culture-distorters have attempted to convince themselves that women are physically as strong as men, and therefore able to perform masculine roles. Far from truly advancing the quality of life and emotional stability of “career women,” these blatant lies have led to one of the greatest crimes in all of history: the breakdown of the family unit. And indeed, statistics have shown that as the number of women in the workforce increases, so also does the number of single parents increase, which in turn has led to an increase in neglected, abused and delinquent children.

Truly, since the 1960s, when the likes of Gloria Steinem, Betty Friedan and Bella Abzug were campaigning for their twisted version of women’s rights, the number of broken homes and psychotic children has skyrocketed. Today, almost every other child is afflicted with autism and “attention-deficit disorder” (among other afflictions). Drug use is rampant, along with gang violence and all other forms of degeneration. Meanwhile, true parents who have traditionally instilled values in their offspring are becoming fewer and fewer in number.

What is more, the number of racially fit children is rapidly declining due to childless unions and the all too common employment of abortion after casual sexual experiences. At the same time, the number of mongrelized half-breeds and non-White children is growing steadily. This is the mission of abortion: to kill off the White Aryan Race by convincing racially fit

White women that it is natural and even advantageous for them to prevent a fetus from growing in the womb. The murderous act of abortion is actually extolled by modern liberals as a socially conscious and “humanitarian” thing to do.

Where, however, has one ever witnessed in the animal kingdom any species commit the intentional mass-killing of its offspring? When has one ever seen a she-wolf, a cow or a lioness ever intentionally bang their bellies against a tree in order to kill the unborn? Answer: Never. It does not occur. Yet this is exactly what is occurring today among the human species, and at record numbers in every White country on earth.

We supporters of the IDEA and its forthcoming world-system (the IMPERIUM) stand resolutely against the atrocity of abortion – against the Steinem-Friedan-Abzug-Jewess-inspired genocide of the White Race, which is occurring at this very moment, and on a greater scale than can even be imagined! The IMPERIUM shall stand firmly opposed to this crime perpetrated against both mother and child.

The great James L. Battersby could not have been more precise with his words when he wrote, “It is a first duty of the Aryan State to safeguard the mother and child.”⁶¹ The true Aryan understands this better than anyone. He knows that his woman is a divine being and his child represents the most precious, sacred future of his Kind.

Finally, this brings us to the oft-neglected issue of children's rights. As of the moment of birth, every child possesses rights which are to be honored by its parents. Every child is to be accorded proper needs, such as food, nursing, shelter, clothing, education, hygienic and moral care. Children represent the precious, sacred future of the Race. They deserve the right to grow physically, mentally and emotionally for their own glory as well as for the glory of their family, Culture and Race.

Yes, children are the greatest investment any human being can or ever will make. The Führer made this perfectly clear when he stated the following in no uncertain terms: “The folkish state must...declare the child to be the most precious treasure of the people.”⁶² Amen!

The Homosexual Agenda

The homosexual agenda that is currently being pushed all over the Western World is no accident. Homosexuality, alongside Marxism, is one of the more blatantly Jewish forms of countercultural decay. Through the ages, as far back as the infamous tale of ⁶² Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf, trans. Ralph Manheim (Boston: Houghton Mifflin Company, 1943), p. 403.

Sodom and Gomorrah, it has been observed that Jews and homosexuality seem to go together. Why this is the case is anyone's guess, but it most likely has to do with centuries of inbreeding and genetic defectiveness.

When one considers homosexual activism in modern times, one will find a veritable ocean of Jewish names promoting this anti-Natural lifestyle. Names like: Magnus Hirschfeld, Emma Goldman, Harvey Milk, Mark Segal, Mary Bernstein, Brenda Howard, Paul Goodman and Rachel Maddow (just to name a few). By and large, leftist Jews have "cornered the market" on the homosexual agenda in their ongoing effort to pervert the minds of the herd-like masses. And they are succeeding, as more and more towns and cities all across the Western World are hosting so-called "Gay Pride" parades in an attempt to show sensitivity to a group which is little more than a rabid pack of child-rapists and cross-dressers.

The success of these "queer activists" does not necessarily depend on converting others to their vampiric lifestyle, but rather on infiltrating the highest echelons of society, particularly those which already possess pro-homosexual sentiments, such as the liberal media and cultural elites; their success depends on the receptiveness of the elites to the "gay" agenda. And judging by the available statistics in the United States, a great number of cultural, political and economic bigwigs are themselves homosexuals.

Mark Segal, the so-called “dean of American gay journalism,” understood the need for homosexuals to attain a positive media image. In the 1970s Segal disrupted a series of popular television programs in order to bring his “gay” agenda to the attention of America’s mainstream. The programs he interrupted included the CBS Evening News, The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson, and The Today Show with Barbara Walters. This cost the networks hundreds of thousands of dollars in production and lost advertising revenue. It was later said that prior to Segal’s televised interruptions, many (if not most) Americans had not even known what homosexuality was.

As a “gay journalist,” Mark Segal is also known for his past reporting on the homosexual communities of various communist countries. In the United States, Segal has pushed for the month of October to be recognized as “Gay History Month” – a month originally dedicated to Italian-Americans for their contributions to American society and culture.

Running parallel to the homosexual agenda are the related ideologies of Marxism and Feminism, both of which support the “emancipation of gays” (whatever that exactly means) and the total acceptance of perverted ways of life, or in their words “alternative lifestyles.” And just what is the “homosexual lifestyle”? Quite frankly, it is nothing more than an unquenchable, lecherous thirst for same-sex coitus. This vampiric need for carnal pleasure far surpasses the sex-drive of normal, healthy heterosexuals, as the latter do not incorporate their sexual orientation into every aspect of their lives and identities.

The homosexual is someone who is absolutely defined by sex (plain and simple); it is incorporated into the homosexual's very being. This is easily noticeable whenever one has the misfortune of crossing paths with the "openly gay" male. This poor wretched soul, who often has his "boyfriend" gleefully striding beside him, will never cease in brazenly attempting eye contact with every mildly attractive male he passes. The pathetic creature is obviously never satisfied sexually, so he attempts to make "contact" with as many other men as possible, even to his partner's delight!

Such overtly promiscuous behavior on the part of a heterosexual male would promptly force his wife or girlfriend out of his life for good. Not so with the homosexual. For his (or hers) is a life of vampirism – a ceaseless and tireless quest to convert as many fellow degenerates to the queer faith as possible. Often the conversion is made in exchange for monetary gain (hence the phrase "turn queer, get rich"), as is the case in Hollywood where "young talent" is continually discovered and then tossed aside, merely to satisfy the momentary cravings of the Sodomite studio heads.

Same-sex lust is the obvious side to the homosexual agenda. However, there is a more covert reason behind it, and that is: the destruction of the family. More specifically: the destruction of the White Aryan family. You see, for every White individual who is gay or lesbian, that person's family line has ended. In some cases lesbians do bear children through artificial insemination, however adoption is much more common. And while the global leftist establishment understands that billions of non-Whites reproduce at exponentially high rates – which will not be affected by the occasional abortion or childless woman among them – they also know that the dwindling Aryan birthrate is severely affected by these phenomena. And of course all feminist groups zealously support both abortion and alternative lifestyles – especially for single White women.

In view of the overwhelming evidence, therefore, the Homosexual Agenda must be viewed as a noxious disease negatively impacting the overall health of the White Aryan Race and the morality of Western Culture; it must be eradicated. This means: no more “Gay Pride” displays in public, and no more support for a Queer Agenda. In our coming IMPERIUM, homosexual criminals will be subjected to special genetic testing in order to better understand this disease of mind and spirit, and to eventually eradicate the so-called “gay gene” from our Sacred Gene Pool.

Pornocracy

One of the surest signs of the ongoing destruction of Western Civilization is the promotion of pornocracy in every aspect of modern culture. Whether it rears its ugly head in an art gallery as some bohemian madman's latest fecal sculpture, or on the latest "hip-hop" album of a degenerate Negro "musician," or in a newly released motion picture, complete with the usual vulgarity, violence and sexual content that Jewish-controlled Hollywood pushes relentlessly on the innocent youth of the Western World. All these abominations are reflective of the pornocratic era in which we live – an era which reaches back to the 1945 victory of Allied decadence over European High Culture.

Indeed, since World War II a steady progression of degenerate culture – funded and promoted by wealthy Jews and their Gentile lackeys – has been ripping the moral fabric of Western Civilization to pieces. In their quest to undermine Western Civilization, the Jews utilize their de facto monopoly on the arts and entertainment industries to achieve their degenerative goals. The supreme objective being: the total deracination of the White Man.

Thus, over the course of the past several decades they have successfully brainwashed untold millions of White Americans and Europeans into believing that the vulgar, violent and highly sexualized "culture" of the American Negro is superior to the High Culture of European Man. This explains the success of Negro culture among Whites in the U.S. and abroad.

Practically all of the decay that has been afflicting the West – culturally, socially, spiritually and (yes) politically – can be traced to the triumph of the Illuminati-backed French Revolution; a triumph which was perhaps easiest to discern in the realm of art. For it was only after that fateful date in 1789 that the strict Western ideal of beauty – inherent in traditional Western music and the visual arts – deteriorated into abstract chaos. The melodious order and symmetry of Mozart would soon give way to the wildly erratic compositions of the nineteenth century. A beautiful world of Baroque beauty would be replaced by Post-Impressionist slop. In just a one-hundred-year period Western art tragically sank into the dismal depths of the “modern age.” The Ideal of Beauty would at last be replaced by the Ideal of Ugly.

Likewise, Western politics degenerated after 1789 as mob-rule democracies and corrupt parliaments began pandering to the whims of the ignorant herd. Where once there was only one king that ruled supreme over a people, now there were many lesser “kings” (a veritable army of bureaucrats) that would tyrannize a nation.

In conjunction with this political degeneration came economic decay; money was increasingly worshipped as the “alpha and omega” of all things. The economy, formerly considered a supporting pillar of the great Western Culture, now became the apex of all existence. From the Marxists came the argument that everything is economic-driven; from the corrupt banking class came the belief that money is mankind's ultimate goal; from the psychologists came the perverse thesis that everything is rooted in sex.

Hence, the Materialist forces that seek to destroy High Culture want man to revert back to the primitive savage who only fulfills a basic economic-reproductive task – to become mere animals! Where Darwinism and Freudianism animalized man through biology and psycho-sexual impulse, Marxism and Finance Capitalism animalized man through economics.

The result of this animalization of the human being today confronts Western Man at every turn. Wherever he looks, there is some kind of pornocracy lewdly staring back at him. This pornocracy must be fought against hardily and overcome if Western Man and his Civilization are to survive. It must be rooted out wherever it exists and by any means necessary.

Western Man must look to his glorious past in order to catch a glimpse of his triumphant and artistically limitless future. He must look back to Da Vinci, Michelangelo, Rembrandt, Vivaldi, Bach, Mozart, Wagner, Verdi, et alii, and from there begin to create anew. A definite break must be made with all forms of degenerate culture – a culture which is embraced, sadly, by the great majority of Western youths in North America, Europe and beyond. We must finally take seriously the words of Francis Parker Yockey who said:

Mass clangor is not music, pictorial nightmares are not even draughtsmanship, let alone the art of painting. Obscenity and ugliness are not literature, materialistic propaganda is not drama, disconnected words thrown formlessly on to paper are not lyric poetry.⁶³

Drugs

Rampant drug use is yet another sign of our current society's pornocratic decay; this is undeniable. However, one must understand that the drug itself – and even drug use itself – is not to blame. Throughout history, people in every culture have used and abused drugs to their hearts' content. Traditionally, drug use constituted either an individual or group-ritualistic act that generally had no noticeable role in contributing to the downfall of the great civilizations which preceded our own. This is to say that none of the ancient historians list drug use as a viable cause for the decline of their respective societies.

Historically, drugs were not typically outlawed by empires, kingdoms, states or duchies – so there really wasn't any economic or societal reason for having competing criminal gangs that specialized in dealing and distributing. There was no great monetary value attached to a particular drug; drugs were plentiful. It becomes clear then, that drug use only becomes a problem when drugs are intentionally pushed on a population due, in large measure, to an increasing economic demand induced by regulation. This was precisely the case in nineteenth century China. Thus, random drug use transforms into a major social problem when the drug itself becomes valued.

Although the British are typically vilified as the chief instigators of the “Opium Wars,” the Qing Dynasty’s prohibition on the trade of opium, thus its attitude toward the drug itself, was actually to blame. This prohibitory act greatly increased the value of opium, thereby turning nearly every other Chinaman into a dope-crazed zombie. In Britain, on the other hand, opium was readily available to any and all who desired it, yet opium abuse was incredibly miniscule when compared to the more traditional British vice: alcoholism.

British imperialists soon realized what a powerful hold opium had had on the Chinese people, and so naturally they employed the restricted drug as a weapon of war against them. The long-term retarding effects of opium on the Chinese masses – socially, culturally, politically, etc. – is undeniable, as tens of millions of otherwise healthy Chinese men and women were ultimately destroyed by that addictive menace.

The same results of state-sponsored “pushing” can be seen today on any number of American Indian reservations in North America, where the substance of choice in helping along the process of genocide is alcohol. The Amerindian's body has no tolerance for that bedeviling liquid which he so aptly named "firewater." Nevertheless, the American Indian is paradoxically making a triumphant return, as his numbers have steadily been reinforced by millions of other full-blooded Indians and Mestizos who, for decades, have been pouring into the U.S. from all over Latin America. In fact, American Indians now constitute one of the fastest growing U.S. populations.

Today, the real endangered species in the U.S. is the Aryan – the White Man. The effects of the U.S. Government's so-called "War on Drugs" have been disastrous for the White Race. With each passing hour, an ever-increasing number of White youths (having accepted the degeneracy of niggerized pop-culture) are driven by peer pressure to experiment with an ever-greater assortment of dangerous narcotics.

And so, like his Negro idols in entertainment, music and sports, the degraded White youth comes to appreciate a destructive worldview in which nothing is held sacred except fornication and drug use. Animalization can therefore proceed until the transformation of the White youth is complete, turning him into a creature of severe degradation.

Of course, in the United States, the government is responsible for this sad reality – but so too are the minority street gangs responsible. Wherever there exists a major urban center and its suburban periphery, there can be seen hordes of Negro and Mexican gang members all squabbling like rats for their petty “territories” – all pushing drugs which eventually get into the hands of gullible (yet otherwise beautiful) White youths. If we care at all about our children and the future of our Race – as David Lane so precisely put it in his famous 14 Words ⁶⁴ – then the criminal gangs must be eliminated. The filth must be destroyed!

When the IMPERIUM is established, the evil that has infiltrated our Civilization will be stamped out ruthlessly in every corner of the White World, wherever a White population is to be found. Those who have gotten away with surviving off of the White Man’s scraps, and who have turned around and proceeded to extort the White Man with said scraps, shall (as mentioned earlier) be deported back to their racial zone of origin. The coming IMPERIUM for White Aryans only!

After this most necessary act of racial deportation is completed, the guarantee of individual rights within the IMPERIUM shall swiftly follow. All vital liberties (outlined in chapter three) and individual personal choices having to do with one’s lifestyle (which includes the use of drugs) shall not be infringed on by the State, so long as the individual does not threaten the State or other individuals by his acts. All individual rights thus fall within the realm of the Dominium – the softer, feminine side of the IMPERIUM. High Culture and traditional values (not draconian laws) will regulate the moral climate of society, as was the case in the United States prior to the implementation of Lyndon Johnson's "Great Society."

Those who argue against the post-deportation libertarian measures mentioned above will undoubtedly warn of the many drug-induced accidents which will occur, such as "driving while high." They are correct – such accidents will indeed occur. However, those individuals who cause the accidents shall lose their privileges within the IMPERIUM and shall be prosecuted harshly.

The reckless ones shall comprise a small minority however, as most drug abusers will simply overdose once de-criminalization goes into effect. Here it should be noted that the coming overdose is something that needs to occur and is actually even desired by the State, so as to help cleanse the White Race of its own degenerates and inferiors. As the author's wise old grandfather used to say: "The world was not made for stupid people."

Special retreats shall house all individuals who wish to do nothing with their lives but get "high." They will be provided with a beautiful natural setting where they can overdose. There will be plenty of trees under which they can "shoot up," and plenty of rolling hills and meadows where they can puff and snort. Meanwhile, the IMPERIUM's vibrant eugenics program will be studying the genes of the drug addicts, and working diligently toward the permanent eradication of this wasteful strain.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

Racial Nationalism vs. Petty Nationalism

“Racial Nationalism or Petty Nationalism?” That is the question. Those of us who are National Socialists, White Nationalists, and supporters of the IMPERIUM-IDEA are, without question, Racial Nationalists. This is to say that we strongly adhere to the concept of O.R.I.O.N, which boldly states: One’s Race Is One’s Nation. In fact, this five-word phrase accurately summarizes our entire Worldview – one which is decisively racialist in both its outlook and scope.

Petty or “civic” nationalism, as it is sometimes called, is something totally different and is actually at odds with Racial Nationalism. Petty nationalism does not care at all about the higher organic principles which definitively bind a People together – principles such as common Blood, Culture, History, place of origin, etc. Petty nationalism (also known as bourgeois nationalism) only concerns itself with the civic-commercial survival of a loosely defined population living within a narrowly conceived geographic space – often this population is multiracial and therefore devoid of any kind of actual unity outside the commercial or economic realm.

A great example of petty nationalist sentiment can be found in modern America, where it is common to see people of all races, religions and creeds zealously waving the “stars and stripes” for their often conflicting – if not diametrically opposed – worldviews. This kind of meaningless civic “flag display” is detestable to Racial Nationalists. As such, there can be no place for petty nationalism – which is to say, the non-racialist worldview – within the ranks of any legitimate pro-White movement or organization. For us, Race is everything; and every single decision we make is racially based, with the greater good of the Race always dominating our thoughts.

As for anything “good” that could possibly come out of the ranks of petty nationalism – there is nothing. The two world wars of the last century should have taught all White people that great fratricidal lesson. Tens (if not hundreds) of millions of Whites were slaughtered by their racial kinsmen – and for what? The glory of multiracial Britain, France and America? The establishment of a “Greater Turkey” in the very heart of Mitteleuropa? The creation of an economic and political “European Union” that spits on the cultural and racial heritage of Europe?

Too often folks forget that the current species of nationalism which dominates the world stage (the petty variety) was actually the product of nineteenth century liberalism – a liberalism that sought to tie different peoples together via the artificial bonds of common language and geography. The results of this liberal nationalist effort are evident in today’s Europe, where we have an artificial “Italy,” a manufactured absurdity in “Belgium,” a “France” which includes some of the most diverse regions of Europe, including Germanic Alsace, Celtic Brittany, the Basque country of the southwest, and Italian Corsica.

We Racial Nationalists distinguish between the false nationalist movements of the nineteenth century, which led to the creation of the modern nation-state, and true autonomous nationalism which every distinct ethnic-Aryan region has a right to embrace. So long as the regions are sheltered within the broader IMPERIUM of a collective White Aryan birthright, all deserve to celebrate their individual identities and live their lives without outside interference.

For what right does a Parisian have in telling Alsatians that they must consider themselves Frenchmen? What business is it of England if Scotland decides it wants out of the artificial “U.K.”? That we are all White Aryans united by the bonds of Blood and Culture should be enough. Nothing good can come from our internal (and often fratricidal) divisions.

To be a petty nationalist in the White Power Movement – a movement not defined by nation, but by Race – is much more than a mere contradiction in terms, it is hypocrisy of the highest order. For example, what glory can American petty nationalists claim if their multiracial U.S. military eventually succeeds in conquering the entire earth, yet in order to do so it reduces the global White population from an already meager 5 percent to barely 1 percent? Do not American Whites also lose in this twisted scenario? The only possible winners here are non-Whites and their Jewish masters.

The true White Nationalist is one who does not wish to see any harm come to his racial family members, be they Frenchmen or Englishmen, Australians or Swedes, Canadians or Poles, Belgians or White Argentines, Slovaks or Welshmen, etc., etc. Indeed, the racially aware individual understands that White Aryans, no matter where they might live, are all in the same global “boat” – we are all confronted in our daily lives with the same decadent issues, just as surely as we are all opposed by the same eternal Enemy. On account of these truths, the Racial Nationalist’s sense of “Nationalism” can only be racially based, in support of a globally united White Nation governed both regionally and centrally.

Sadly, the various White nationalities still view themselves, for the most part, through nineteenth century spectacles – they consider themselves “British,” “French,” “American,” etc. The majority disregard the integral forces of Race, Culture and History which, nonetheless, unite the nationalities organically as One. These spiritual non-Europeans would like to believe that they are beyond such “restrictive” forces of Reality.

Would that each independent White nation was an eternal island unto itself! If only it was possible that one nation could somehow conquer the rest and successfully impose on them one language, one national culture, one fatherland. But this is not a possible outcome as two world wars and countless other intra-European conflicts have conclusively demonstrated; here, History is our chief witness.

The future course of Western Civilization can thus only follow one of two paths: (1) self-implosion due to continuing liberal policies and petty nationalist rivalries, or (2) supra-national revival through genuine organic unity. The outcome is up to us, but we cannot have both. History always teaches that decadence spells disaster for a civilization; and once a civilization is wiped from the face of the earth, it is never to return. Thus, Egypt fell and was never resurrected, as did Sumer, Babylon, Persia, Greece, and Rome.

Our current Western Culture is at a particularly dangerous stage in its existence. Having already reached full maturity, the West must either advance to the next level of solidifying a truly united Civilization, or it must perish. It is now time to either “sink or swim.” The White nations of the world must resolutely step up to the next level of their collective Destiny, or retreat backward into the dark depths of African barbarism. Again: the choice is ours!

CHAPTER TWELVE

On the Way Forward

Before any great Movement is set into motion, it must first understand its mission, and then formulate a proper strategy. We of the IDEA have but one mission: to unite the entire White Race into a single, permanent Western IMPERIUM. Our strategy for achieving this goal rests in the sturdy hands of the Elite Minority, and not in the unfailing weakness of the herd-like majority.

To be sure, this is an anti-democratic Movement; a Movement of Absolute Individualists who, acting independently yet with one great IDEA in mind, will do whatever it takes to attain a Total Victory. To do so, this Elite (this CORE) shall follow the perennial Rule of the Sun.

The Sun is the mightiest force in our solar system. The sheer strength of our Sun's gravitational pull forces everything in the solar system to orbit around it. As the Sun is stationary, it does not physically go to the lesser planetary bodies in order to attract them. Rather, it is through the Sun's sheer strength (its radiant dynamism) that the lesser bodies are pulled in toward it.

The Sun knows its own power – it is the ultimate Absolute Individualist in the solar system. Thus should we Elite bearers of the IDEA also know our own power and strive to emulate the Power which is greater still. We should not attempt to attract the masses to our struggle; only through the strength of our vital life-force will others (of a similarly high caliber) naturally gravitate toward us.

These latter acolytes, like the planetary bodies, shall be recognized as fellow Absolute Individualists. We, the Elite, shall captivate and hold these followers of ours while they, in turn, look to attract an even greater number of useful commoners who could be thought of as “orbiting moons.” Such is the organic, Cosmic, hierarchical, rhythmic way of our solar system; hence this should also be the way of our terrestrial Movement.

Here on terra firma, the heart of our struggle lies in the Cultural Heartland of our coming IMPERIUM: Europe. It should be understood by all who read this book that the current “European Union” is neither European by design, nor a genuine “union” of nations. The EU is merely an economic-judicial system created by and for an international ruling class of the world’s richest people, led by the Jews and enforced by the United States Government and its military proxies in Europe (i.e. NATO).

The plan to create a zone of unlimited economic exploitation in Europe, paralleling the one that had already been created in the U.S., had always been the goal of International Zionism. In the 75-year period since the end of the Second World War, this evil plan has been carried out to the extreme.

With this somber truth in mind, a plan of action must be taken which does not ignore the current economic and political realities dominating us. Therefore, we must take our fight politically to the capital of the EU itself: to Brussels!

First, however, it is essential for as many White Aryans as possible (and Europeans in particular) to put aside their national, philosophical and class differences in defense of a far greater and more urgent Cause: the preservation of the White Aryan Race. In the immortalized 14 Words of the late David Lane: “We must secure the existence of our People and a future for White children.”

All Pan-European forces must come together, leaving their national and linguistic differences at the door. They must unite and mobilize in defense of a greater Western Identity – an Identity that has been shaped by a thousand years of solidarity in times of dire crisis, and most easily recognized when confronting the external Barbarian threat.

All European political parties, groups and movements that are friendly to the principles of Racial Nationalism must cooperate in procuring a New Europe – a Nova Europa – which does not reflect the bogus “politically correct” values of the International Manipulators, but instead reflects the actual Spiritual, Racial, Cultural and Political aspirations of the White Race. All those who can describe themselves as “Radical, Racist, Right, Revolutionary Reactionaries” (i.e. the “Five R’s” coined by Norman Lowell) have a moral imperative to join forces with other likeminded kinsmen, be they Swedes or Italians, Poles, Irishmen or whomever.

To unite in a Pan-European coalition of Far-Right parties is the first step. Next, it is essential to attain a majority in the Brussels Parliament by appealing to the average European’s innate racial sentiment and common sense. This would not be a hard task once our coalition is unified since even the dullest intellects recognize the exploding numbers of non-Whites in their countries and, consequently, the immediate need to cease all alien incursions into Europe. Through populism, propaganda and demagoguery of all kinds, the coalition shall successfully use the democratic system against itself.

Upon attaining a Far-Right majority in Brussels, the members of the IMPERIUM-faction (the Vanguard of the coming Elite) shall convince the other coalition members of the vital need to unite around the IDEA of the core IMPERIUM group. Here, it should be noted that a parliamentary victory would itself create a dangerous situation for the Far-Right’s hegemony in Europe. For it shall be precisely when a majority is achieved that the plutocratic elements will attempt to “buy off” certain members of the coalition and to muster all the power of their endless supply of capital to politically strangle the IDEA. In fact, this they can accomplish quite easily if there is any trace of internal conflict within the Far-Right coalition.

It will therefore be necessary to unite around a Vision supported by an Ideology of far scope. Thus far, the IDEA is the only such Vision capable of uniting a Race in harmony with the mother continent on which it lives. It is Norman Lowell's Vision of a truly united Europe devoid of any fratricidal nationalist sentiments; a Europe which can only achieve its long-thwarted Destiny by burying its petty nationalisms once and for all.

The IMPERIUM-Elite shall appeal to every member of the coalition to protect and save Europa Mater in her time of imminent danger – to embrace the IDEA fully, and thus to establish the majestic foundations of NOVA EUROPA – the long-awaited New Europe for indigenous White Aryans only!

The new President of Nova Europa shall appoint cabinet ministers outside of parliament who are experts in their fields. They will come from all over Europe: from the universities, the scientific and business communities, the military, agriculture, etc. This will be a dedicated group of individuals who devote themselves entirely to the Sacred Cause of Europe for Europeans, with no ambiguities and no apologies.

Gradually (yet not too gradually) shall the transition be made to a European IMPERIUM that will eventually unite – or rather, reunite – Europe with the other Sacred World Territories. This will be a Europe in which the artificial system of discordant, rival “nation-states” shall be swept away as the continent redirects its course back to its authentic, regional roots – a Europe where all sub-national regions are fully autonomous to pursue their own unique cultural and social paths of development within the sphere of the Dominium. Ironically, this has been the shared dream of many liberals and Euro-federalist types for years. The cause of a truly free, yet deeply regional Europe shall finally win over a considerable number of these left-wing types to our side.

When the smoke clears and the Final Victory is ours, it will be the utmost concern of the IMPERIUM to center its Organic Life around the symbiotic realms of Race, High Culture and High Politics. Quality shall come to supplant quantity in all possible ways, and the Aristocratic Tradition shall once again sprout from the Aryan Soul, blossoming as always, yet this time in the form of an even greater Being – the EHREAN Man.

From a portal somewhere inside the Aryan’s soul-consciousness, the way forward, the Path, is beckoning. This Path is nothing less than our collective Destiny unfulfilled. Will we succeed in treading the Path to our ultimate Destination? Are we brave enough to even begin the Journey? Only time will tell.

Should we have any doubts regarding the existential Mission of our Age and whether or not we will succeed in accomplishing that Mission, we must remember the discerning words of Yockey and the Cause for which he gave his life:

Policy is charged with actualizing an historical Mission, the saving of Western Civilization from decadence within, and from the barbarian without.

Whether this is to succeed will depend on the strength of racial instinct left, by which is meant the instincts of self-preservation, fruitfulness, and will-to-power.⁶⁵
